us. But, sir, we must try and think of her of saving her from the knowledge of this woman's presence. I heard you mutter something of Mechanically, and as in a dream, I put on my hat. The good, thought-ful old fellow poured me out a large glass of beer and made me drink it.

"You will find it too damp to sit there, I am afraid, Miss Milne; the foam has been breaking over these

"I don't see how he can possibly get

MISS MILNE AND I.

CHAPTER XVII-Continued.

Portunately for me the eyes of the colonel were still fixed upon the fire. or my rapid change of color must have awakened his suspicions. As it was, I do not, judging from what followed, think he noticed the change in my voice and manner.

"I think I know to whom he refers: us, and it seems to me they cannot recall their curses. But must you not be going? It is very late; daylight will be breaking before you get back. For your safety's sake, you—

"Safety—my safety! What do I care for my safety now?" I almost shouted and for the first time my eyes

A little of both.)
"From what I hear, simple goodness of heart prompted her."
"Really, really!"—this musingly; then aloud: "If you get the opportunity, I should be deeply grateful to you if you would convey our thanks you

Indeed, I shall be very glad to do

"Indeed, I shall be very glad to do so."

"Now." said the colonel, in a different voice, and as though beginning a new chapter, "now about yourself. I will rake up no more of the past than is absolutely necessary. I felt it to be my duty, while in England, to place n.yself in opposition to certain hopes of yours, Doctor Rieby, and, if I remember, you admitted, after you had had time to think the matter over, the justice of the course I had adopted. Your manner at the quarantine station, and certain remarks and actions of yours led me to suppose that those hopes of yours are not dead. May I ask is that so. Doctor Rigby."

My elbows were on the table and my face hidden in my hands. Without looking up, I replied, "It is so, sir."

"Well, now, Dr. Rigby! I have given this matter my most anxious thought, with this result; We like this new country; the warm climate suits my old bones, and Edith's health in the result; the late this new country; the warm climate suits my old bones, and Edith's health in the result; the result was not been added as I such adapted again; then is at down subject, when you know as much as I may face and burst into tears—mad.

Then we silently shook hands and parted. I did not swaken May—I had had enough trouble without repeating than and parted. I did not swaken May—I had had enough trouble without repeating that night's story to him—but made straight for the road Warren had recommended. I had neither the strength to the road Warren had recommended. I had neither the strength be had committed suicide, that is was for everybody? "Now, nor intended. I did not swaken May—I had had enough trouble without repeating was read. I did not swaken May—I had had enough trouble without repeating and parted. I did not swaken May—I had had enough trouble without repeating the country in the post and firmly should repeat the subject of the came under your intended. I had neither the strength be had committed without the strength be had committed the had committed the had committed the had committed the l new country; the warm climate sults new country; the warm chinate when my old bones, and Edith's health is botter; the people, as far as we have seen them, are pleasant and agree was over and gone, and a new and able. The one or two friends we have able. The one or two friends we have made we like extremely, and then there are now neither associations nor attractions nor ties of any kind in the old country that bind us to it. I am not anxious to influence you un-fairly, but it does appear to me that there, I am arried, Miss Miline; there is a most be other than painful to a reach death, that the gover and the growth of the country of the matter your great service to the colour, it is extremely improbable that the gover not an improvable that the government will allow you to an improvable that the government will allow you portlements. But you portlements allow the government will be gove child—she has been very constant to what made me ask you down here to you. Rigby—her happiness will be night, Well, I hardly know myself;

areat."

had, during the last few words.

is hand with great tenderness "Go! Where are you going?" He had, during the last few words, put his hand with great tenderness upon my shoulder, and I, all the time—what shall I say for myself? No struggle had gone on within me: I had lost the power of struggling; every sense was in abeyance. Dazed and stupid, I rose to my feet, and my bloodless face told its own tale. The room went round and round, the pictures on the wall danced before me like little hills seen through the morning mist. wall danced before me like little hills seen through the morning mist. I selzed the table to support myself.
The colonel made some exclamation of astoniahment, and stepped back from me; then I sank again into my chair, and covered my face in my hands. Then the colonel came up behind me, and putting both hands of old Moore, I would report her as well, as, of course, she is perfectly
well, as, of course, she is perfectly and an expectation of the colone of the chair, and covered my tace in my hands. Then the colonel came up behind me, and putting both hands on my shoulders, asked with all kind-linear what it all meant.

"Are you not happy? Are you not pleased? Have I not granted you the wish of your heart? Is there more I could do for you. Doctor Rigby—will you not speak to me?"

"Give me a second, give me a minute!" was all the reply I could make.

Then he walked up and down the room, and I tried to collect myself. At length, when I had wasted some minutes in the vain endeavor, the colonel lost patience. Resting his hands on, and leaning over the side of the table opposite me, he saked: "Docotors Rights hands on, and leaning over the side of the table opposite me, he saked: "Docotors Rights hands on, and leaning over the side of the table opposite me, he saked: "Docotors Rights hands." colonel lost patience. Resting his country with he hands on, and leaning over the side of take up a select the table opposite me, he saked: "Doc-cessary funds." tor Rigby, is there another shastly secret involved? If so, be brave and tell me straight out; I can bear this suspense no longer."

"Colonel Pelham, Miss Milne is in is very unlikely that I shall be able is very unlikely that I shall be able is very unlikely that I shall be able in the straight of th Sydney; she is at the quarantine sta-tion; she sent Warrenswith you. She saved your life—but she's there."

"Good God, Rigby! is this—can this be so?" Then

Good God, Rigby! is this—can this Government, and a check on the data.

Government, and a check on the data.

Government, and a check on the data.

You must arrange to meet Warren ed with the receiving and recording insomewhere and give him the ninety struments.

The first real test of the system came pounds; that will make him safe from pounds; that will make him safe from the data.

hover forget that I have regained my hoy died—" (She paused for my

MISS MILNE AND I.

day the sneers of atheists, the dreams of the republicans, the plottings and arguments of the dynamiters. I would have saturated him with them, had he lived, and he would have been a thorn in society's side."

"Then it was well he died." I could not help saying.

"Perhaps—perhaps; but I don't now. He would have been a man, and a man only requires a moderate amount of sense, and the pluck to think differently to other people, to

Then, after a pause, and very ser-ously: "I wish I was with him withher going back to melancholia; that must not be though the gods seem pitted against us. I have a feeling in my heart that things will come right."

Solution of lously: "I wish I was with him out the shock of getting there."

"But, tell me, have you no feeling in death apart from the mome shock." "But, tell me, have you no fear of death apart from the momentary "None. Had there been half the design in the world that religious people believe in, I should have been dead long since."

"Because I have failed as a woman, shout and ought to have been taken back to the factory again years ago, to begin at the other end—the potato end. Possibly I should make good potatoes." ed, and for the first time my eyes filled with helpful tears. "You had better go, Rigby. You spoke, just now, of a hope you had. For its sake, go!"

"'Tis strange to hear a woman talk "Why? Have you such a wonderful fear of death, Dr. Rigby? Do you think it a thing to be avoided by everybody?"

why do you mak: why stoash the subject, when you know as much as I do?" I said, taking no notice of the covert insolence of the question.
"I sak," she said, "not because I want to know, for I do know, but because it was a convenient and conventional way of opening a conversation Then I laughed again; then I sat down on the rock and burst into tears—mad.

that I must have with you, however painful it may be to both of us."

speech of hers, there was, I felt, nothing for me but to sit down; not that I feared her, though I did that, but because she had, as I have hinted, some supernatural hold over me—the result, perhaps, of the memory of her successful persecution of me in the past, perhaps of some congenial peculiarity. At any rate, I sat down again to listen, with something of the feeling with which a criminal awaits his sentence. "I am going from here; I have applied to be removed." "But we all have, and none of us can get away."
"But I can, and if you want to go but, then," she added, thoughtfully, what about Warren? He can't be

(To be conunued.)

TO RECORD LIGHTNING'S FLASH Novel Instrument at St. Ignatius College, Clevelant. Weather prophets are likely to benefit by an invention of Father Odenbach her off. But how of St. Ignatius College in Cleveland. He has perfected an instrument which will record flashes of lightning long before any can be seen, and with the clouds from where they proceed far ate information of the islands, their below the horizon. The machine which he has set up in the tower of the college building is somewhat complicated, and is worked on the principle of the Marcoul system.

The electric waves, coming from a great distance, or from near by, are collected and brought through a series of delicate appliances to a recorder, which notes each impression with a excellent conductor for the electric roofed tower is the lightning-rod, also made of copper in the form of a cable, one thread of this cable being connect-

"She did."
"Is it possible that she will now forego her vengeance? But wby do I ask? What woman of that order ever did?" Then half aloud and half to himself, he greaned out: "Edith, Edith, my poor, poor girl, back to your terrible melancholis, back to your terrible melancholis."

The mention of Edith's name, and the probable effect of this new trouble upon her, brought me back to my senses; by a supreme effort I regained command of myself, and as steadily as I could I walked across the room to him.

This new black cloud, Colonel Pelham, has one little bit of silver ling that the other had not. I can have regained your condence and that her foregother and not. I can have regained that the other had not. I can have regained that the other had not. I can have forget that I have regained the probable of the that her for the serious when I detection."

The mention of Edith's name, and the probable effect of this new trouble upon her, brought me back to my senses; by a supreme effort I regained command of myself, and as steadily as I could I walked across the room to him.

This new black cloud, Colonel Pelham, has one little bit of silver ling that the other had not. I can have regained your conditions.

The first real test of the system came a few days ago. Hours before the alone has been and a few days ago. Hours before the storm visited Cleveland, when the sky was perfectly clear and absolutely no agin was given of an approaching two first record of fashes from distorm, the instrument was busy click ing off its record of fashes from distorm, the instrument was busy click ing off its record of fashes from distorm, the instrument was busy click ing off its record of fashes from distorm, the instrument was busy click ing off its record of fashes from distorm, the instrument was busy click ing off its record of fashes from distorm, the instrument was busy click in a collision tonight between a visit of the ways perfectly clear and absolutely no agin was given of an approach, under the dashes from distorm, the instrume

Big Armour Packing House Plant at Slou City Entirely Destroyed.

Sioux City, Iowa., Nov. 19 .- Armou & Co.'s packing plant, which occupied four acres of the stockyards, and was valued at $900,000, was totally destroyed early this morning by a fire which started on the second floor of the fertilizer building, and is thought by Manager Lennon to have been due to either spontaneous combustion or to an imperfect dryer. The loss is partly overed by $721,000 insurance. Five undred men are thrown out of employment. Within an hour after the flames ere discovered by a watchman six streams of water were being thrown upon the flames, which were gutting upon the flames, which were gutting by the recent beavy rains did consider-the fertilizer building, 120x60 feet and able damage to the fish hatchery on four stories high, but the pressure was that river. inadequate. The floors and contents of into the beef-killing house. At the same time the cattle chute ignited, and in five minutes fell with a crash. Once inside the beef-killing house, the flames began to dance merrily. From this house to the eleomargarine building was only a step, and when the oils most spectacular appearance. The cents were out big beef house, containing 500 carcass-or miles around was illuminated. Suddenly there was a terrific detona-tion, followed quickly by another, and then another. Twenty-four drums of street car systems in the city of Roseosion almost razed the entire plant. 2,500,000 pounds of pork products. Steadily the fire crept against the wind and through the office building. Not a scrap of paper was saved. When the last of the ammonia drums was two years 10 pardons and 16 commutative years 10 pardons yea "It can not be other than painful to us."

"It can not be other than painful to us. and if you will excuse me I would much rather not continue it."

I had risen to my feet, and was fully determined to leave her if she continued. The same feeting that used to take possession of me in London, when she was announced—an almost superstitious dread of her—came back to me with double force.

She rose to her feet and spoke very deliberately. "Walt," she said. "We had and an element in the high brick walls crum-of War Department.

Washington, Nov. 19 .- The Prononneing Gazetteer and Geographical Dictionary of the Philippines, with maps, charts and illustrations, which been issued, and contains a wealth of information concerning our Oriental states. possessions. The gazetteer proper contains 264 pages, including the index, while the geographical dictionary occupies 668 pages, exclusive of the maps, charts and illustrations.

When Dewey's brilliant victory awake national interest in the Philippines, the obtainable literature in English on the question was meager, while the Spanish works were to be found in but few libraries, so that the Police Were Ready for Emma. Chicago, Nov. 19 .- With 200 policemen and two patrol wagons held in re-serve at the East Chicago avenue stadistinct click like that of a telegraph tion, with Inspector Campbell, Lieuten-instrument. The tower of the college is roofed with copper, which forms an ball, and Justice Hamburger in his court ready to issue warrants, Emma Goldman spoke before 400 anarchists at Clark and Erie streets last night. Police precautions proved unnece

In a collision tonight between a Western avenue electric train and a Chicago Burlington & Quincy freight train at the Eighteenth street crossing. The motor and trailer which made up the electric train were crowded with passengers, and it seems a miracle that so many escaped instant death.

Demands on Two Railroads.

Chicago, Nov. 19.— Engineres and framen representing the entire St.

Orange America, 15%@16% factory prices, 121%c less.

Butter—Fancy creamery, 30@32%c per pound; axtras, 30c; dairy, 20 per pound; axtras, 30c; dairy, 20 monor trailer which made up the general series and wool—Valley, 12%@16c; Eastern Orango, 8@14%c; mohair, 26@28c.

Beef—Gross, cows, 3@3%c per pound; steers, 4c; dressed, 6@7c.

Veal—7%@8%c.

certainty, and observers will be able to foretell thunderstorms and squalls, local disturbances which it is impossible now to foretell with any degree of accuracy.—New York Post.

Increased wages and an entirely new dressed, 6c.

Lambs — Gross, 3%c per pound; can on the Northwestern have made similar demands, the increase demandcuracy.—New York Post.

Hogs—Gross, 6%c.

Hogs—Gross, 7%f.

NEWS OF OREGON

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS OF THE STATE.

mmercial and Financial Happenings of the Past Week-Brief Review of the Industries Throughout Our Con wealth-Latest Market Report.

The fourth annual Angora goat show of Oregon will be held in Dallas January 14 and 15.

Operations at the Tillamook fish intellery have been suspended on ac-count of the recent heavy rains

The freshet on the Sinela river en A postoffice has been established at

There were 360 bales of hops sold at Dallas last Saturday for 27 cents f. o. b. Mo sales have heretofore been made started to burn the fire presented a above 26 cents, though offers of 261/4

The board of directors of the Wiles, next caught fire, and the whole plant, except the hog house, was a lake of fire.

The roar was terrific. The country for miles around was illuminated.

100 pounds of ammonia each exploded burg. One company is composed before the reserve supply in the amiargely of local capitalists and the monia cistern was reached. That ex-

It is expected that the lumbermer The flames were blown through the on the lower Columbia will advance fire wall which separated the hog house from the other buildings. The hog to $8 per thousand. Yellow fir logs house contained 2,500 dressed hogs and

20 commutations, and during his last two years 10 pardons and 16 commutations Of the 10 men pardoned in the

Linn county farmers are preparing a protest to be presented to the next legislature against the proposed change of the game law, under which upland birds may be shot from September 15, instead of from October 1. Open season before October 1 means at a time when the farmers are busy with harvesting and they desire to have an even chance with hunters from the cities.

Twenty thousand of the 75,000 bookwas prepared in the bureau of insular lets advertising Lane county have been affairs of the war department, has just printed and are in the hands of the advertising department of the Harriman company for distribution in the Eastern

> George Smith, colored, who murdered his white wife in Portland, has been sentenced to hang on December 19. prepare a bill of exceptions to be used in an appeal to the supreme court.

PORTLAND MARKETS.

Wheat-Walla Walla, 68@69c; blue stem 73%@74c; valley, 70c

Barley—Feed, $21.00 per ton; brewing, $32.00. Flour—Beet grade, 3.50@3.70; grah-am, $3.00@3.50.

Millstuffs—Bran, $19.00 per ton; middlings, $23.50; shorts, $19.50; Onte-No. 1 white, $1.12%@1.15;

4.25; per pourd, 10c; hens, $4@4.50 per was more flery than her talk.

Flagman Made Fatal Mistake.

Chicago, Nov. 19.—One man was killed and a dosen men, women and children more or less seriously injured in a collision tonight between a Western avenue electric train and a Chicago Burlington & Quincy freight train at the Fight.

Veal-7%@8%c.

Destruction in Gustemals Greater Tha

New York, Nov. 18 .- Astounding evelations of great loss of life and property by the eruption of the Santa Maria volcano are being made daily, says a cablegram to the Herald from Guatemala City. Eruptions continue. Many undreds of human beings perished and the destruction of property is considered greater than that in the Island of Martinique by the eruptions of Mount

All of the estates in the neighborgood of the volcano are buried under roleanic ashes, which reach to the tops of the houses. The richest coffee estates are completely ruined. The given by his majesty, King Oscar II. principal lovers are the large coffee as arbitrator between the three coun-planters, mostly United States citi-tries named, of certain claims owing to the building burned like chaff. The Inglis, Columbia county. An office Two or three craters have been roof soon fell, and the fire burst through has also been established at Tiller, formed on the side of the volcano. Douglas county.

There was no eruption from the sumopened Friday night and $1,180 secured by a burglar. The crook evidently knew his business, as he worked the combination of the lock

The athorities are trying to force the dealers to send goods at the usual prices, but the condition of affairs is such that business is entirely paralyzed. Violently worded handbills and posters are being circulated.

ANCIENT RELICS FOUND.

Hermosillo, Mexico, Nov. 18 .- A renarkable story, duly authenticated, of the discovery of hidden Artec treasures, has just been reported to the government authorities at Tepic by Rev. Pablo Martino, the parish priest of

As such articles cannot be removed from Mexico without the consent of the government, an investigation is in

MITCHELL ON THE STAND.

Coal Attorneys Put Him Through Lively Pace-Stood Examination Well.

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 17 .- President Mitchell, of the United Mineworkers' Union, occupied the witness stand throughout both sessions of the coal strike commission Saturday. For four hours and a half he took the cross-fire of two brilliant attorneys of the coal companies, and ended the day with few scars as a result of the battle. David Wilcox, of New York, of general counsel for the Delaware & Hudson company, and Wayne MacVeagh, of Philadelphia, who is representing the Pennsylvania coal company and the Lehigh coal and iron company, were the principal questioners, and they put hundreds of questioners to Mr. Mitchell. The best of harmony prevailed between the lawyers and the witness. The mem-Governor Hunt moved that the land of two brilliant attorneys of the coal dreds of questions to Mr. Mitchell. The best of harmony prevailed between the lawyers and the witness. The members of the commission took the same interest in everything, and frequently might have a better understanding of what was being said. The afternoon session was more interesting. Mr. MacVeagh's cross-examination was, as for red fir and yellow pine. A resolution was passed finstructing the chief a rule, very keen, and while he assured tion was passed [instructing the chief Mr. Mitchell he was not radically opnoted to him, he did not miss an opportunity to place Mr. Mitchell's reasons county December 22, Shoshone, for better conditions in the anthracite coal field in a bad light before the com-

London, Nov. 18.— According to a topher Co'umbus in a special manso-special to the Mail from Sydney, N. S. leum was carried out in the cathedral W., an extraordinary dust storm has today with belitting solemnity. The been experienced in Victoria and New coffin containing the ashes of the illus-South Wales. Darkness enshrouded tions navigator was borne on the South wates. Darkness enshroused tions navigator was borne on the the city of Melbourne at noon yesterday, and balls of fire fell and set fire to several buildings. The people were thrown into a state of panic, as they thought the world was coming to an under the world was coming to an another the world was coming to an another the world was coming to an under end. A similar cloud of red dust hung like a pall over the city of Sydney.

Son Succeeds Father In Congress.

FAVORED GERMANY

KING OSCAR GAVE US CONSIDERABLY THE WORST OF THE DEAL.

Full Extent of Decision Just Made Known ... The British and Americans Had No Rights, According to the Views of the Arbitrator, to Protect Life and Property or Uphold Samoan Court.

Washington, Nov. 19 .- By previous arrangement between the officials, there was today published simultaneously in Washington, London and Berlin the full text of the decision eens' and Germans, whose properties military operations conducted in Samoa in the year 1899. The decision is long and abounds in whereases and coucle sions, and in substance it has been announced heretofore in the cable dispatches from Stockholm. The preceding publication, however, did not convey to the officials here a full realiza-The loss of the coffee crop, which is Guatemala's principal export, has completely demoralized commerce and government finances generally. The national paper corrency, which is the only circulating medium, has fallen to 7 cents gold for one paper dollar.

Prices for all necessities have risen to prohibitive figures for many persons. The athorities are trying to force the

The arbitration grew out of claims by Germans or British subjects or Ameri-can citizens for compensation on ac-count of losses they alleged they had count of losses they alloged they had suffered in consequence of unwarranted military action on the part of German, British or American officers in Samoa, between the first of January, 1899, and the 13th of May following. The ques-tion really at issue was whether or not the British and United States governents should be considered response

The arbitrator recites that the United States ship Philadelphia and the British steamers Porpoise and Royalist, on March 15, 1899, opened fire across the town of Apia, Samoa, directing the same against the forces of High Chief Mataafa; that the same vessels brought the newly appointed king of Samoa, Malietoa, and his forces to Mulimpu point and supplied them with arms and ammunition for the ensuing struggle against Mataafa. In answer to the The arbitrator recites that the United Brittannic majesty's government and the United States government are re-sponsible, under the convention of the 7th of November, 1899, for losses caused by said military action; while reserving for a future decison the question as to the extent to which the two governments, or each of them, may be considered responsible for such losses."

TIMBER ORDERED SOLD.

Idaho Land Board Will Dispose of Twenty Thousand Acres.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 19 .- The state land board has ordered the sale of about 20,000 acres more of Idaho

ber. The sale will occur in Kootenai

Seville, Spain, Nov. 19 .- The car mony of depositing the ashes of Chris-topher Co'umbus in a special manso-increase of 1 Cent an Hour.

Philadelphia, Nov. 19 .- The Phila-Paris, Tex., Nov. 18.—A special announced that, beginning December 1, election was held today in the Fourth the wages of the conductors and motorcongressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district, Morris Shepard men in their employ would be incompressional district men in the second men in th