Miss Nellie Cooper left yesterday for Hillsboro, Oregon, where she will spend the winter. Mrs. Rena Hoyt, of Portland, is a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gore, of this city.--Kalamazoo Bulletin.

S. E. Rose, one of the best known pioneer residents of Vernonia, was in town Friday. He brought out Mrs. P. F. Baker and son, Albert Baker, who were removing to Whatcom, Wash. The Bakers have lived in the vicinity of Vernonia since 1877, and have leased out their place for a term of three years. On his return trip Mr. Rose took in Miss Dunn, who was to begin a term of school at Vernonia last Monday. Miss Dunn has taught two terms of school at Mist.

A startling surprise.

Very few could believe in looking at A. T. Hoadley, a healthy, robust blacksmith of Tilden, Ind., that for ten years he suffered such tortures from rheumatism as few could endure and that a wonderful change followed his taking Electric Bitters. "Two bottles wholly cured me," he writes, "and I have not felt a twinge in over a year." They regulate the Kidneys, purify the blood and cure Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervousness, improve digestion and give perfect health. Try them. Only 50 cts. at St. Helens Pharmacy.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had cramp in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Elletts, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures cramp, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Edwin Ross, Druggist.

Edmonds-Kaspey.

Miss Kathleen Kaspey and Herbert Edmonds, two well known young people living near Mayer, were married at the Oriental Hotel Monday. County Judge J. B. Doan officiated. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Anna Kaspey, formerly a resident of Tide Creek, but is now a prosperous business man of San Francisco. He owns a bakery and a half interest in a hotel. The young couple will be pleased to learn that she has recovered her health, after she suffered a severe injury by being thrown from a wagon about seven years ago.

Born, near St. Helens, Nov. 13th, to Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Smith, a son.

"High Standard" flour has no superior for domestic uses. For sale by Collins & Gray.

Messrs. Bailey & Brinn have opened a meat market at Houlton, and choice cuts are sold at the lowest prices.

Additional pages will be added to THE MIST next week to make room for local news.

Captain Hex Caples, of Caples, was elected county commissioner of Clatskanie county, Wash., by 152 majority. E. W. Potter for county treasurer received 405 majority.

The delinquent tax list is now in the hands of the printer, and will appear in THE MIST next week. The new law requires that the interest and penalty be printed with the tax.

A new postoffice has been established at Inella in this county, with John E. Inglis as postmaster. The new office is on the route between Quincy and Clatskanie.

Ruth, the 10-year old daughter of Mr. Mrs. J. E. Bross, of University Park died of diphtheria at St. Vincent's hospital Sunday. The family were formerly well known residents of this county, and the deceased girl was a granddaughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Perry.

Great preparations are being made for a grand Thanksgiving ball in the W. O. W. hall at Houlton on Thanksgiving eve, Thursday, Nov. 27th. The managers are C. E. Bailey, T. A. Frantz and O. C. Clark. Music by the local band.

After you have read all the local and county news in this paper, how pleasant to have THE CHICAGO WEEKLY INTER OCEAN at hand to give you the happenings of the outside world and Europe in general. $1.50 pays for both one year.

The excellent picture of the St. Helens public school building that appeared in Wednesday's Oregonian, was from a photograph taken by J. J. Engler, of this city. Mr. Engler is a talented artist, and has taken some excellent views in this vicinity.

There will be a grand ball and supper in the hall at Houlton on Thanksgiving eve, Thursday, Nov. 27th, 1902. Tickets, including supper will be served in the upper story. Good music will be a feature, and the affair will be under good management.

Miss Myrtle Powell closed a very satisfactory term of school at Hudson last week, and a successful box social was held at the school house Saturday night. It is the intention to use the proceeds for building a fence around the grounds. No program of the entertainment was received at this office.

Some of the items printed in the MIST are so old that they have winkers, but the Rainier Gazette of last week takes the bun. On October 24th, THE MIST had an item about E. E. Quick and family going to Washington county to attend the wedding of a sister, but the Gazette did not discover that fact until last week.

The last issue of THE OREGON, Seattle's five magazine, is an excellent number, and the work now presents an air of solid permanency and literary merit, that bodes well for its future prosperity. The serials and short stories are models of excellence, and the illustrated writing-up of sectional features of the state of Washington are very interesting.

Assessor-el-et A. F. Laws intends to build a substantial dwelling on the lots recently purchased adjoining Assessor Martin White's residence property. He would have had the structure under way before this, but lumber could not be secured. All the small mills that have planners, are from 35,000 to 40,000 feet in their orders, and it takes a little time to get lumber for building purposes.

Attorney E. P. Graham, of Portland, formerly of St. Helens, has made a proposition on behalf of the Bennett estate, to the Municipal authorities, to compromise a claim for the death of Silas Bennett. Bennett was killed on October 10th by the breaking of the Corbett street bridge. Mr. Graham explains that he prefers a compromise for $4,000 to instituting a suit for $3,000 as the statute allows.

The name of Mrs. F. A. Gruber mentioned in last week's issue, as teacher of the Warren Brass Band was a mistake and should have been Mrs. F. A. Gruber. Owing to the severity of the weather and the distance, it will be impossible for him to continue his instructions. However a very capable instructor and leader has been secured in Charles Larson, who formerly held the same position in the Chemawa Brass Band near Salem.

J. H. Westover, the new editor and proprietor of the Oregon City Courier Herald is making a live paper. He is from Kentucky, but taught school at Hubbard about 25 years ago. One of his former pupils states that Grant Dimeck, the present mayor of Oregon City, was a fellow student, and that Westover gave Grant one of the worst "lickings" that he ever seen a boy get, as punishment for some misdemeanor.

W. A. Wood was the leader at the meeting of the Reading Circle held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Powell Friday night. In addition to the discussion of Ancient Mythology, there was a short musical program, including a piano solo by Miss Annie Quick and a piano duet by Mrs. W. H. Powell and Miss Grace Miles. The meeting this (Friday) evening will be held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Dolman, and the leader will be Miss DeGrass.

Last Sunday was a fairly good day for duck hunters, and many of them caught good bags. Quite a number came down on the American, but caught very little, except the lake on Sanvier Island, while the Republic, which came down in the evening was crowded with enthusiastic duck shooters. Judge Switzer went to Deer Island Saturday night, and after remaining all day Sunday, caught only five. On the previous Sunday a party of four went to Deer Island, but possums were disappointed in their approach, spoiled the shooting. Local sportsmen, generally, did fairly well last Sunday.

To the Public.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles of it cured my cold and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. I am now a perfectly healthy man for health. RALPH S. MEYER--Thirty seventh St., Wheeling, W. Va. For sale by Edwin Ross Druggist.

Fresh fish in season every Friday, and special Sunday dinner, at the St. Helens Hotel.
