

The Oregonist.

St. Helens, Ore., Dec. 12th, 1902.

TWENTIETH BIRTHDAY.

With this issue the Oregonist has reached its 20th birthday. This paper has reached a standard of stability, where its name is greater than that of its editors and publishers. It was long ago established on a permanent basis. People who were its substantial friends in its early days of adversity, are still its friends. And there are many new ones. Just at this time its future was never more promising. Subscriptions are coming in at a steady rate, and the advertising patronage is increasing in a most encouraging way.

The pretended republican, who slyly sent out the impression to outside precincts that The Oregonist was on its last legs, because he could not dictate its policy, was discovered in the scheme. He told The Gazette that he was next to the "politicians."

The Rainier Gazette is utterly unreliable as to its statements, and its editor knew that he deliberately lied when he stated that the new law required the delinquent list to be let to the lowest bidder, or that Sheriff Hattan did not notify the delinquents.

LOGGING AND MILL NOTES.

There is still considerable logging on Milton creek in a small way. Crouses are getting along fairly well moving the logs cut there during the past season. The work is now progressing in a very satisfactory way in their Tide creek camp, and the output from their new field of operation will be something immense. Perry Usher is still getting out cedar bolts and piling on Milton creek. Thomas Holstine is putting a lot of logs into Milton creek, and G. D. Honney and A. A. Smith are each putting saw-logs into the same stream.

The continued heavy rains and heavy rains and freshets are interfering with logging operations in some localities, but this will not materially interfere with the output for the coming season.

Logging and milling operations are unusually active in the Nehalem country, which will be the scene of extensive operations within a very few years.

The Yeon, Pelton Company have been delayed by the high water in Beaver creek, but this will not interfere with the immensity of their operations.

There is quite a lot of the Vancouver Lumber Company's logs beached across the river from St. Helens. They were carried out of Lewis river by the late heavy freshets.

Isaac Kistner has sold his interest in the Fox Creek shingle mill to Arthur Roberts.

SCAPPOOSE

F. A. Frakes went to Port Townsend, Wash., Tuesday night with 12 head of thoroughbred Holstein cows, which he had sold from his herd to parties there. He also returned a check for $1035, sent him for thoroughbred cattle, being unable to make the order. Since he carried away the prizes at the Yakima fair, his sales have amounted to about eight thoroughbreds per month.

Scappoose Artisan Assembly No. 173 has elected the following new officers: Master Artisan, J. B. Duncan; superintendents, Rose Watts; senior conductor, Bert West; junior conductor, William Piper; secretary, M. J. Englet; treasurer, D. W. Price; inspector, Myrtle West; M. of C., William West; past master Artisan, J. P. West.

The fall term of the Scappoose school closed last Friday. The teachers were E. S. Evans, of Halsey, and Miss Anna Smith, of Oregon City.

Messrs Watts & Price have shipped about 1800 cords of wood this season, and expect to cut 3000 cords next year. W. T. Watts, Jacob Skusa, D. Cooper and others have shipped small lots from this station. The shipments from the slough and other near-by sidings are immense.

L. Brown and Jay White are the managers of the masquerade ball to be given Christmas Eve.

Rev. Jones, of Portland, will fill the pulpit of the Congregational church next Sunday.

Thomas McKay, the Hudson Bay pioneer, has returned from Portland, where he was receiving treatment for his eyes.

M. Bushman has demonstrated that potatoes can be successfully raised at Scappoose. He has sold a part of 1800 sack products of burbanks at 65 cents per hundred.

The White Rose Social Club held a session Tuesday night.

The new night operator at the railroad depot is Mr. Spaulding, who recently arrived from Wisconsin.

A steam shovel gang and two gravel trains are busy filling around the cement pillars under the trestles.

WARREN

On November 28, a Grange social was held at the residence of Henry Larson, in honor of Miss Lillian Larson, who was down from Portland for a few days.

Charles Larson, returned to Chemawa last week.

A large crowd turned out to hear the debate on the 29 ult. "Resolved that the Negro of America has been treated more Abusively than the Indian." Affirmative M. S. Hazen, Morton Tompkins, F. Puzev, Negative, J. H. Tompkins, Ed Hyde, W. E. Hanson.

The Indians took the Negroes scalp, so the judges gave the Negatives the decision.

Messrs. and Mesdames, M. F. Hazen and S. G. Earley visited the metropolis Saturday last.

Messrs. Warner and F. F. Larson visited the city via Steamer Republic.

A dancing party took Mr. and Mrs. K. F. Larson by surprise Saturday evening, and tipped the "light fantastic" and "schooner" until the wee small hours. We are not informed who all were present.

Mr. Carlson, of Colo, visited the Literary Society last Saturday evening, and spoke eloquently on the benefits of a country life. As Warren is famous for her orators, we welcome Mr. Carlson, and bespeak him a brilliant future.

Miss Clara Hegele has been elected assistant secretary of the Warren Literary and Debating Society.

THE SRY.

Mrs. Lee Duncan, has returned from Newberg, where she spent Thanksgiving with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilder Drew will soon move to Scappoose, where they recently purchased a home. Alfred Badger, a stepson of Mr. Drew has arrived from the East with his family, and will remain here for a year, to investigate the conditions of the country.

Mrs. Thomas Isbister is very ill with the quinsy.

N. F. Baker is at Lents, assisting his brother T. A. Baker to erect the new school building.

Mrs. J. S. Bacon expects soon to remodel the old creamery building. The upper floor will be fitted up for a hall and the lower room for a restaurant.

The new organ at the Evangelical church is now clear of all debt, the proceeds of the last entertainment having been sufficient for that purpose.

The Grange will hold its regular meeting at the home of Henry Larson next Wednesday evening. It is expected that a hall will be secured for a meeting place at an early date.

Charles Larson, the efficient leader of the band, has returned to Clatskanie, where he accepted a rise in salary.

HUDSON

John Yeon went to Portland this week.

Miss Corry Morton died last week of typhoid fever. Miss Morton was a member of Beaver Valley Grange No. 306, and of the Columbia County Pomona Grange. Mr. and Mrs. Morton have the sympathy of the entire community.

The rains of the last week caused the river to flood the bottoms, and caused Yeon, Pelton & Co. from hauling logs for a few days.

Claud Banzer went to Portland to work this winter.

Tony Dolan, of Portland, was down this week visiting friends. Tony is always welcome to Beaver Valley.

THE MIST MID-WINTER EDITION

Illustrated With Half Tone Cuts Will be Issued About January 20.

For some weeks the management of this paper has been making an effort to secure satisfactory terms for illustrating a souvenir edition of The Mist. Satisfactory arrangements have been made, and the illustrated write-up of resourceful features, will surpass anything heretofore printed in Columbia county.

As it was impossible to secure all the data necessary for a special edition in time for the holidays, the time for its issuance has been postponed until January 20th.

Subscribe now and get the mid-winter souvenir edition.

You can save money by taking advantage of the Mist's clubbing rates with other periodicals.

NEER CITY

We saw our first snow here last Friday.

George Froster was in from the wood camp Friday on business.

Mrs. B. H. Neer, went to Portland Friday, returning Tuesday.

Mrs. L. J. Bignell went to Houlton Saturday, where she will stay until she is well again, which we all hope will be soon.

B. H. Neer went to Portland last Saturday returning Monday.

John Candler formerly of Olex Oregon, spent Saturday, Sunday and Monday, with his cousins, John and Mack Farr, then went to Portland on business.

Chris Fowler says that Neer City is a queer place, for he left his wheelbarrow on Foster and Neer's dock last, and when he came back after it the handle had dropped off.

Sunday two of the batchelor boys of this place went out for a boat ride, and before they knew it they were in the middle of the river, and it started to rain real hard, then is the time you had ought to have seen them work.

John Farr and wife; Mack Farr and wife and Miss Bell Neer, went to Portland Tuesday on business, returning Wednesday.

Foster and Neer are having their wood picked up that is on the bench this week, and are paying $1.50 per cord for picking it up and piling it on the dock.

Zitar Bashara is still on the sick list.

Mrs. Fred Unrath, President Country Club, Benton Harbor, Mich.

"After my first baby was born I did not seem to regain my strength although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband insisted that I take Wine of Cardui for a week and see what it would do for me. I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength and health slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

Wine of Cardui reinforces the organs of generation for the ordeal of pregnancy and childbirth. It prevents miscarriage. No woman who takes Wine of Cardui need fear the coming of her child. If Mrs. Unrath had taken Wine of Cardui before her baby came she would not have been weakened as she was. Her rapid recovery should commend this great remedy to every expectant mother. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

The largest sum ever paid for a prescription, changed hands in San Francisco, Aug. 30, 1901. The transfer involved in coin and stock $112,500.00 and was paid by a party of business men for a specific for Bright's Disease and Diabetes, hitherto incurable diseases.

They commenced the serious investigation of the specific Nov. 15, 1900. They interviewed scores of the cured and tried it out on its merits by putting over three dozen cases on the treatment and watching them. They also got physicians to name chronic, incurable cases, and administered it with the physicians for judges. Up to Aug. 25, eighty-seven per cent of the test cases were either well or progressing favorably.

There being but thirteen per cent of failures, the parties were satisfied and closed the transaction. The proceedings of the investigating committee and the clinical reports of the test cases were published and will be mailed free on application. Address John J. Fulton Company, 420 Montgomery St., San Francisco, Cal.
