RAINIER

Capt. Fred Wilson was a Portland visitor, Monday.

James Grant is now doing the clerking act at Fred Trows.

M. Ellis & Co., have been making some improvements on their store.

Master Dolph Hoogkirk is on the sick list this week, with a bad cold.

We have had the first touch of Winter here, this week, in the shape of a little snow.

Prof. Belcher was down from the city, Tuesday, attending to his class of vocal students.

Misses Roby Jackson, Daisy Watkins Alice Perry were in the metropolis, last Saturday.

Rev. G. A. Taggart, preached to a large and appreciative audience, last Sunday evening.

Rev. Moys, the M. E. minister, has been quite sick. He went to Portland for treatment, Saturday.

We understand that a church is to be built in Beaver valley soon. We hope they will build, for one is needed badly.

The Sunday school has changed its time of meeting from eleven to 10:30 so as to accommodate the ministers who wish to hold morning services, in the future.

The social given by the M. E. ladies, last Friday evening was a grand success in every way. Every one went home feeling that they had spent the few hours in a good way.

Our Representative, Martin Both, seems to be quite busy of late, in Salem. We feel very much honored to know that one of our townsmen is trying to do all he can for his town and county.

Among the new houses that have been built lately, are those of Mr. W. Gut and Mr. Al Morgan. They are in the west end of town and are a credit to our little city. N. S. Stewart will soon have his home completed, which will be quite a neat looking structure when it is entirely completed.
