The best-appointed country residence in Clatskanie county is no doubt that of J. G. Watts, of Scappoose. The new dwelling is fitted with every modern convenience and Mr. and Mrs. Watts have a most delightful home. "Hot and cold water, baths and lavatories are featured; the parlor, library and dining room are provided with the most comfortable and cozy appliances, while the sleeping rooms in the upper story are heated with stoves. Closets abound in every part of the home and the kitchen is provided with every convenience. An elevator is used to lift the wood from the basement to the upper floors. The dwelling is hard finished throughout.

One of the most successful breeders of sheep in the Columbia county, is M. Collins, the manager of the Houlton ranch. This side of St. Helens, Mr. Collins is partial to the Ashybre ewe. The ranch is not situated with Ashybres in place of A-hyres in place of Jerseys, and from practical experience, Mr. Collins has abundant reason for thinking that they possess superior advantages over the Jerseys. Mr. Collins has been prominently successful in his Columbia county. The Ashybres have been giving thorough satisfaction to the consumers of dairy products. In his farm he has demonstrated that the Ashybre is the most satisfactory dairy animal. They are rangers and never stray over the grass outside of their pasture.

An Important Social Event in This City.

The marriage of Dr. Edwin Ross and Miss Matilda J. Muckle, was solemnized at the home of Mr. Charles Muckle, in this city Wednesday evening in the presence of a large number of relatives and a few invited friends. The contracting couple and the bridesmaid and groomsmen entered the beautifully decorated parlor, descending the stairway to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, executed by Mrs. Ella Jones, of Portland. When the archway between the large double parlors was reached, where beautiful draperies of white, and white carnations and white Easter lilies, were most artistically arranged, Rev. Mr. Neil Wilson, of St. Stephens Chapel, Portland, met the procession, led by Dr. D. Bruce Stuart, of Portland, as groomsmen, and Mrs. Amy George, of Portland, as bridesmaid, and performed the ceremony. The bride was beautifully gowned in cream crepe de chine, carrying a large shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, while the maid was gowned in white organdie, carrying an arm bouquet of red carnations. After the ceremony and congratulations the company was seated to partake of a most bountiful wedding supper, the table being decorated with pink and
