FISHHAWK.

Did you have the grip?

Say, this isn't March. This is some other month.

I. Nystrom has sold his place at the mouth of Fishhawk to E. Camburg.

Nearly everybody is having a separator and going into the cream business.

We have heard the whistle of mills up the river, but from Deep Creek silence

The grouse have begun to hoot in the woods; the meadow larks to sing in the fields; the robins to look for worms in the furrow; but the nightingales' sad, sweet song is finished.

Whereas, Columbia County is to vote for a new courthouse, therefore be it resolved, that we, the citizens of Fishhawk, will vote for the courthouse to be erected at the forks of the road, between Beaver and Fishhawk bridges, and near the schoolhouse. The citizens of Mist and adjacent country are cordially invited to vote with us. We will do the square thing with the county all right.

Fresh fish in season every Friday, and special Sunday dinner at the St. Helens Hotel.

There is an urgent demand for houses in St. Helens. Two families moved into the old school house this week.

R. E. Flippin's wife presented him with a baby girl the first of the week.—Clatskanie Chief.

The local K. of P. Lodge had work in the esquire rank, and will have work in the Knight rank next Tuesday evening.

A meeting has been called at Clatskanie to convene next Saturday afternoon, for the purpose of discussing the county seat special election.

The Daily Evening Journal and The Oregon Mist, six months for $2. The Evening Journal is Portland's live, independent daily democratic paper.

The Columbia Breeze says that James Quinn, of Quinn, of Quinn's Landing, expects to put in a slat fish trap on his grounds, and has made arrangements with the Combine for the disposal of the fish.

Rev. H. Moys will preach in the Houlton church next Sunday morning, and in the evening will preach a sermon to young men in the St. Helens Methodist Episcopal church. The public are invited to these services.

For the next 30 days new subscribers to The Mist will receive the American Farm Journal without additional charge for one year. For $1 25 Conkey's Home Journal, an excellent magazine will be included in the list.

The Rainier Grange effected a permanent organization Monday night. State Deputy S. G. Schoonover instituted the new Grange, and a number of the members of Beaver Valley Grange were present and assisted in the ceremonies.

It has been learned that G. M. Wilson, the uncle of Mrs. A. T. Laws, who is visiting here, that he is the advance guard of several families coming from Iowa to locate in Columbia county. Some of them are even now believed to be on their way, and others will come as soon as they can lease or dispose of their property.

Henry Morgus has received another elegant lot of silverware, the sets consisting of knives and forks, spoons and napkin ring. Each customer at the store is given a ticket with each cash purchase and when the total reaches the amount of $25, the purchaser will be entitled to a set of silverware.

Rev. G. A. Taggart filled his regular appointment in the Congregational church last Sunday night. He and Rev. Moys alternate preaching services in St. Helens, but it has not yet been decided what will be done about the fifth Sunday in March, as in the natural order of things, that would be Rev. Taggart's next appointment.

Work is progressing favorably at the rock quarry, and Jack McKie has 14 men employed making blocks. A. C. Popejoy, of Sauvie's Island, is employed in hauling the stone blocks to the landing on the slough. Mrs. S. Pinckney has removed her boarding house to the quarry, and seven of the men are boarding with her.

Sheriff Hattan collected over $30,000 in taxes from persons anxious to receive the 3 per cent rebate. He and Deputy Wood kept the office open late hours to accommodate the rush. Next week The Mist will give a synopsis of the tax law. It provides that two year's taxes will have to be paid next year, so as to bring taxpaying within the same year that the assessment is made.

Jack Levery, of Portland, attempted suicide at an early hour Monday morning by stabbing himself in the vicinity of the jugular vein several times with a penknife. The wounds, however, were not serious. He has no suicidal mania, but had been drinking heavily. Kelliher, the Scappoose section hand, who attempted suicide last week, is in a serious condition in a Portland hospital.

A couple of local attorneys are making preparations to begin a damage suit against the Rainier Mill and Lumber Company on account of the death of Louis Romeo, which occurred at the Company's sawmill on March 9th. His death was caused by the third deadblock catching on the end of the cant when the carriage was run back. The cant was shot across the log deck and struck Romeo in the face, cutting it clean off.

On Wednesday evening of last week about 20 members of the Woodmen Circle of Kalama, visited the Goble, Oregon, Circle, where they had been invited to take charge of the initiatory work—eight candidates having been procured for the occasion. After lodge an elegant banquet was given and all present report Goble Camp in good condition, now having about 35 members, and are patiently waiting for a second invitation which they will only be too glad to accept.—Kalama Bulletin.

The popular Clatskanie Band will give a grand benefit entertainment in Redmen's Hall at Clatskanie Saturday evening. The best home talent will be heard in solos, recitations, ladies' and gentlemen's quartets. There will be an Indian club drill by young ladies in costume, and Tichenor's orchestra will delight the audience with some selections. There also will be brass quartets, baritone solos, etc. Some outside talent has been secured in the persons of Syms Lozano and Symo, a trio of celebrated contortionists and globe balancers. Admission, 50 cents; children, 15 cents.

Last Monday, Hon. Martin Both, assignee of the estate of Dean Blanchard, through his attorney, George A. Hall, filed his final account of his trust. The administration has been a remarkable one from the fact that there is a balance of about $30,000 in favor of Mr. Blanchard, after paying off the indebtedness of the estate. When Mr. Both took charge of the Blanchard property about five years ago there was $13,00 indebtedness against it. Many people believed at that time that Mr. Blanchard was hopelessly bankrupt, but by good business management Mr. Both brought out the estate to a condition where Mr. Blanchard can begin business on his own account on a good financial basis. Twelve thousand dollars was realized from stumpage for saw timber on the hills, and there is lots of good timber left. About $4,000 was realized from the sale of a few town lots, but the greater part of the town property remains intact. The report will come up for confirmation in the circuit court May 13th.

Conkey's Home Journal.

One of the most attractive of the February magazines, was Conkey's Home Journal of Chicago. In addition to the excellent stories are articles on home millinery and light housekeeping.

G. M. Wilson, of Jasper County, Iowa, is visiting his neice, Mrs. A. T. Laws. This is Mr. Wilson's first visit to Oregon, and he is favorable impressed with many features of the country. What strikes Mr. Wilson most forcibly is the waste of timber in this section. In his early days Mr. Wilson was a printer, but for many years past he has been farming Iowa's rich soil.

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventative of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Edwin Ross.

NEER CITY

Mrs. L. J. Bignel, and daughter are back to Neer City again.

Fred Woodham is furnishing the Nackley Bros. with butter at present.
