City election next Monday.

Canned goods at retail or wholesale at M. C. Gray's.

Almost anything you want in the grocery line can be had at M. C. Gray's.

Charles H. English, the Deer Island merchant, has enlarged and improved his store.

The Reading Circle met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dillard last Friday night.

The St. Helens Hotel takes the lead under the management of O. A. and A M. Brinn.

Rev. G. A. Taggart will preach at the Congregational church next Sunday evening. All are invited.

John G. Pringle has one of the finest vegetable gardens planted on the Muckle place at Deer Island, that has been observed in this section.

H. Morgus this week received a lot of spring and summer goods in great variety, consisting partly of ladies' hats, dress goods, shoes, etc.

The Daily Evening Journal and The Oregon Mist, six months for $2. The Evening Journal is Portland's live, independent daily democratic paper.

The editor of this paper acknowledges the receipt of an invitation to attend M. Azelle Conyers' millinery opening at Clatskanie. The display began last Monday.

I. G. Wikstrom is making some extensive improvements on his farm, near Houlton. His large dwelling has been repainted, and a large area of brush land has been slashed.

Joseph Hayburn left a hen's egg at this office the first of the week that beats the record. It measured 7½ inches in circumference the long way and 4½ inches around the center.

Norman Merrill, of Clatskanie, has leased his Deer Island farm to a party from Sauvies' Island, and is having a dwelling erected on the place. C. W. Emerson is doing the work.

A marriage license was issued by the county clerk of Multnomah county Monday to Walter L. Moody, of Columbia county aged 21, and Annie M. Johnson, of Multnomah county, aged 24.

If any of The Mist subscribers, who subscribed for the Oregonian at club rates or other periodicals, are not receiving the same, they will confer a favor by notifying this office at once.

For the next 30 days new subscribers to The Mist will receive the American Farm Journal without additional charge for one year. For $1 25 Cosmopolitan's Home Journal, an excellent magazine will be included in the list.

There is reported to be thousands of wild geese on Deer Island, feeding on the young grass. One on horseback or in a vehicle, can get within a few feet of the feeding fowls. C. W. Emerson reports that are plump and in good condition.

R. Becker, millinery, has moved from First and Salmon streets, Portland, where the store was located for many years past, to elegant, new quarters at 214 Third street. It is now the most complete millinery establishment in Portland.

Ben Myers, who has looked after the switch lights at Deer Island ever since the Northern Pacific was completed in 1878, still faithfully holds down the same position. For a quarter of a century he has looked after the safety of railroad transportation by attending to the switch lights.

Al Robinson secured a contract for cutting 1,000 cords of cottonwood on the Muckle place at Deer Island for the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company at Oregon City. It will be manufactured into white paper. Sixteen men are now employed in the camp and are working up the cottonwood at a lively rate.

Henry Morgus has received another elegant lot of silverware, the sets consisting of knives and forks, spoons and napkin ring. Each customer at the store is given a ticket with each cash purchase and when the total reaches the amount of $25, the purchaser will be entitled to a set of silverware.

Mr. Holaday, who has the best orchard in the Deer Island section, is having his petite prune trees grafted with the Italian variety. On account of competition with the California product, it is not profitable to grow petites in Oregon. In California, the growers of petites which are a small prune, let the product fall from the trees and evaporate it.

Spring is here, and so is my new Spring stock, all new goods, nothing shop-worn. For ladies' hats and dress goods, gent's furnishing goods, and all up-to-date notions this store leads all the rest. A dollar will buy more in my store than any place in this county. Just received 50 new men's suits—up-to-date in style for the least money possible. H. M. McKiel, Clatskanie.

Fred Clark, a well known young man, living on his farm, a few miles from Clatskanie, was was found dead last Saturday morning hanging to a cross beam under the porch of his dwelling. It was clearly a case of suicide, and Coroner Cliff did not deem an inquest necessary. One end of the rope was fastened to the porch cross beam, and he had evidently fastened the noose around his neck before taking the final swing.

John Q. Gage, of Stafford, Clackamas county, has purchased two lots on the hill south of the reservoir water tanks. He is taking steps to have a road built up the hill, so that he can have lumber delivered there for a new house. If a road is built some of the mill employes announce their intention of buying lots and building in that scenic locality. The location affords a fine view of the Columbia river, Willamette slough and across the river in Washington.

PERSONAL

John Wilwerding, of Yankton, was in town Monday.

J. A. Beegle, of Warren, was in St. Helens Monday.

A. A. Smith, the well known Milton creek logger, was in St. Helens Saturday.

Jesse Hendricks is down from Dew Watto, Wash., to look after some land matters.

C. I. Hazen, who has been doing railroad work in Washington, has returned to Houlton.

Miss Nellie, the 13-year old daughter of Assessor and Mrs. A. T. Laws, is very ill with typhoid malaria.

John Gilmore visited Mrs. Gilmore at at Gladstone park, last Sunday. She is still suffering severely with rheumatism.

O. C. Clark and E. H. Girty, of Houlton, went to Klickitat county, Wash., Wednesday to inspect some timber lands.

Rev. M. Burlingame, formerly of this county, writes from Woodlawn, to send The Mist to Newberg, as that will be his home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Mow, of Warren, came down from Portland Wednesday, the latter having been visiting there for several days.

Dan Moore, of Portland, was a visitor in town Tuesday morning. He had been looking after his timber interests on the Oregon side.

Miss Ella Casto, of Portland, is teaching the Neer City school. She did very satisfactory at Mist last year, where she did very satisfactory work.

Miss Ida Morgan, of the county clerk's office, went to Rainier Saturday to visit her mother, Mrs. A. L. Richardson, who resides near that place.

M. S. Hazen, of Warren, took his father's family and some other friends on a visit to the logging camp of the Columbia City & Nehalem Logging Railroad Company last Thursday.

R. and John Kappler were in from Yankton Monday. They recently purchased 40 acres of land from G. W. Perry for the consideration of $800. The land lays near R. Kappler's farm.

Mrs. Martin White left Monday to visit E. S. Morris and family at North Yamhill for a few days. It was expected that Mrs. E. Perry would accompany her there from Portland.

J. A. Wikstrom, of Yankton, has moved to Deer Island, where he is now foreman for the Anchor Logging Company. His father-in-law, Mr. Matchett, also has moved to his farm in that locality.

Frank Lonkey, of Mist; L. W. Ball, of Quincy; J. O. Emerson, of Mayger; H. Laggett, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hughes, E. Lovegren, Clatskanie; Nels Larson, L. Reynolds, C. Louis, Rainier, were registered at Portland hotels Monday.

J. W. Lamar, a former resident of St. Helens, but now of Portland, was here Monday looking after his Columbia county property interests. He made a sale of his timber claim, near Pittsburg, to the Benson Logging & Lumbering Company for the consideration of $2,000.

Mrs. W. H. Powell assumed her duties as principal the Houlton school last Monday to succeed Superintendent Copeland. Under the provisions of the act increasing the salary of the superintendent, he is not permitted to engage in the business of school teaching, but must devote his entire time to the duties of his office.

Alfred Davis, formerly editor and publisher of the Breeze at Cathlamet, Wash., was in town Saturday. He announced his intention of assuming charge of the Woodland News. Mr. Davis is a very capable newspaper man, and gets out a neat, newsy paper. He will no doubt make the News a flourishing paper. Mr. Davis at one time published a paper at Woodland.

Norman McKay, of Scappoose; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Merrill, R. D. Kent, Silas Graham, A. J. Sollberg, of Clatskanie; O. E. Elliott, E. Beebe, George Weeks, George Faris, J. E. Cornett, of Marshland; G. Englert, of St. Helens, were registered at Portland hotels the first of the week.

Dobbins-Latham Wedding.

J. Hugh Dobbins and Miss Bernice E. Latham, were married in Portland Wednesday March 25th. The ceremony took place at high noon at the residence of the bride's parents on 454 Clay street, Rev. W. S. Gilbert officiating. Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party were invited to the dining room were a splendid wedding luncheon was served. The groom and bride are well known in Portland where they have many friends. They were the recipients of many costly and elegant wedding presents. The newly wedded couple received a check from the groom's mother, Mrs. R. J. Frakes, of Scappoose. Mrs. R. J. Frakes and two sons, George E. Frakes and D. W. Dobbins, and daughter, Miss Lou Frakes were guests at the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Dobbins will be at home to their many friends at 169 Jefferson street, Portland, after April 1st.

The March number of the Oregon Teachers' Monthly, printed at Salem, is a very creditable edition of that excellent journal. In addition to the usual live grist of educational matter, there are well executed portraits of the members last legislature with sketches; also the personell of the committees and a list of the bills passed. Another feature is a list of Oregon school teachers, and the locality of their present engagements.

Judge D. J. Switzer and David Davis Davis, who carry on a grocery business at Woodmere, near Lents, were held up and robbed in their store Tuesday night. Messrs. Switzer and Davis were counting up the day's cash receipts, when two masked men entered, and forced the proprietors to deliver up all the money in their pockets and in the cash drawer, using some formidable looking guns as persuaders. Mrs. Davis, who was in the store at the time, was relieved of her finger rings.

As an indication of the healthful climate the number of old persons living from Columbia City through the Deer Island section bears convincing evidence. Among those who are over 70, William Hall, 82; James Meeker, 78; John Harris, 76; Samuel Holaday, 78; John Splawn, 70; Mrs. Susie Gragg, 76; George Merrill, 76; Pat Hughes, 70; Charles English, 72; M. Canty, 80; Nancy Gore, 74; Stephen Vineyard, 72; John Seifert, 72; Charles Cordes, 73. Among those who will soon reach their 70th birthday are Samuel Kinder, Dr. C. G. Caples, J. D. Birdsall, Mr. Ward and Grandma Gray.

After looking around among the high-rent stores, go to John Dellar's store, one block from Morrison, on the corner of First and Yamhill streets, Portland. You can find quite a difference in prices. Men's suits, same as you saw at other stores, at $15, $18 and $20 we sell for $10 $12.50 and $15. A cheaper grade begins at $6, $7.50 and $8.50. The same grade of pants that high-rent stores charge $5 $6 and $7 for, we sell for $3.50, $4 and $5. Big line of boys' suits $1 less in comparison to high rent stores' prices. A general line of shoes 20 per cent less on every dollar than other stores' prices. Regular 25c neckties for 12½c. Regular 25c caps for 15c. It is to your interest to look through our stock.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, Editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest intervals the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Gripp had bid me adieu." An Appreciate Entertainment.

The Clatskanie Band gave an excellent benefit entertainment in the Red Men's hall at Clatskanie on Saturday evening, March 21st., to a good house. There were several selections by the band, assisted by the Goble band. The participants in the program were heartily applauded after each selection. The ladies quartet, consisting of Misses Nora Conyers, Laura Conyers, Zella Lewis and Miss Brown, was a success; the male quartet, consisting of Harry LaBarre, Ray Sullivan, George Conyers and George Badger, also made a decided hit; the brass quartet, another interesting combination, was composed of Messrs. Conyers, Sullivan, Badger and Shourds; the club swinging by Misses Anna Perrine, Nellie Lovell, Mabel and Jossie Popham and Jennie Orwig was an interesting exhibition.

The Clatskanie Band does good work for beginners, and its personnel is as follows: Leader, Silas Shourds, cornet; president, Ray Sullivan, baritone; vice president, Everett Tichenor, tenor; secretary, George Conyers, tuba; treasurer, Harry LaBarre, solo alto; George Badger, 1st cornet, Albert Merrill, snare drum; Elger Colvin, base drum; Harold Tichenor, alto; Chas. Tichenor, 2nd. cornet; Zenas Eastman, 2nd tenor; Matt Eastman, 3rd tenor.

The personnel of the Goble Band, which assisted the Clatskanie band is as follows: R. C. Carson, leader; J. P. Archibald, assistant bandmaster; M. J. Butler, treasurer and manager; Elgar Fowler, secretary; Walter Hunter, Thos. Hunter, Delos Hunter, James Conkline, Orville Link, Reuben Archibald, George Fowler, Robert Link.

Hearken Patrons.

The following poem arrived too late for publication last week.

Listen to the muses sing
  To our voices all,
May it o'er hills and valleys ring
  From the Patrons' Hall.

Listen to the wholesome law,
  Patrons' cause to make,
Decent codes without a flaw,
  While Old Governments quake.

Listen to the happy voices
  In those shall be times,
Heavenly sweeter choruses
  Shall down the voice of crime.

Listen to the Farmer's Blade
  Cutting Golden Grain,
When all peoples shall be glad,
  Sings a glad refrain.

Patrons, work for the Master,
  Sing his praises sweet,
Taught us how to live forever,
  While the roses sleep.

Patrons, work for Brother Man—
  Your home is not the sod,
Do whatever good you can,
  And you work for God.

Patrons, when your work is done
  In this home of clay,
Remember there's another one
  Brighter than the day.

Now spirit-life is eternal,
  Life shall ever be,
Will always bloom supernal
  Beyond this Stormy Sea.

The stone will crumble to dust,
  Forever changes form,
But life forever must
  Forever reign on.

G. R. Higgins,
Clatskanie, Or., March 25, 1903.

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventative of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Edwin Ross.

Henry W. Corbett, of Portland, millionaire, banker and philanthropist, died suddenly of heart failure Tuesday morning. He was 76 years old and left an estate valued at $3000,000.

AMERICA'S GOOD DRESSERS.

D. Farnsworth, of 218 Washington Street, Sends the Following Communication of Interest to Good Dressers.

The trend of the present age is decidedly toward better dress. You may stand on a busy corner in town or city at any time of day and "watch the procession," but not one man in a thousand of the passers-by will be in tatters; not one man in a hundred, no matter what his calling, will be shabby in his dress. Strange to say, this inclination to wear good clothes is more marked among business men, and the working classes in all branches, than it is among men of wealth. The latter usually let their tailors do the deciding as to what is best for them to wear.

There are reasons for this desire on the part of the masses to appear in as seemingly and becoming garb as their means will admit of, and the reasons are not hard to find.

First of all we are a commercial nation. From the boy in knee pants to the gray haired man of affairs, the final test by which nearly everything is gauged is, "Does it pay?" The watchword of the present generation of young men is "success." The importance of "making a good front" in business, love or war is so generally acknowledged that the old saying, "to be successful, look successful," has special reference to dress.

Incidentally there are other reasons why Americans are taking to better clothes every year. The entire country is prosperous to a degree never known to any country on earth. Every man in America who really wants employment can find it. The man who does not know how to read or write can earn $1.50 per day.

The man who applies for a position that pays only $15 a week and gets it and comes to work every day in a good-fitting, becoming suit will in a very short time impress his employer with the idea that he has not only steady habits, but good taste and judgement, and it generally happens that when a vacancy occurs the man with steady habits and good taste in dress is the first one to be selected "to fill the vacancy" at a higher salary.

Timber Land, act June 3, 1878.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office, Oregon City, Oregon, January 29, 1903.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT IN compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the states of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, William Fraser, of Portland, County of Multnomah, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement, No. 6016, for the purchase of the sw¼ of section No. 28, in township No. 4, n. range No. 5, w, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office at Oregon City, Oregon, on Friday, the 10th day of April, 1903. He names as witnesses: Robert Osborn, Robert Louden and Edward Burke, of Portland, Oregon and J. S. Burke, of Molalla, Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 10th day of April, 1903.
