Up to last Saturday night the run of salmon in the Columbia river in this vicinity was better than it has been for several years past. This week the run is short and the fish are small. Last week the schools of big fish were making their way up stream, but it's the young fish that are in the swim now. The fishermen, however, expect another run of big fish in June.

A number of small bets have been made on the probable results of the county seat election to take place on the first Monday in July. The betting is principally on the relative vote that will be polled by Clatskanie and Rainier precincts. Three Affidavit Mitchell, of Rainier, has wagered D. W. Richardson, a St. Helens saloon keeper, that Rainier will poll a larger vote than Clatskanie. Five dollars is the forfeit put up.

Ex United States Senator George W. McBride has filed suit against Inman, Poulson & Company in the Multnomah county circuit court to recover $5,000 for logs. The complaint states that McBride owns 80 acres of timber land in Columbia county, and that the Goble, Nehalem & Pacific Railroad Company, a corporation engaged in cutting and transporting logs, between January 1, 1900 and June 1, 1902, cut and removed from McBride's land logs to the amount of 1,000,000 feet, lumber measure, and delivered the same to Inman, Poulson & Co. The logs, it is alleged, were worth about $5,000.

While out looking for some cattle Monday evening, Frank Meeker discovered the dead body of man lying in a swamp this side of Columbia City. Coroner Cliff was notified and made an investigation. The man had apparently down and died. The coat had been taken off and was under the body. One shoe was found several steps away. One big toe had been amputated and healed over. The clothing was of good working material, but there were no marks of identification. The body had probably lain there for a couple of months. In the absence of Coroner Cliff Justice Watkins held an inquest on the body of a man floating in Willamette slough, near Selene's. The body was covered with mud and the face was almost eaten. There was no identification.

The mill is lighted with electricity and a large store and a boarding house are accessories.

The burnt timber district is being logged extensively by capitalists on Lewis river, Wash., and the output will be something immense.

FROM RAINIER.

A Correspondent Gives St. Helens Some Hard Raps on the County Seat Proposition.

Editor of the Oregon Mist:

Rainier, Ore., April 22, 1903—I don't see why you St. Helens folks are kicking so much about moving the county seat?

Haven't you had it for 40 years? Look at your shabby, old court house! It is a disgrace to any county!

And; look what miserable roads you have! Nothing but bog holes and mud!

And yet you want the money that should be spent in building a new court house wasted on the county roads!

Mossbacks are always going to make good roads, and never make them!

Rainier is the livest town on the river below Portland. We have daily arrivals and departures both by boat and railroad train. We have the advantage of no roads to speak of, to spend money on.

We want and will have the biggest and finest court house on the river—one that will give respectability to the county—one that can be seen for several miles up and down the river.

That slander that St. Helens has started, that the clay hill on which Rainier is built is sliding down towards the river won't work. It's untrue; every word of it. Our clay will make just as good a foundation for a court house as your ragged rock bank at St. Helens.

People can come and do business at Rainier by railroad or boat in all kinds of weather. That way of traveling is up-to-date, while splashing through your muddy roads is away-back fashion.

Stop your kicking! and let us have the county seat, as you know that our enterprise and push entitles us to it.

Lively Comments.

George L. Hibbert, of the Chinook Observer, gets out a live paper, and the following are extracts from the latest:

A spring hurricane kindly moved our house outside the city limits just when the tax collector was coming to levy on it.

Numerous visitors are under the impression that we are subject to earthquake shocks in this settlement, whereas the disturbance is nothing but our leading citizens shaking with the chills.

Lightning struck the new church steeple two days before we had completed the subscription list for a lightning rod. Brethren, you can't get ahead of Providence!

Major Jones, while bringing home a jug of Mountain Dew yesterday, was bitten by a rattlesnake. The snake immediately wobbled off and expired.

While our esteemed postmaster was fishing in the river on Sunday last, he was pulled into 10 feet of water by a large fish; but, like the whale that swallowed Jonah, the fish couldn't stand everything, and gave our postmaster his liberty.

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Edwin Ross.

Another Fine Volume.

Standard books are ever welcome when they come to us in forms and bindings representing all the embellishments of the art of bookmaking. Such a book is "The World's Worship," published by the Dominion Company, Chicago, a copy of which has just come to our desk. The contents are well arranged, the illustrations are fine, the print is clear and neat and the binding is superb. The Dominion Company is forging ahead as the leading western publishing house making a specialty of fine subscription books. Having salespeople in nearly every nook of the country, the company enjoys a large and growing trade. As this company has a known reputation for liberality towards its agents and fair treatment of them, an agency in this community for the above book, or some other published by this company, would be a source of considerable profit to the one fortunate enough to secure it. Interested readers should write the company for full particulars.

On the County Seat.

A Clatskanie high school student perpetrated the following printed in The Chief:

The first Monday in July
The voters all will meet,
That is, if they have registered,
And vote for the county seat.
But one thing seems quite clear—
We must get in and try
If we wish to see that seat
Sat down in Clatskanie.
Now Rainier is a boasting,
And making lively brags;
But wait till the election
And see the bird she "bags."
She will be like the little lad
Who was so very "game,"
He held a sack till break of day
For snipes that never came.

Acute

Chest Pains From "Tobacco Heart."

Valvular Heart Disease Threatened.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Cured Me.

The effect of excessive smoking shown by such symptoms as heart pains, heartburn, smothering spells, shortness of breath, fluttering and palpitation, is most serious. If your heart is in any way affected you should at once begin the use of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure which enriches the blood, regulates the heart's action and improves the circulation.

"I am a local newspaper man and have been an inveterate smoker since my boyhood. A little over a year ago I first noticed symptoms of heart trouble, palpitation and acute pains and a peculiar, I might say, indescribable feeling across my chest. Local physicians said I had 'tobacco heart.' I quit smoking for a while and took regular doses of digitalis and belladonna with some relief but the same old symptoms were still there. A friend of mine here recently died of what the doctor said was valvular disease of the heart. Knowing that his symptoms were similar to mine I felt that my time too was limited, although I am still a young man, in my thirty-ninth year. In Skillman & Stone's drug store here Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure was recommended. I began taking it and I can positively state that its effect is marvelous. I have just finished my third bottle and feel like a 'kid' and believe I am cured. This letter is the spontaneous utterance of one who wishes to thank you for benefits received."—WM. N.
