 E. E. Hoberg, of Fishhawk, reports to the government Weekly Crop Bulletin at Portland as follows: "Weather warmer; grass growing nicely; spring work nearly done; some potatoes remain to be planted; grain looks very good; fruit trees beginning to bloom."
 Quite a number of Columbia county people last Friday night and expanded into two immense bonfires before the city with a thunder-like roar. No people report that fragments of the meteor have been found in both East Portland and Oswego.
 Judge Doan will convene the regular monthly session of probate court next Monday. The county court will convene in regular session next Wednesday. As there is considerable business to come before the court, it is not believed that they will complete the work on hand during the first week.
 Henry Morgan has received another elegant lot of silverware, the sets consisting of knives and forks, spoons and napkin rings. Each customer at the store is given a ticket with each cash purchase and when the total reaches the amount of $25, the purchaser will be entitled to a set of silverware.
 A substantial sidewalk is now being built all the way to Houlton. E. E. Hazen and Clyde Eric are doing the work. Some repairs, also will likely be made on the St. Helens end of the section. The sidewalk will be a great convenience to the people of the two towns, and will be a popular promenade of evenings and Sunday afternoons.
 Considerable improvement is being made on the St. Helens school house grounds. There has been a general cleaning up, and recently the children set out some ornamental shade trees. The board has purchased the adjoining lot from Al Robinson, and there will be plenty of playground. A new sidewalk is to be built along the entire block.
 The steamer, Sarah Dixon, has now changed to the summer schedule. She now leaves for Oak Point and way landings on Sunday evenings at 8 o'clock, leaves Portland for Clatskanie and way landings Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 6 o'clock, returning, leaves Clatskanie on Wednesday and Friday evenings at 4 o'clock, tide permitting.
 Rainier is to have another school. It is understood that a party from Vancouver, Wash., has leased the rooms formerly occupied by Cui's school house and will put a log cabin front in the building. The statement, also has been made that Portland parties would establish a banking business in the new Doherty building, when it is completed.

 John King, of Deer Island, was in St. Helens all of this week, visiting his brother, Andrew King, who was suffering severely from blood poisoning following the effects of a burn.
 A. H. Tarbell, the Warren sawmill proprietor, was in town Saturday. He has difficulty in disposing of all his lumber on account of the Western markets, but is handicapped by a scarcity of cars.
 Herman Smith, who has been confined to his home for a couple of months on account of a compound fracture of one leg, caused by being thrown from a horse, is now able to be out on the streets.
 C. J. Miller, who has resided in the vicinity of Woodland, Wash., for some time past, has purchased a 40-acre farm on Deer Island, together with 19 head of cattle. He will remove his family to the new home in a short time.
 M. W. Brown, a well known dairyman, of Deer Island, was in town Saturday. M. S. Shearer and Mr. Brown are the only two persons engaged in the dairy business in that section. They also sell sterilized cream to the creamery at Rainier.
 W. J. P. Newby, who has been a prominent business man, with headquarters at Kalama for the past 10 years, was in town Saturday. He stated that the catch is now better than it was at this season last year. Previous to 1899, the Pomores lived in St. Helens, but removed to Rainier, where the family still reside.
 H. G. Downing, the wide-awake Vernonia merchant, was in town Wednesday night on his way home from Portland, where he had been visiting his stock of general merchandise. Mr. Downing has built on a good trade since he embarked in business at Vernonia, several months less than a year ago. He is now making a specialty of the real estate business, and has a good list of farm and timber lands for sale.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Mow, of Warren, went to Farmington, Washington county, last Saturday, where Mrs. Mow will remain with her mother, for a few weeks, the latter being in poor health. Mr. Mow made final proof on his homestead before the county clerk. His witnesses were L. P. Ellison and John L. Young. The place is situated seven miles back from Houlton, and is well timbered. Mr. Mow has a shingle mill on the place, which he will start up next winter to use some of the surplus timber.

A Farmer Straightened Out.
 "A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely dabbled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Expeller and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Rayder, of Patten Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Expeller. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by Edwin Ross, St. Helens.

CASTORIA
 For Infants and Children.
 The Kind You Have Always Bought
 Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Peck
 Captain Gool, of the steamer America, who recently left Lake farm from Meers, Lind and Simon, has now 150 head of cattle on his place. Seventy-five of them are now only 40 or 45 days old. Captain Gool is going slowly at first, but intends to have 120 cows giving milk one of these days. He is shipping milk to the city daily, and receives a fair price for it, and as he also hasveal calves to sell, he feels confident that his investment will prove profitable. There is no end to the demand for milk, butter and cheese. Dealers are now importing cheese from California. It all the good dairy land within easy reach of the city was stocked the supply products would not be greater than the demand, and the wealth of the country would be greatly increased. Captain Gool says he has no trouble about securing men to milk his cows. He pays them $5 per month. Some farmers only want to pay $25 per month, but good men cannot be retained at such low wages--Oregonian.

GREATLY ALARMED
 By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
 Mr. H. P. Barbage, a student at law, in Irwinville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough, which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Barbage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt remarkable change and after using two bottles of the Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I was cured." Sold by Edwin Ross.

CLATSKANIE
 Judge Barnes, of Quincy, was showing his friend, a Mr. Nicodemus, of Iowa, the sights of our city, Wednesday.
 Casper Libel, of Mist, was in the city Thursday, telling what he knew about the controversy between John Wallace and J. H. Wilson.
 Mrs. C. W. Jones, of Hazel Grove, was in the city Thursday, doing some errands and visiting friends.
 A. Fabrique, who has been visiting at University Park, is home again trying to induce some of our good people to purchase lots at University Park. John is very much elated over his prospects there. He says that all the people in the whole world will be there in 1905.
 We notice the general form of J. D. Lewison top of a load of cedar posts. Said he was going out to Alderbrook farm; that some young ladies out there were going into the chicken business, and wanted the posts to make a fence around the chicken yard.
 Rev. J. K. Hawkins is very enthusiastic over the prospects of the May festival to be held in this city from May 6th to the 10th. He says it is bound to be a success, both financially and otherwise; that the most prominent singers, chorists and other prominent persons will be here to assist, and it is in this part of the county fails to be present every night that they will regret it.
 Our city duds are very economical of fuel. The town has no street lights nowadays, except the light of the moon.
 Mrs. M. A. Aldridge, of this city, died on Sunday evening last, after a long and lingering illness.
 Arthur Hinder, the old logging clerk in Charles Conyer's store, has a single all over his face. Guess he must have a girl somewhere in the woods parts.
 Mrs. Smith, who has been ill for the past several weeks, is reported to be on the road to recovery.
 Uncle Silas Stewart is in town again, after an absence of several months. Uncle Silas likes to spin war yarns, and we like to hear them.

Too Great a Risk.
 In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of cholera or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can be relied upon.
