AS TO THE COUNTY SEAT.

It is certain that some contributors to the press have said things on the matter of the location of the county seat, that should have been left unsaid. Argument is more effective than bombast and innuendo. Argument sets the people to thinking, and they become convinced. There are many reasons why the county seat should remain at St. Helens, at least for the present. They are economy convenience, and other things that have heretofore been mentioned in The Mist. These matters will receive attention later.

Future conditions may make it necessary to again call another county seat election, if the people are willing, and under the new law they can do this by petition.

While the trip of President Roosevelt to the Pacific coast was one of pleasure, and to become better acquainted with the people and the country, it has no doubt redounded to his advantage in an electioneering way. It gave the people an opportunity to see the greatest of modern presidents-a man of the people, who is really one of them. There is no question of Roosevelt's popularity. The spontaneous acclaim of the people everywhere demonstrates this, not only in Oregon, but throughout the entire county. No president that has ever visited Oregon has been received with marks of more distinguished honor.

No doubt many Columbia county teachers will attend the Western Division of the State Teachers' Association, which will be held in Portland June 24th to June 29th. The best talent the State affords has been secured to take part on the program, which deals with many subjects of vital importance to the schools and educational interests of the State. Mr. Henry D. Pettengill, of Lansing, Mich., one of the foremost educators of the United States, has been invited to be a guest of the Association and will appear on the program, and discuss a number of important educational topics.

It is a notable fact that The Oregon Mist has more foreign—that is Eastern patent medicine advertising than any paper of similar size in Oregon. It is all live matter too, payable in cash at good prices. This Eastern advertising on The Mist pages indicates the standing that the paper has among Eastern advertisers, who realize that a journal 21 years old, published in the best part of Oregon, is a valuable medium through which to reach the people.

Ex United States Land Commissioner Binger Hermann was elected congressman for the first district last Monday, by a probable plurality of 2300. The heavy republican majority in that district could not be overcome by his opponent, and it is said that a picture of Mr. Herman standing in the rear platform of a car with President Roosevelt, made him votes. Mr. Hermann heretofore represented Oregon in Congress for several terms.

North Topeka, Kansas, a city of 10,000 inhabitants was wiped out of existence by the combine commotions of a great flood and a fire. The latter following in the wake of the high waters. At least 150 people were burned to death, saying nothing of those drowned. It is estimated that 26,000 people are made homeless by floods in portions of Kansas Iowa and Nebraska.

President Roosevelt has come and gone. He has seen Oregon and Oregonians in gala day dress and mood, and from all accounts he is highly pleased with the Webfoot state and its people. And that being the case, he would have been far more pleased could he have seen Oregon and the sturdy Westerner in their every day attire, the latter turning this vast domain into an industrial bee hive—Tillamook Headlight.

The ravages of water, wind and fire are not confined to one section of the East. On Monday Georgia was swept by a cyclone, 100 persons were killed and millions of dollars worth of property destroyed. Oregon thus far has been fortunate, during her entire past history, in that there has been no disastrous floods or cyclones.

It is a notable fact that an unusual number of floaters have been found in the Columbia river and Willamette slough, during the past few weeks. No doubt some were accidental deaths, others may have been suicides and still others possibly were murders.

Nothing has ever equalled it.
Nothing can ever surpass it.

FROM UPPER NEHALEM.

A Correspondent Speaks Right Out In Meeting and Makes Some Telling Hits.

Mr. Editor: We in this upper country would like to say a few words on the burning county seat question.

We disclaim any prejudice against St. Helens, where the county seat now is or against either Clatskanie or Rainier that are striving for it.

But the fight is opened—not by our solicitation, nor even by our leave. It was forced on us in a selfish and independent legislative act, got up by Rainier.

"Red Fir's" letter waked us up to the real inwardness of the whole question. I do wonder how they could publish such an honest confession of the utter selfishness of the matter at issue. It is like the last act of "Little Red Riding Hood:

"Oh Grandmother Rainier, what a big mouth you've got!"

"That's to eat you the better my dear," says "Red Fir" in his honest letter. Well, we don't propose to be eaten with salt just yet.

We have no road communication with Rainier.

As for Clatskanie they have done a good deal to make better roads out toward us, and we repay the obligation in increased trade with Clatskanie and it merchants. It is a business proposition—just as the old Bunker Hill road and the Carico valley road is with St. Helens—only St. Helens has not kept up her road construction as Clatskanie has done—and so St. Helens merchants have lost a part of our trade they used to get. Instead of trying to increase that trade they have positively allowed our trade with them to fall off.

Now, there is at least a mile and a half of mud on one stretch between here and St. Helens that is almost impassable for a team with half a load.

Supervisor Clark is now at work on the road, but he appears to be making roads, instead of filling up impassable mud holes. Why don't the people of St. Helens rise up as one man—come out and examine the "bad road" and compel the supervisor to work on the bad places, or have "a fight or a foot race." The Gazette patting him on the back is rather suspicious.

But we pay Clatskanie in trade for their roads, and it must not be understood that the county seat is going to be thrown in. The "Good Book" tells about a chap who sold his birthright for a mess of pottage, "taters and unyens and sich."

Well, we suppose he did get the pottage, but what will we get? Not only do we get nothing, but we go down into our pockets to pay for two elections, for an expensive removal, and for new and expensive "county buildings,"—and mortgage ourselves for 10 or a dozen years, and for what?

Merely because a score or two of men expect to make a boom out of it and "sell town lots." Clatskanie is making a "still hunt" for the county seat. She says in substance to us backwoods people: "Come to my arms you greasy fritter."

But we won't. Some day the population and the conditions may be favorable for having the county seat on the Nehalem, near the center of the county. But we would not deserve it unless we duly and fairly consulted the interest of the whole county.

Now this county seat act that we must soon vote on is for the permanent location of the county seat.

If we defeat the removal, then it stands just as it did before the Rainier act passed the legislature. If it is moved under that act, the place that gets it will hold it—and then we must dive into our pockets again.

Your county buildings are good enough until the county doubles in population, and there is five acres cleared then to one acre now—"Knock it out the first round."

The tide is setting in stronger every week against the removal. If people come out and vote as they generally do at regular elections, it will be settled against removal at the first election—and save the expense of a second.

UPPER NEHALEM, June 1.

His Last Hope Realized.

(From the Sentinel, Gebo, Mont.)

In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1889, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, he encountered much bad water, which together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. For sale by Edwin Ross.

A Wonderful Invention.

It is interesting to note that fortunes are frequently made by the invention of articles of minor importance. Many of the most popular devices are those designed to benefit the people and meet popular conditions, and one of the most interesting of these that has ever been invented is the Dr. White Electric Comb patented Jan. 1, '99. These wonderful combs positively cure dandruff, hair falling out, sick and nervous headaches, and when used in connection with Dr. White's Electric Hair Brush are positively guarantned to make straight hair curly in 25 days' time. Thousands of these electric combs have been sold in the various cities of the Union, and the demand is constantly increasing. Our agents are rapidly becoming rich selling these combs. They positively sell on sight. Send for sample. Men's size 35c ladies 50c—half price while we are introducing them. See Want Column of this paper. The Dr. White Electric Comb Co., Decatur Ill.

Consumption

The only kind of consumption to fear is "neglected consumption."

People are learning that consumption is a curable disease. It is neglected consumption that is so often incurable.

At the faintest suspicion of consumption get a bottle of Scott's Emulsion and begin regular doses.

The use of Scott's Emulsion at once, has, in thousands of cases, turned the balance in favor of health.

Neglected consumption does not exist where Scott's Emulsion is.

Prompt use of Scott's Emulsion checks the disease while it can be checked.

CLATSKANIE

John Spurgeon was in the city Tuesday, taking in the sights.

Mrs. John Lane, of Deep Creek, passed through our city on his way to Portland on Monday.

W. T. Conyers went down to Seaside to take a sniff of salt air one day this week.

J. A. Kemp made a business trip to the Nehalem country the first of the week.

War! War! and rumors of war, comes from Mist every day in the week, and sometimes two or three times each day.

We notice several teams hauling shingles from the mill of Dippold & Sons from Mist.

Harvey Glenn has taken a position with the "Keystone Lumber Company," on Clatskanie.

Henry Kratz is in Southern Oregon on a business trip this week, and Bud Bryant is conducting the store during his absence.

Mr. Kingsley, of the West Oregon Lumber Company, was in Portland several days this week attending to business for his Company.

Charles Clark is pushing his new dwelling to completion as fast as possible. When completed it will be an ornament as well as a credit to the city.

W. A. Young and wife attended the State Grange of Patrons of Husbandry at Oregon City, as delegates from this county last week.

Isaac Bumgardner, who is superintending the logging camp of Muckle Bros., over on the Cowemon, is at home visiting his family for a few days.

It is said by the wise ones of our city, that many of our citizens attended the session of circuit court last week in St. Helens to tell what they knew about the streets of Clatskanie.

We heard a little boy say that Gene Whitney was seen one day last week coming across the bridge with a string of fish in one hand, and a fish pole on his shoulder whistling "Yankee Doodle."

The Misses Mary and Nora Conyers who have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Conyers, the past several days, returned to their respective homes at Oregon City and Rainier on Tuesday morning.

Posters are out announcing a grand benefit ball for the benefit of the Clatskanie City Band on June 6th. The boys make fine music and everyone should attend and give the boys a rousing big house and encourage home talent.

Will Miller, of the Lower Nehalem, passed through the city Tuesday en route to Portland on a business trip. It is said that he would combine pleasure with business and take in the sights of the city.

It is said by those who claim to know, that the Womens' Lewis & Clark Club, of this city, is growing in numbers very rapidly and that they intend Columbia county shall be represented at the Exposition in 1905, even if the men of the county don't take any interest in the matter.

Memorial services were at the church last Sunday evening. Rev. Hankins preached a very instructive sermon. Miss Mary Conyers sang "The Star Spangled Banner." Both were well received, and all present went home feeling that it was good for them to be there.

A little boy came running into town one day this week blowing a big horn. Upon inquiry, he stated that the Push Club had been found out at Tichenor's mill buying lumber to build the new sidewalk between the city and the railroad station. He also said that members of said push club were going to improve the wagon road out toward the station, as well as all other roads leading out of the city, so that voters could get to town on election day, and vote for the location of the county seat.

Worst of All Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "For three years" she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I am completely recovered." For Liver, Kidney, Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by the St. Helens Pharmacy.

A big Timber Deal.

The biggest timber deal that has taken place in Columbia County for many days is the sale of a lot of timber land to County Commissioner H. L. Colvin by M. J. Kinney. The tracts are covered with an extraordinary growth of timber, and the consideration of the sale is $62,500. Mr. Colvin is the leading logger of this county, and operates a splendidly equipped plant, consisting of a car tramway for carrying the logs down a steep mountain side.

Driven to Desperation.

Living at an out of the way place, remote from civilization, a family is often driven to desperation in case of accident, resulting in burns, cuts, wounds, ulcers, etc. Lay in a supply of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the best on earth. 25 cents at the St. Helens Pharmacy.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned desire to express their thanks and appreciation to the many friends who extended aid and sympathy during the last illness and burial of our late husband and father, Jesse Hendricks: also for like kindnesses extended during the last illness of his brother, David Hendricks.

Mrs. S. E. Hendricks and Family.

Letter List.

Letters remaining at the St. Helens postoffice June 1st. Those remaining July 1st will be sent to the dead letter office.

Oregon Pioneer Association.

Arrangements are being made for the holding of the thirty-first annual reunion of the Oregon Pioneer Association, to be held in Portland on Wednesday, June 17. All persons coming to, or born in the original territory of Oregon prior to February 14, 1859, without regard to where they now live, are eligible to membership. Beginning with June 15, Pioneer headquarters will be opened on the top floor of the city hall, where badges may be secured from the secretary, Geo. H. Himes.

The formal program will be given in the Exposition building Wednesday afternoon, June 17, and will include the following numbers. Music by Brown's band prayer, Grand Chaplin D. B. Gray 1851, Portland; annual address, Hon. C. W. Fulton, Astoria; music by band, occasional address, O. C. Applegate, Klamath Falls agency; music by band, benediction, chaplin. At the close of the program the pioneer Women's Auxiliary will give a banquet to all members in good standing who have the proper badge for 1903. Special invitations will be issued to the husbands or wives of Pioneers who may not be pioneers themselves, upon application to Mr. Himes. Reduced rates have been granted by all transportation companies for those desiring to attend the reunion.

Startling Evidence

Fresh testimonials in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequaled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentonville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had Bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me. "Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by St. Helens Pharmacy. Trial bottles free, regular sizes 50c and $1.00.

Death of Jesse Hendricks, Sr.

One of the best known residents of this section of Columbia County, died at his home near Yankton, May 28th aged about 69. The funeral took place at Yankton on Friday the 29th, and the body was interred in the Briggs cemetery the services being conducted by G. C. Barger. There was a very large attendance of people for many miles around, several going out from St. Helens. Mr. Hendricks was an old soldier, and was held in high esteem by his many friends for his good qualities. He left a wife three, sons and two daughters, the latter being Mrs. J. N. Brinn and Mrs. Thos. Holstine.

The death of Mr. Hendricks occured just eight days later than that of his brother, David Hendricks, the latter being 70 years old at the time of his demise.

That Throbbing Headache.

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and build up your health. Only 25 cents, money back if not cured. Sold by the St. Helens Pharmacy.

Closing Exercises of the St. Helen Public Schools

The closing exercises of the St. Helen Public School Friday afternoon, consisted of an excellent musical program, given by the pupils. Every number was a success, the pupils acquitting themselves very creditably.

At the close of the program, Dr. Edwin Ross, chairman of the board of directors, presented the three eighth grade graduates, Anna Wearson, Nellie Pinckney and Charles Braddock, with their diplomas. Dr. Ross also complimented the teachers on their effective work accomplished during the year, and called attention to the fact that the teachers Misses Grace DeGraff and Alice Thayer, were re-elected for another year. He further states that the attendance was about 25 larger than last year and that they hoped to add another teacher during the coming school year.
