The new sidewalk is now completed all the way between St. Helens and Houlton, and it is proving a great convenience to pedestrians between the two places.

Attention is called to the fact that I now carry the most complete assortment of oils and paints to be found in Columbia county. M. C. Gray, St. Helens.

Chaplain Gilbert will use a native blow gun, and also will operate the mauser rifle and will operate the Mauser rifle and will allow those who find the cartridges to keep them as souvenirs. Copies of the History of the Second Oregon will be distributed free.

Dr. Edwin Ross is having a neat stable erected on his lot back of the Congregational church. It will be large enough to hold his new buggy, horses and cow, and an upper floor for storing hay. T. W. Clark and Len Decker are doing the work.

R. Becker, millinery, has moved from First and Salmon streets, Portland, where the store was located for many years past, to elegant new quarters at 214 Third street. It is now the most complete millinery establishment in Portland.

Since the last issue of this paper St. Helens and Rainier have each filed petitions with the county clerk as candidates for the re-location of the county seat. St. Helens had 115 names on its petition, and Rainier 76. Clatskanie had previously filed a petition with 125 names.

Don't fail to hear Chaplain William S. Gilbert in St. Helens Friday evening, June 19th. His subject will be "Philippines and Filipinos as seen by a Chaplain in Camp, Field and Hospital." The proceeds of the lecture will be applied on the salary of Rev. H. Moys, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church.

The Weyerhaeuser Company and other owners of large timber interests along the Coweeman river in Cowlitz river, contemplate building a logging road 20 miles long to reach their timber. The road, it is estimated will cost $500,000. The Weyerhaeuser Company is said to own 2,000,000,000 feet of standing timber in that region.—Skamockawa Eagle.

The high water has reached the upper shipping dock, and is slowly rising. It is not believed that the water will reach a much higher stage. Muckle & Dart have moved the goods from their warehouse to higher ground on the opposite side of the street. The dairymen on Sauvies' Island and along Willamette slough have moved their herds to higher ground until the floods subside.

The steamer, Sarah Dixon, has now changed to the summer schedule. She now leaves for Oak Point and way landings on Sunday evenings at 8 o'clock. Leaves Portland for Clatskanie and way landings Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 6 o'clock. Returning, leaves Clatskanie on Wednesday and Friday evenings at 4 o'clock, tide permitting.

Spring is here, and so is my new Spring stock, all new goods, nothing shop-worn. For ladies' hats and dress goods, gent's furnishing goods, and all up-to-date notions this store leads all the rest. A dollar will buy more in my store than any place in this county. Just received 50 new men's suits—up-to-date in style for the least money possible. H. M. McKiel, Clatskanie.

L. J. White has the record of taking out of Jamestown the largest check ever paid for wheat at that point. He has just completed delivering the last of his crop, which he sold at 60 cents, receiving a check for $2,500. Mr. White, who knows a good thing, will put this with enough additional to buy another good farm. He says he never saw better prospects for a wheat crop than now exists.—The Blade and Empire, of Concordia, Kansas. Mr. White is a brother of ex-County Assessor Martin White, of this city.

The May class of eighth grade pupils, who took the county examination, consisted of 22 members, but only eight of them passed. Six more can pass this month by taking one or two subjects. The successful ones were: Dean Silva, Leila Muckle, Olivia Williams, Florence Zwemer, Rainier; Eleanor Larsen, Clatskanie; Laurits Jepson, Fishhawk; Anna Wirges, Charles Braddock, St. Helens. Mrs. H. Oliver, of Yankton, was a visitor in St. Helens Tuesday.

Mrs. May Whitney Morton returned to her home in Astoria Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Whitney, of Clatskanie, have been visiting his mother, Mrs. J. B. Godfrey this week.

Miss Ida Slaughter, of Sumpter, is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Slaughter.

G. R. Hyde, one of the best known citizens of Yankton, was in St. Helens Monday.

L. K. Bignell was up from Neer City the first of the week, and may conclude to remain in this section.

Mrs. D. W. Richardson and children are visiting friends at Ridgefield, Wash., for a few days.

Mrs. J. R. Watts and Mrs. D. W. Price, of Scappoose, visited Mrs. N. A. Perry at Houlton last Sunday.

Bert Mills, of Vernonia, has accepted a position in the new sawmill at Pittsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Powell are spending the week in Portland. They expect to return this evening.

J. P. Buford, who was at one time a resident of St. Helens, is now conducting the Brock store at Stella, Wash.

John G. Pringle, of Deer Island, was a visitor in town Sunday. He reported that the high waters were covering the low bottoms.

Eugene Hyde, of Yankton, left yesterday for Rainier with his team, where he will be employed handling lumber for a sawmill.

G. F. Murray, of this city, is now engaged in putting up the new mill for the Standard Box Company in East Portland.

C. Sauverein, of Yankton, the timber land locator, was in St. Helens Sunday. He has been operating in the mountains back of Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swager went to St. Helens on Decoration Day to decorate the graves of some departed relatives.—Kelso Journal.

Assessor A. T. Laws and Deputy Martin White will leave for the Nehalem valley next week, and will do up the field work in that section.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Johns, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Powell, also E. E. Quick are attending the Eastern Star and Masonic gatherings in Portland this week.

S. B. Rose, for many years a resident of Vernonia, but later of Quincy, has located at Hood River. He wrote this week to have The Mist sent to him at the latter place.

F. M. Hoyt, one of the best known residents of Warren, was in town Wednesday. He stated that the high water would be of material benefit to lowland pasture.

Master Eddie Laws, son of Assessor Laws, has accepted a position as clerk in the store M. C. Gray. He is a bright boy and will no doubt make a competent salesman.

W. B. Dillard returned the first of the week from a short sojourn at the seaside. He is afflicted with another painful carbuncle. Mrs. Dillard and children have been visiting her parents in Portland.

Miss Eunice Little, who is attending the Sisters School in Portland, was down Sunday to attend Woodmen services at her father's grave. She was accompanied by a relative, Miss Peters.

Willard Tucker went out to Vernonia Sunday, and will carry the mail on that end of the Houlton-Vernonia route for a few weeks for Contractor G. W. Rice. Mr. Rice is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

Edmund C. Giltner, of Salem, the new secretary of the Oregon Lewis & Clark Commission, has assumed the duties of the position in Portland. Mr. Giltner's home town is St. Helens, where he is held in the highest esteem.

Jay Deming and family expect to leave today (Friday), for a two week's visit at Monmouth, where they will be the guests of his mother, Mrs. Stine. Mrs. Stine, who was at one time a resident of St. Helens, is matron of the dormitory at the State Normal School at Monmouth.

Rev. G. A. Taggart filled his regular appointment in the Congregational church last Sunday. He has secured a house at Rainier, and moved his family from Portland to that place. Children's Day exercises will be held in the Congregational church in St. Helens one week from next Sunday.

C. W. Emerson was up from Deer Island Saturday. He has been building a house on the Norman Merrill place on the island. In going to and from his work he fords the slough on a Linnton cayuse. The other day a big carp bit the pony on one of the rear heels, and as a result Mr. Emerson received a bath in the cool slough waters.

G. M. Wilson, uncle of Mrs. A. T. Laws, who spent a couple of months in Columbia county during the early spring, has written from his home in Jasper county, Iowa, that he is anxious to get back to Oregon. He states that it has been cold and rainy since his return to Oregon. A number of Mr. Wilson's people have already come west, and are now in Oregon and Washington.

Christ Jensen, a prominent young farmer of Yankton, was in St. Helens Monday. He is very busy now blowing some of the big stumps out of his ground. A dance was given in Yankton hall last Friday night by Jean Hyde and James Lulman, and it was a very pleasant social affair. Christ Jensen and Charles Barger furnished the music.

E. C. Stanwood, of Yankton, was in town Saturday. He stated that he and Sherman Bros., had sold their sawmill to J. N. Brinn and R. L. Stanwood, who remove it further up Milton creek, where they have secured a large body of excellent timber. They purchased several hundred acres from Muckle Bros. I. G. Wikstrom had been negotiating for the purchase of the mill, but the trade failed to materialize.

Joseph Reed, of Keasey, was in town Monday after a load of goods for that live Vernonia merchant, H. G. Downing. Mr. Reed reported that there was a bad piece of road, near Sobeski's place on this side of the mountain. He also stated that Supervisor Mellinger was doing some good work in the Vernonia district. It is understood that Supervisor Clark, who has been very busy with road work in the vicinity of Yankton, will now make the needed repairs on the mountain part of the road.

All lines of my stock are now more complete than ever before, and some new lines have been added. M. C. Gray, St. Helens.

Pioneer Day in Portland Wednesday, June 17th.

First Special County Seat election Monday, July 6th.

Sunday-School Concert at Warren.

The concert given by the Evangelical Sunday-school at Warren was a most decided success. The Warren Band outdid all previous efforts and was most heartily applauded, also was the vocal solo by Miss Adams, "The Village Blacksmith," which she very beautifully and feelingly rendered. The "Te Deum," solo and chorus by Miss Larsen and several young ladies and gentlemen was sweetly and well received.

Another vocal solo that was greatly enjoyed was: "I'd be a Sunbeam," by Miss Eva Grewell.

Little Marguerita Isbister was enthusiastically encored following the execution of an instrumental selection. Many were the compliments and much the surprise at the sweet and bird-like singing of some of the little girls, especially those of Thomas Grewell and Marion Bendure.

The school will give a picnic at the picnic ground on Orville Garrison's place on North Scappoose, Friday, June 12th, instead of the usual Childrens' Day service. Free ice cream will be served.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

Is everywhere recognized as the one remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant to take. It is especially valuable for summer diarrhoea in children and is undoubtedly the means of saving the lives of a great many children each year. For sale by Edwin Ross.

Decorated the Grave of the Late A. B. Little

Houlton Camp, No. 655, Woodmen of the World, decorated the grave of the late County Surveyor A. B. Little in the Odd Fellows cemetery, near Warren, last Sunday. The impressive ceremonies of the order and ritualistic services used on such occasions, were conducted by L. E. Bailey, a prominent official in the local camp. Almost the entire membership was present at the services, and several relatives of the deceased were in attendance from Portland.
