WARREN

(Arrived too late for last week.)

The Warren Band gave one of their very popular concerts, followed by a dance, in Mrs. Bacon's hall at Warren Tuesday evening June the 23rd. The crowd was one of the largest, as well as one of the most recherche, that has gathered at Warren for many a day. Visitors came from Sauvies Island, Scappoose, Yankton and St. Helens. Those from the latter place were brought up the "Bay" by that most accomodating steamboat man, Capt. Good. Those from various points along the lakes, by Mr. Gilfihan's gasoline launch. Music for dancing was furnished by both the Band and "Grewell Bros". Refreshments were served in the room above, consisting of ice cream and cake, and strawberries and cream. Dancing continued until the "wee sma' hours", when everybody and his girl started homeward, either by boat or other conveyance. Warren is justly very proud of her "Band Boys".

CLATSKANIE

G. W. Welch, H. L. Colvin, John Colvin, Edgar Colvin, John Quigley and J. J. Geary of Marshland, attended a session of the Odd Fellows lodge in this city, Saturday night.

Say, boys, how would you like to represent some wild cat Insurance Company in this place. There is money in it, you know.

C. W. Graham and son George of Marshland, were doing business in the city last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Miller, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Anna Carrol, over on the Cowlitz the past several weeks, returned to their home last Friday.

The warring factions of Mist, had their first round in the courts hede last week. One side got a black eye, and the other was told to keep still. It is said by those who claim to know, that the faction who is, and has been desecrating the U. S. flag, had better haul in their horns. They are likely to be called upon by the district attorney, to explain.

Many of our citizens have been swindled by a gay young lothario from Denver, representing a wild cat Mutual Insurance Company, the past several weeks. Americans like to be humbugged "you know". Patronize home industry and save your money. Don't get the idea into your head that our home business men don't know anything.

Frank Dye, the successful logger, of the upper Clatskanie, was doing business in the city Monday.

E. B. Wilcox, a prominent farmer, was trading in the city this week.

J. A. Van, a successful farmer of the Nehalem valley, brought a load of his farm products to market in this city on Monday, where he soon disposed of them.

Frank Van a prominent saw mill man, of the Nehalem valley, was doing business in the city, Monday.

We learn from well authenticated sources that the A. & C. R. R. Co. will soon commence running freight trains into town over the Benson switch. This will be a great convenience to our merchants as well as the sawmills and the people generally.

Our push club, since they have found out where they are at, have placed several thousand feet of lumber on the ground for the new sidewalk out to the railroad station. It is claimed by those who pretend to know, that the sidewalk will be completed before the county seat election takes place.

It is also said that the county surveyor will soon commence surveying the new route, between Clatskanie and Mist, for the county road.

Mrs. J. N. Rice and Mrs. W. O. Buck, were shopping in the city Monday.

Lumber and shingles are being rushed in from the mills as fast as possible. Every freight train, and every steamer going out is loaded to their utmost capacity, making room for more shingles and lumber.

Peter Farlin, a prosperous farmer of upper Clatskanie, was in the city Monday, doing some trading.

Arthur Harlow, a former resident of this place, who has been attending college at McMinnville the past two years, was visiting friends in the city last week.

Dave Davis, former editor of the Mist, is in the city this week, in the interest of the „Oregon Timberman."

R. Sesseman Talks.

To the Editor of THE MIST:

VERSONIA, ORE., June 29—In the MIST of June 26th, we hear from Postmaster Clark, of RAINIER. While we don't boast of being a broad guage man, almost in Clatsop county and in favor of the county seat at Rainier, there are a few voters and taxpayers in Auburn precinct, that are willing to make a little sacrifice for a few years yet, in order to keep Columbia county in a good financial condition—so that people coming from the East to the Pacific coast, will not be drove out and kept from our county on account of a burdensome tax that will take years to pay. And for what? To boom your landed Rainier at the expense of the whole county.

The writer signed a petition to give the voters a chance to vote for the relocation of the county seat, but did not understand it to be a permanent location. I never heard of such an act before as a permanent location, that the people could not change if they so wished. We are willing to give every legal voter the privilege to vote as he pleases; but we think every voter ought to study well what he is doing before it is too late.

Mr. Clark says not one of your correspondents has given a single reason that would have any weight to induce any voter to be in favor of St. Helens, if he did not live within 10 miles of that place. Now, Mr. Clark; you are a broad-minded man.

Is it a permanent location that the people cannot change, if they so desire?

Is a tax debt of $100,000 on the already tax-burdened people of Columbia county, to be desired?

And then the county seat to be moved to a place more disadvantageous to the taxpayers than it is at present.

We would like to know if there is any reason, or should this have any weight with a voter as far even as 15 or 20 miles from St. Helens. We are not trying to boom Vernonia or Pittsburg, but we do think all such questions ought to be looked at as they really are. In a few years the people of Columbia county may see that a change of the county seat will be a benefit to them, and we will be more able to bear the burden, than at present. We now have all we can manage

As to Mr. Clark's estimate that the cost would only be $100 to remove the county seat to Rainier or Clatskanie, it is certainly very misleading to many of the voters, or I have lost what little reason I ever had. We were in a county seat fight in the East at one time, and know that it is hard to tell where and when the expense will stop or end. So after looking the ground all over we have made up our minds for the good of Columbia county and all or most of them that in it, that we will do all we can to knock it out the first round, and leave the county seat at St. Helens. We thank Mr. Clark for his open letter, as we believe in knowing who we are talking with.

Now, voters of Columbia county: I advise you to count your tax money, before you vote on the 6th day of July.

Yours, for success,

R. SESSEMAN.

Nervous Prostration-Faint Spells.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Saved My Life.

There is great danger in a run down condition. Overwork, mental strain, the cares and worries of business and the home, all have a deleterious effect upon the nerves, which in their devitalized condition readily fall prey to the attacks of disease. Aside from the danger there is no condition attended by so many disagreeable symptoms; such as loss of appetite, indigestion or nervous dyspepsia, headache, tired feeling and loss of ambition together with the agony of sleepless nights spent in tossing restlessly about, only to rise exhausted in the morning. Dr. Miles' Nervine is a true nerve tonic which, by strengthening the nerves, restores health and appetite and brings sweet sleep.

"For six years I suffered almost constantly from a complication of troubles which culminated in complete nervous prostration. I had no appetite, I could not sleep, I suffered from indigestion and nervousness. As is so often the case in nervous prostration I frequently had weak, fainting spells. Doctors did not help me. They said my blood was very poor, and I know my face was always very pale. The very first bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine I took gave me noticeable relief and I felt stronger than I had in years. My neighbors in Puyallup, Wash., where I then lived will testify to this. I also used some of Dr. Miles' Restorative Tonic and Anti-Pain Pills. I believe the Dr. Miles Remedies saved my life."—MRS. J. C. BENEDICT, Tucker, Utah.
