O. Matthiesen, widow of the former president of the American augar refining company, leaves her nephew, Conrad H. Matthiesen, heir to $15,000,000.

Axel Simonson, a sea captain, has sued for libel a magazine publishing company for publishing a story repre-senting him as having been the first to leave his wrecked ship. He says the story is false and by depicting him as a ward damages his reputation.

Notice to vacate has been served on 58 squatters on a tract in the suburbs of New York city, which is to be converted into lakes for additional water supply, but some of them will resist. Included are four churches, four schools, six hotels, ten summer residences and about 40 farms.
