COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING BY ESTELLA GABBERT, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE: One copy one year, in advance, $1.00 Six months, 50c

August 14, 1903.

This paper is kept on file at the Oregon Press Association Room 9, Hamilton building, Portland, Oregon.

The discovery of a large body of iron ore in the vicinity of Milton creek would make St. Helens, one of the most prosperous towns of the northwest. It would increase the value of farm property in the vicinity of the discovery to an appreciable extent, and make the owners of farms in that section wealthy. The promoters, who intend to do the prospecting are taking all the risk, while the farm owner who gives the American Timber Company a mineral lease, loses none of his rights, risks nothing, and has everything to gain, it matters not whether the iron body is found on his land or some other tract. The company needs a few more tracts to justify the expense of extensive prospecting operations, and the people should give them every encouragement.

What's this talk about Mt. St. Helens being hot? Some conscienceless sinner in whom the truth hath found no abiding place has worked off a yarn on the Oregonian to the effect that one side of the mountain is intensely hot, and is evidently preparing for an eruption! This loquacious student of nature must have found a side of the mountain unknown to the writer who was there two weeks ago and found the silent sentinel snow-clad to the base, and most frigidly and pestiferously cold. If there was a warm spot in the heart of St. Helens, we failed to find it. The deep white snow betrays the coldness of Helens' heart.—Kalamia Bulletin.

There has been considerable trouble back in Wall street. One abstractly would hardly think that trouble in a single street could affect the entire country. The accounts of a nation are cleared there, and even Albany takes a hand in it. The present situation is not hard to figure out. Big men have been gambling and the other fellows have won. Whenever men gamble either in a small or big way, there is bound to be trouble of some kind. Stock gambling is just about in the same class as faro, though the world puts a different stamp on it.—Albany Democrat.

The Daily Astorian, established 30 years ago last month in the modern Venice Astoria, by The O. Man of this neck, has fallen into good hands, Otis Patterson of the Dalles, and Walter Lyon of Salem, a good newspaper combination. This is the 3rd transfer of that valuable property since we foolishly "let go" in 1880, after finding out that James A. Gardfield was a nauvooite liar.—Sherman County Observer.

It is announced in San Francisco that E. H. Harrison has in mind the construction of a coast railroad from that city to Astoria. The Southern Pacific has a coast line to California. It is quite the natural thing that there should be plans for extending it. Indeed, the report has it that engineers are already figuring on the matter, though the actual work of construction may be a long ways off.—Salem Statesman.

The harvest of Columbia county is an abundant one this season. Hay and fruits are taking the efforts of the producers to properly handle and care for them, while the export of dairy and lumber products, poles, sawlogs, shingles, etc., far surpasses any period in the history of this district.

There are people who wouldn't want Rainier folks to know for anything in the world that they wanted to make personal attacks on Rainier people during the county seat campaign, but desired to have the articles fathered by some one else.

The dirtiest slam at St. Helens woman was made by the Rainier paper during the county seat campaign, when it stated the principal inhabitants were blond grass widows.

Now, that the county seat matter is disposed of, it is time to look after road matters—the all important question. There is room for much improvement in roads in this county.

United States Senator J. R. Foraker of Ohio, is looming up as a formidable candidate for the republican nomination for the presidency next year. Notwithstanding President Roosevelt's popularity, the Foraker boom is becoming strong in the South.

The fishing season closes tomorrow night. In spite of the intervals of short slack runs, the price of Columbia river Salmon has kept up to a good figure until the last few days. The output has been a source of great revenue. About 300 tons have been shipped from St. Helens alone.

George Hill, the proprietor of the Russian bath house in Astoria, was bound over in the sum of $400 to appear before the October term of the circuit court at St. Helens, by Justice Blackford, of Clatskanie, on a charge of giving liquors to minors. Hill informed the Astorian that he was making great headway in electioneering for Rainier, when placed under arrest.

It is not a matter of good taste to exhibit too much over the result of the recent county seat election, or attempt to rub it into the other fellows on account of the victory. It must be remembered that the result was made possible by such Rainier campaign workers as Hill, of Astoria, the editor of the Rainier paper, and his man Friday whose shingle proclaims his occupation as a notary public and lawyer.

The Lewis and Clark Exposition management is getting the details of the gigantic enterprise in working order. With H. W. Scott as president, and H. W. Good as director-general, the plans for the greatest North Pacific fair is getting down to a working system. The State Commission, also has begun effective work and is making arrangements for the Oregon exhibit at St. Louis.

The State Board is making a roar because a number of physicians and midwives are not complying with the new law, and some of them are liable to be jerked up at any time and be compelled to pay a fine of $10 for every time there is a failure to report a birth. Under the provisions of the new law all physicians and midwives in Columbia county must report all births within five days after the end of the month, to Dr. H. R. Cliff, the health officer. Contagious diseases, also must be reported.

St. Helens is supposed to be the county seat of Columbia county, but there were two days this week in which there was no afternoon mail to Portland. The mail service between St. Helens and Houlton is a failure, and every change of schedule makes it worse. All mails that go to Houlton in the afternoon from St. Helens lay over at the former place until the next day. E. E. Quick, of the Columbia County Abstract Company, says that one does not know when to mail a letter now, and the complaint is becoming general. St. Helens has furnished a United States senator, a justice of the supreme court, and numerous statements of lesser note, and deserves something better at the hands of this national government. One half the time the management of the local paper has to carry its edition to Houlton in order to reach its subscribers on time. Even to get permission to do this it is necessary to take an ironclad oath to support the constitution of the United States, the by-laws of St. Helens, etc.

VERNONIA.

Well, election is over. How does Rainier feel?

Camp meeting begins this week.

Oscar Brown was thrown from his horse and received a severe cut in his forehead. He was getting along fine at the last reports.

Among the late arrivals to town are Mrs. A. Robinson, of St. Helens. She is visiting Mrs. G. W. Rice.

W. Fitzgerald, of Los Angeles, Calif., is visiting his father. The latter, it is reported, will return to Los Angeles with his son.

A movement is on foot to build a telephone line from Vernonia to St. Helens.

George Smith, of Houlton, and Cliff Harris, of Sanvies' Island, are in camp for a few days.

Ed Hazen and folks, of Houlton, and Mr. Wolf, of St. Helens, are in camp at the latter's place at the 18 mile tree.

George Rice is now able to run a binder.

The hum of the binders can be heard cutting grain.

Soon the threshing machine will start up.

A party of ladies went out to pick blackberries, and saw five deer, and it is hard to tell who made the biggest fuss and was scared the most.

Plenty of comers and goers.

The Vernonia baseball team played Mrs. last Saturday. The game stood, Vernonia 4, Mist 18.

John Van, of Portland, is visiting at Vernonia.

John Brown, of Gray's Harbor, Wash., came in on business.

W. Roberts, of Houlton, is on business at Vernonia.

C. W. Mellinger is replanking a bridge.

CLATSKANIE

Uncle John Colvin, of Marshland, was in the city Saturday, attending to some legal business.

The great social dance given by the Reuben Snyderly night at their hall in this city, was a grand success in every particular.

Will Dippold is rustling shingles into this market with all dispatch from the shingle mill of Dippold & Sons, located in the mountains just back of the city.

We would recommend that the editor of the Rainier Gazette take a dose of Mrs. Winslow's soothing syrup. Perhaps he would be in better condition at the next general county election to devote to the republican party who they had better nominate as candidates for county officers.

Wouldn't that kill you, "Clatskanie has lost her roads." It did make us feel a little bad when that whiskey was emptied into the streets, and ran down "Hill" on election day. However, the doctor has had good sale for disinfectants ever since the 3rd day of August.

Try again, Bro. Mitchell, no apparant, for office have made their appearance in this little town in the brush. Perhaps you may wake some one up here, who would like to sit on "cushioned seats in the new court house to be built at St. Helens."

We learn that Miss Jones has sold out her candy shop in the New Home Hotel, and moved back to the Nelatum.

C. O. Anderson has commenced the erection of a large business block on Bridge street. It is said that the new bank soon to be established here, will occupy a part of the building.

Ed. one Whitney and wife are sojourning at the hot springs on the upper Columbia for a couple of weeks.

D. W. Freeman, of Deep Creek, was doing business in the city Tuesday.

E. W. Conyers is rustivating in the Nelatum this week.

The baseball nine of this city played with the Astoria nine last Sunday. The score stood 13 to 15 in favor of Astoria.

We noticed the genial countenance of Erick Erickson from the upper Clatskanie on our streets Wednesday.

Cedar lumber and stungles are being rushed into this market from the Nehalem valley, during this cool weather.

KEASEY

Mrs. Rebecca Webster, of Portland, is visiting at the home of Mrs. McPherson.

Thomas Brown and daughter Lida, also Mrs. Hyatt and daughter are at the home of Joseph Reed, on Kock creek.

Miss Maimie Chelchelin and sister Manda, are spending their vacation with their father and mother on Crooked creek.

The Merharit brothers and their wives, of Portland, have pitched their tents adjacent to and Iraida, anticipating a least of good things such as they enjoyed when here last summer.

We are glad to make mention of a most enjoyable time spent on a picnic near Mr. Pettyjohn's, it being the close, for a time, of the school taught by Miss Lizzie Early. The dear little children bright and cheery as spring blossoms who, scarce ever before had spoken english, this being their first term in school, bravely faced the audience and recited their pieces in a manner creditable to older pupils—the older ones have made decided progress, and last but not least, the accordion accompaniments by Fred Faltinat to the singing by the young ladies, was a very pleasing part of the program. Two recitations by Miss Early, in her usual easy style, added much to the pleasure of the listeners. All told of the untiring efforts and patience of the teacher and the love and willingness of the pupils. The tables appeared in strongest terms to the sittings of all mankind, and surely the good mothers displayed an art in the culinary line not to be exceeded, and we will not forget to mention the fathers and friends who so kindly cleared and arranged the grounds so beautiful, that even fairies might envy people their enjoyment among the leafy maple and oaks and the banks of Kock creek. The school house, too, cheerful, cozy and neat, does credit to the friends and patrons of District 18. Peace and prosperity to you in the future.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Edwin Ross.

Boy Cured of Colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. WILKINS, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkins is book-keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co. For sale by Edwin Ross.

VERNONIA

Weather again fair. Roads getting dusty.

Thomas Brown is again in the valley. J. E. Dow made his semi-monthly trip over the mountains Monday, with his dairy product.

A few of Nehalem's fair dames and damsels are in the county seat attending the teachers' examination this week.

William Wilson and A. Shanahan were Forest Grove visitors last week—each taking out a load of spring chickens for which they received 15 cents per pound.

Our road supervisors, Charles Meltinger and J. P. Sheely were visited last week by County Commissioner Case and Roadmaster Stevens. The case and roadmaster were very good and much needed work on the roads both I. P. Spencer and son, and friend Smith, were out hunting two days this week. They brought back a sack of peas as fruit for their labor. Say, Israel, can't you raise peas on Jerusalem hill?

The Mist boys were again the champions in the game of baseball played with the Vernonia lads at Mist Saturday.

Hans Christianson is handling the ribbons for the East Fork Shingle & Manufacturing Company, of Pittsburg, this week.

A sad accident happened to Oscar Bruner of Pittsburg, last Friday. He was riding horseback alone down by the old Magoon place, when his horse threw him somehow; he can't tell how. After throwing the boy the horse returned to Pittsburg, when a search was made for the boy and he was found where the horse had thrown him, having received a deep cut across the side of his face, but did not tell how it happened. At the last report he was resting as well as could be expected.

Camp meeting is in full blast. Several campers on the ground, and more preparing to camp.

John Edholm came in from the Grove Tuesday evening with one Rev. and wife.

William Wood has got the idea in his head that he don't want to plow and mow around so many stumps, so he has purchased the tripod grubbing machine of William Wilson, and says the air will be full of roots and chinks down by Bill Wood's.

Our pastor here at Vernonia gets around smiling, and looking the very picture of a proud father, and well may be, for he is the happy possessor of a booming baby girl, only a few days old. We learn from good authority that Louis Fitzgerald has disposed of his homestead for the nice little sum of $1500, and now intends to bid the No. 10 and Oregon a final farewell, and set sail for the sunny clime of California. Good luck ahead you, Lou.

Thomas H. North is very busy these days hauling out his water cut of shingles. Mr. North makes a fine shingle, and they are much sought after by the carpenters of Washington county.

Vernon Mow and wife, of Hiley, are visiting the family of Adolf Bergerson this week. Vernon and wife were at one time residents of this vicinity.
