The little son of P. D. Curtis discovered a floater in the river Saturday, at Columbia City. Justice Watkins held an inquest, but there was nothing by which to identify the body. The man had evidently been in the water for a couple of weeks, and was apparently about 30 years old, over six feet tall and had auburn hair. Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by Edwin Ross.

Henry Harms Accidentally Killed.

Henry Harms, the stepson of Fred Langfeldt, a former resident of St. Helens, was accidentally in George Howatson's logging camp, near Clatskanie Tuesday. Only meager particulars were obtained. Young Harms was working as a swamper in the camp, and had occasion to pass under a log that was being cut across a canyon. The log unexpectedly dropped down and crushed his skull.

Foriera Hold-up Artists Do Business in the Vicicity of Columbia City.

Three ragged hoboes, two of them almost barefooted, were carrying on a combined burglary and hold-up business in the vicinity of Columbia City Tuesday afternoon and evening. S. Kinder and family were away from home, and their house was completely ransacked, but it is not learned that anything of value was taken. An attempt was made to enter the house of Superintendent Chipman, of the Columbia City & Nehalem Logging Railway Company, but the promoters changed their minds.

At early candle lighting in the evening Jack Mundy, who runs the boarding house, near Columbia City, for the accommodation of the logging railway hands, lighted his lantern and lit out for St. Helels to order some meat from the butcher shop and to meet Mrs. Mundy, who was coming down on the night boat from Portland. He came along the old Lewis & Clark trail up the river bank, swinging his lantern and whistling, "Let the Sawlogs into the Boom," when he observed a smouldering camp fire nearby the shanty in the vicinity of the old rock quarry. Three hard-looking brigands stepped out and inquired if he had any money. It was three against one, and Mr. Mundy forked over two dollars and six bits, all the money that he had on his person. The highwaymen wanted Mundy's shoes, but he explained to them that he was willing to give up all, his money, but he needed the shoes to walk seven miles back home that night.

It Stands to Reason

A merchant cuts prices on his merchandise to undersell his competitor, but the reason none can compete with John Dellar's prices is because he is located on corner First and Yamhill, Portland, where his rent is about one-half in comparison with that on Third, Morrison or Washington streets. If you are looking for a men's or boy's suit, hat, pants, shirts, underwear, shoes, ladies' and misses' shoes, trunks, valises, etc., go to John Dellar, and you will find a difference in price on first-class qualities of merchandise.

Years

Of Suffering From Heart Disease.

I Would Not be Alive Today

But For Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

Do not neglect the warning symptoms of a weak heart. Palpitation, smothering spells, swelling of feet or ankles, pain in and around heart; oftentimes affections of the stomach, lungs, liver, bladder, kidneys, etc., arise from heart weakness. A weak heart must be helped. It cannot stop to rest. It must be strengthened and regulated. The blood must be enriched, the heart nerves strengthened and the circulation improved by the great heart and blood tonic, Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. There is positively nothing to equal this wonderful medicine in its beneficial influence upon hearts weakened from any cause.

"I am very grateful for what Dr. Miles Heart Cure has done for me, as I am confident I would not be alive today had I not learned of its wonderful virtues and taken it before it was too late. I had been a sufferer from valvular heart disease for many years, in fact ever since I was a little girl and for three years before I began using Heart Cure I was in very bad shape. I could not sleep on my left side at all and would frequently have the most dreadful smothering spells. At times my left side would swell up. I had pain in my head all the time from which I suffered greatly. Nothing I took did me any good until I used eleven bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure which removed all these distressing symptoms and made me feel well and strong."—MRS. H. C.
