Distress After Eating

Nausea between meals, belching, vomiting, flatulence, fits of nervous headache, pain in the stomach, are all symptoms of dyspepsia, and the longer it is neglected the harder it is to cure it.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Radically and permanently cure it—strengthen and tone the stomach and other digestive organs for the natural performance of their functions.

Accept no substitute for Hood's.

"I had dyspepsia twenty-five years and took different medicines but got no help until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Have taken four bottles of this medicine and can now eat almost anything, sleep well, have no cramps in my stomach, no burning and no distress." MRS. WILLIAM G. BARRETT, 14 Olney St., Providence, R. I.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

One Pleasure Gone.

"I suppose, Miss Rambo," said the caller, "that your father feels much happier now that he has been cured of his rheumatism?"

"Well," explained the young lady, "he feels better when he realizes that he does not have to suffer any more; but he feels pretty bad when he remembers how exactly he used to be able to foretell the weather."—Judge.

An Important Distinction.

She—I suppose that it would take a great deal of observation and experience to enable a man to pick the fastest horse entered for a race.

He (mournfully)—Yee, but that isn't what you are trying to do. What you want is to pick the horse that is going to win.

Ocean Trout.

Trout are believed to be exclusively fresh water fish. It happens, however, occasionally that some are caught with the herring in the German ocean.

Silence at Dinner.

Whenever there is a marked silence at a large dinner party it is always, so the superstitious say, twenty minutes of the hour or twenty minutes after.

Eas'er.

Easter is the Sunday which follows that fourteenth day of the calendar moon which falls upon or next after the 21st day of March.

Wild Animals in Captivity.

Captivity changes animals' nature. A lion captured when it is full grown will always be treacherous, but lions, tigers, leopards and other carniverous animals that have been born in captivity can be tamed till they are quite as gentle and affectionate as poodle dogs.

Last Touch of Realism.

The photograph and moving pictures have been combined, say the Chicago Tribune, thus making it possible to give the last touch of realism to prize fight views.

Tete-a-Tete.

"Ah," he said to her over their ice cream, "it is very sweet, but not so sweet as you." "It is soft," she returned promptly, "but not so soft as you." "And it is cold," he concluded, "but not so cold as you."—Philadelphia Press.

One of Many.

Meyer—Did you ever see a man-eating shark?

Gyer—No; but I once saw a man eating catfish.

Meyer—Indeed! Where?

Gyer—In a restaurant.—Chicago Daily News.

Birds and Floods.

Many birds have an instinctive prescience of floods, and will change the positions of their nests or make other provisions for safety just before a heavy rainfall results in a flood which sweeps away their former homes.

Cream Custard Pie.

Beat one egg, add two-thirds cupful of sugar and run in one and one-half cupfuls of good cream. Mix well, add a pinch of salt. Line a pie plate with paste, pour in the cream mixture and grate a little nutmeg over the top. Bake slowly and serve just cooled.—Detroit Free Press.

Tribute to Woman's Vanity.

Traveling beauties never take passage on an ocean liner without a spirit lamp to heat their curling tongs. This practice imperils the ship through danger of fire. One of the big steamship lines has fitted every stateroom on its vessels with an electrical apparatus for heating the curling tongs.

Twins Born in Dublin.

Irish women can boast of having twins more frequently than any other women in the world. Twins are born in Doublin about once in every fifty-two births, as against a general world average of one in eighty.

SERMONS OF THE WEEK

School Life.—School life is composed of three composites—the home, the teacher and the pupil.—Rev. W. B. Sluts, Methodist, Pittsburg, Pa.

Labor.—The history of centuries reveals the fact that the greater the civilization the more honorable labor becomes.—Rev. R. H. Hood, Presbyterian, Pittsburg, Pa.

Real Christian.—It is easy to be a nominal Christian, for a profession will accomplish that. It is difficult to be a real one, for that involves a right heart.—Rev. La Crandall, Baptist, Chicago, Ill.

Blood Money.—There are men in the church to-day who are receiving blood money, the revenue that comes from a shameful and dishonest business.—Rev. A. R. Holderley, Methodist, Atlanta, Ga.

Man's Spirit.—"You cannot judge a man solely by his acts. You must probe deeper. You must determine the spirit which actuates him and ascertain its origin."—Rev. D. Hart., Hebrew, Denver, Colo.

Smiles of Etre.—The smiles and smirks of an evil person are not signs of life, but danger signals that warn us against falling into an open sepulcher.—Rev. C. G. Greenwood, Baptist, Westfield, N. J.

Industrial Conditions.—The industrial problem will never be solved on the principle of class selfishness, but only on the basis of the highest welfare for all.—Rev. J. H. Speer, Presbyterian, Denver, Colo.

Honesty.—Honesty is one of the first principles of Christianity. It lies at the base and also at the apex of Christian character. It must be the dominant force in all traffic.—Rev. F. R. Pardington, Methodist, Bethel, Conn.

God and Mammon.—Because we serve both God and Mammon we find an equal amount in our surroundings. The devil is still alive with us so long as we act him, and the Christ nature repudiated.—Rev. F. E. Mason, Scientist, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Rivals of the Pulpit.—To-day the pulpit has more powerful rivalry than ever before. The newspaper press, the cheap magazines and the free libraries fill in part the place once occupied by the pulpit alone.—Rev. D. MacArthur, Baptist, New York City.

Evangelism.—The spirit of world evangelism was never more marked than it is to-day. The Methodist Church alone is preaching the gospel in sixteen languages, to say nothing of the marvelous work beyond the seas.—Rev. W. A. Frye, Methodist, Lansing, Mich.

The Resurrection.—The resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead is the supreme warrant of our faith in Him as the image of the invisible God. The church has also found in that resurrection her charter. If Christ is not risen the whole Christian theory of life collapses and the fruits of the theory are illogical and its hopes factious.—Rev. M. W. Stryker, Presbyterian, Clinton, N. Y.

Capital and Labor.—In the present fomentation in the industrial world we need leaders who see the parts in relation to the whole. Neither capital nor labor must demand all. One has gold to exchange for work and the other has work to exchange for gold. Neither should be exorbitant.—Rev. M. E. Harlan, Disciple, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Law of Life.—There is no higher form of life reached, there is no development of personal intellect, there is no prosperous business maintained, there is no higher level of political or social life reached, save along one invariable line—struggle with and conquest of opposition. The law of life is attainment through overcoming.—Rev. J. B. Clark, Presbyterian, Detroit, Mich.

Redemption.—Adam fell and sin came. Redemption was purchased by a slain Jesus and a risen Lord; and we, now, each week, celebrate His day of resurrection in combination with worship of God who commanded and the world was, and who showed His supreme love for man in sacrificing for our redemption, Christ, His Son, in whom He was well pleased.—Rev. A. J. Henry, Congregationalist, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Work and Win.—Do not people somehow really feel that to support the church, to be charitable and generous, to observe the formal requisitions of religion, is enough. That they hereby purchase the goal of spiritual attainment? And how incongruous it is for people to feel so, who know so well that they get nothing in any other department of life without working for it! Work and win is the true law of both the temporal and the spiritual life.—Rev. J. B. Clark, Presbyterian, Detroit, Mich.

Professing Christians.—If you are active Christians, if you make a loud profession of your religion, you may be sure your neighbors will talk about you, and you may congratulate yourself if you do not get your name in the papers. They are sure to find some flaw in your character, to weigh against your zeal in God's service. The fellow who is merely a silent, indifferent member of the church, who never opens his mouth to testify, for Christ, will have a much easier time.—Rev. D. M. McLean, Methodist, Bismark, North Dakota.

Modest.

"Remember," said the serious man, "that money is not the only thing to be striven for in this life."

"Maybe not," answered Senator Sorghum, "but a whole lot of people think it is, and I am not egotist enough to try to set any new fashions."—Washington Star.

The Only One.

The man who snugly states that he
Is "clothed in righteousness"
Believes himself sole patentee
Of that peculiar dress.

Woman's Nerves

Give Warning of Approach of More Serious Trouble.

Do you experience fits of depression with restlessness, alternating with extreme irritability, bordering upon hysteria? Are your spirits easily affected so that one minute you laugh, and the next fall into convulsive weeping?

Do you feel something like a ball rising in your throat and threatening to choke you; all the senses perverted, morbidly sensitive to light and sound; pain in the ovaries, and especially between the shoulders; sometimes loss of voice; nervous dyspepsia, and almost continually cross and snappy, with a tendency to cry at the least provocation?

If so, your nerves are in a shattered condition, and you are threatened with nervous prostration.

Undoubtedly you do not know it, but in nine cases out of ten this is caused by some uterine disorder, and the nerves centering in and about the organs which make you a woman influence your entire nervous system. Something must be done at once to restore their natural condition or you will be prostrated for weeks and months perhaps, and suffer untold misery.

Proof is monumental that nothing in the world is better for this purpose than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; thousands and thousands of women have written us so.

How Mrs. Holland, of Philadelphia, suffered among the finest physicians in the country, none of whom could help her—finally cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For over two years I was a constant sufferer from extreme nervousness, indigestion, and dizziness. Menstruation was irregular, had backache and a feeling of great lassitude and weakness. I was so bad that I was not able to do my own work or go far in the street. I could not sleep nights.

"I tried several splendid doctors, but they gave me no relief. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I soon began to feel better, and was able to go out and not feel as if I would fall at every step. I continued to take the medicine until cured.

"I cannot say enough in behalf of Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine, and heartily recommend all suffering women to try it and find the relief I did."—MRS. FLORENCE HOLLAND, 622 S. Clifton St., Philadelphia, Pa. (Jan. 6, 1902.)

Another case of severe female trouble cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after the doctors had failed.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was in poor health for several years. I had female trouble and was not able to do my housework alone. I felt tired, very nervous, and could not sleep. I doctored with several doctors. They doctored me for my stomach, but did not relieve me. I read in your book about your medicine, and thought I would try it. I did so, and am now cured and able to do my work alone, and feel good. I was always very poor, but now weigh one hundred and fifty pounds.

"I thank you for the relief I have obtained, and I hope that every woman troubled with female weakness will give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I have recommended it to many of my friends."—MRS. MARIA BOWERS, Millersville, Ohio. (Aug. 15, 1901.)

Will not the volumes of letters from women made strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound convince all of the virtues of this medicine?

How shall the fact that it will help them be made plain?

Surely you cannot wish to remain weak, and sick, and discouraged, exhausted with each day's work. You have some derangement of the feminine organism, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you just as surely as it has others.

A Strong Character.

One of the novelists, referring to his hero, says:

His countenance fell.
His voice broke.
His heart sank.
His hair rose.
His eyes blazed.
His words burned.
His blood froze.

It appears, however, that he was able to pull himself together and marry the girl in the last chapter.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Next Thing in Line.

The oldest mason is beginning to get his name in the papers again, says the Chicago Record-Herald. Look out for another of George Washington's body servants.

His Business.

"What's your prospective son-in-law's business?" asked the old friend. "Love-making, principally," growled the old man. "At least, I don't see how he finds time for much of anything else."—Chicago Post.

Precept and Practice.

Cobwigger — Several millionaires have written their opinions as to how to make a fortune.

Meritt—I read that article. The funny thing is that not one of them advised following the plan by which he got rich himself.—Judge.

Salt Freshens Ink.

Chronic Sores Eating Ulcers, A Constant Drain Upon the System.

Nothing is a source of so much trouble as an old sore or ulcer, particularly when located upon the lower extremities where the circulation is weak and sluggish. A gangrenous eating ulcer upon the leg is a frightful sight, and as the poison burrows deeper and deeper into the tissue beneath and the sore continues to spread, one can almost see the flesh melting away and feel the strength going out with the sickening discharges. Great running sores and deep offensive ulcers often develop from a simple boil, swollen gland, bruise or pimple, and are a threatening danger always, because, while all such sores are not cancerous, a great many are, and this should make you suspicious of all chronic, slow-healing ulcers and sores, particularly if cancer runs in your family. Face sores are common and cause the greatest annoyance because they are so persistent and unsightly and detract so much from one's personal appearance.

Middle aged and old people and those whose blood is contaminated and tainted with the germs and poison of malaria or some previous sickness, are the chief sufferers from chronic sores and ulcers. While the blood remains in an unhealthy, polluted condition healing is impossible, and the sore will continue to grow and spread in spite of washes and salves or any superficial or surface treatment, for the sore is but the outward sign of some constitutional disorder, a bad condition of the blood and system which local remedies cannot cure. A blood purifier and tonic is what you need. Something to cleanse the blood, restore its lost properties, quicken the circulation and invigorate the constitution, and S. S. S. is just such a remedy.

SORES ON BOTH ANKLES.

Gentlemen: About ten years ago a small sore came on each of my ankles. Dew got into the places and they became large, eating ulcers, and I suffered intensely for nearly ten years. I had spent more than $500.00 trying to get well when I chanced to see S. S. S. advertised in a Memphis paper. I began to take it and was cured. My limbs have never been sore or given me any pain at all since. I have recommended S. S. S. to a great many people, and am now giving it to my nine-year-old son for Eczema. During my long sickness I was living near Memphis, Tenn., but have since removed to Kansas City, and am now residing at No. 614 East Sixteenth Street.

Mrs. B. A. HARRIS.
Kansas City, Mo.

S. S. S. reaches these old chronic sores through the blood. It goes to the very root of the trouble and counteracts and removes from the blood all the impurities and poisons, and gradually builds up the entire system and strengthens the sluggish circulation, and when the blood has been purified and the system purged of all morbid, unhealthy matter the healing process begins, and the ulcer or sore is soon entirely gone.

S. S. S. contains no mineral or poisonous drugs of any description, but is guaranteed a purely vegetable remedy, a blood purifier and tonic combined and a safe and permanent cure for chronic sores and ulcers. If you have a slow-healing sore of any kind, external or internal, write us about it, and our physicians will advise you without charge. Book on "The Blood and Its Diseases" free.
