

THE OREGON MIST.

VOL. XX.

ST. HELENS, OREGON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1903.

NO. 51.

PROFESSIONAL.

LOTARY PUBLIC. CONVEYANCING.

J. B. GODFREY,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.
Real Estate and Timber Lands Sold
ABSTRACTS MADE:
ST. HELENS, OREGON

S. H. GRUBER,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.
Office with E. E. Quick.
Will give best personal attention to all legal matters entrusted to me. Will practice in all the state and United States Courts.

W. H. POWELL,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.
DEPUTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY.
ST. HELENS, OREGON.

Dr. Edwin Ross,
Physician and Surgeon.
ST. HELENS, OREGON.

Dr. H. R. Cliff,
Physician and Surgeon.
ST. HELENS, OREGON.

Watts & Price,

—DEALERS IN—
Flour and Feed
Choice Groceries
Staple Dry Goods
Best Quality Shoes
Hardware and Notions
Scappoose, Oregon.

Steamer JOSEPH KELLOGG

Leaves Portland on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 7 a. m. for St. Helens, Mulama, Carroll's Point, Rainier and Kelso.
Arriving at Portland Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 2 p. m.

Steamer NORTHWEST

Leaves Portland Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights at 10 p. m., for the same points mentioned above and Toledo, reaching the latter place at 10 a. m. on the following day. Returning, the boat leaves Toledo at noon, and Castle Rock at 5:30 in the afternoon, Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday, land early in the morning.
Salmon St. H. HOLMAN, Agent.

ca's

Editorially Fearless.
Consistently Republican.
News from all the world—Well written, original stories—Answers to queries—Articles on Health, the Home, New Books, and on Work About the Farm and Garden.

The Weekly Inter Ocean

Is a member of the Associated Press, the only Western Newspaper receiving the entire telegraphic news service of the New York Sun and special cable of the New York World—daily reports from over 2,000 special correspondents throughout the country.

YEAR ONE DOLLAR

Subscribe for The OREGON MIST and the Weekly Inter Ocean both papers for $1.00.

How About Your Title?

ARE YOU SURE it is all right? Remember that it is the RECORD that governs. It is our business to search the records and show what they contain in relation to land titles. If you contemplate buying land or loaning money on real estate security, take no man's word, but insist upon knowing what the record shows regarding the title. An abstract is as essential as a deed. Insist on having it. We have the only set of abstract books in the county. All work promptly executed and satisfaction guaranteed. If you have property to insure give us a call. We are agents for the best fire insurance companies in the world. If you have property for sale list it with us and we will find a buyer.

E. E. QUICK & CO.,
Main Street
ST. HELENS, OREGON

Greatest Clubbing Combination

TWO WEEKLY PAPERS FOR THE OF ONE—GREATEST BARGAIN IN GOOD READING.

By a special arrangement we are able to furnish THE OREGON MIST and THE WEEKLY CLIPPING JOURNAL at the following clubbing price for both papers:

For One Year in Advance—$1.50
For Six Months in Advance, 75c

The Weekly Journal, of Salem, Ore., prints most inside news about our state government and the full legislative proceedings. Just what you want for the coming session. The Journal is a large weekly paper full of telegraphic news of the whole world. Sample copy furnished free upon inquiry at this office.

Events of the Day

GATHERED FROM ALL PARTS OF THE TWO HEMISPHERES.

Comprehensive Review of the Important Happenings of the Past Week, Presented in Condensed Form, Most Likely to Prove Interesting to Our Many Readers.

Germany has recognized the new republic of Panama.

Hotbeds at Cartagena would assassinate the American consul.

Senator Mitchell will call up the 1905 fair bill early this month.

Snow is general in Great Britain and all Europe has suffered from a great storm.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson says credit for favorable balance is due the farmers.

The federal grand jury has charged the Hawaiian legislature with gross corruption.

General Brooke has charged General Wood with insubordination before the senate committee.

China believes Russia intends to take military occupation of and seize the railroad near Niu Chwang.

The United States supreme court has declared valid the Kansas law making eight hours a day in public works.

Ex-officials and others implicated in the postal frauds by Bristol strongly maintain innocence and one has made a counter charge.

The estate of the late Collis P. Huntington is appraised at $28,301,765.

Rear Admiral Sigbee says that the navy is greatly in need of more men.

Dreyfus has finally triumphed in his efforts to secure a judicial hearing of his case.

The title to the rich Bonanza mines of Valdes, is confirmed to the Alaska copper company.

Lord Roberts, commander in chief of the British army, is likely to retire on account of ill health.

Several members of congress will oppose the plan of Roosevelt to reduce the tariff on Philippine goods.

Columbia will ask Latin-American countries to protest against the action of the United States, if Reyes' mission fails.

A New York theater management paid $30 a minute for 90 minutes to hear Patti sing in making up a deficiency in receipts.

The lot of the American consul at Cartagena is being made very hard.

Ex-President Cleveland declares he has no idea of being a candidate for the presidency.

Utah miners declare they will not stay out in sympathy with Coloradoans if demands are met.

The American minister at Santo Domingo refuses to acknowledge the provisional government.

A crank evaded hundreds of New York police and approached President Roosevelt while at a funeral.

General Reyes must confine his activity for Colombia at Washington to lawful channels or be deported.

Senator Mitchell will urge that "the Oregon country" has paid far more into the treasury than it has received in appropriations and the 1905 fair should be favored.

The Far Eastern situation is less reassuring.

The strike situation in Colorado and Utah is fast approaching a crisis.

The senate is sure to pass the bill appropriating $1,125,000 for the 1905 fair.

General Reyes, the Colombian commissioner, has arrived in the United States.

The settlement of the Chicago street car strike did not restore normal conditions as soon as expected.

Columbia has given the Panama canal company warning not to sell its rights to the United States.

General Funston reports that liquor and tuberculosis is largely responsible for sad plight of the Alaskan Indians.

Pension Commissioner Ware has resigned. Everything was not going as smoothly for the commissioner as he desired.

Another crank, who has been disturbing the president by writing letters, has been placed in an asylum.

Friends of O'Day, the noted Wyoming outlaw, will try to rescue him. The sheriff has sworn in a large number of deputies and is confident of holding him.

The secretary of war says Oregon must secure the right of way for the Dalles-Celilo canal before the department will commence work. This action is very unusual, there being no precedent.

Senator Morgan severely criticizes the Panama policy of Roosevelt.

Secretary Hitchcock has suspended another clerk in the Indian territory land office.

Reports from India tell of a flood of the Palar river which wiped out an entire town. Two hundred persons were drowned.

While King Victor of Italy was leaving London an obstruction was found on the railroad tracks, evidently placed there for the purpose of wrecking his train.

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

EVENTS OF THE DAY

GATHERED FROM ALL PARTS OF THE TWO HEMISPHERES.

Comprehensive Review of the Important Happenings of the Past Week, Presented in Condensed Form, Most Likely to Prove Interesting to Our Many Readers.

Germany has recognized the new republic of Panama.

Hotbeds at Cartagena would assassinate the American consul.

Senator Mitchell will call up the 1905 fair bill early this month.

Snow is general in Great Britain and all Europe has suffered from a great storm.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson says credit for favorable balance is due the farmers.

The federal grand jury has charged the Hawaiian legislature with gross corruption.

General Brooke has charged General Wood with insubordination before the senate committee.

China believes Russia intends to take military occupation of and seize the railroad near Niu Chwang.

The United States supreme court has declared valid the Kansas law making eight hours a day in public works.

Ex-officials and others implicated in the postal frauds by Bristol strongly maintain innocence and one has made a counter charge.

The estate of the late Collis P. Huntington is appraised at $28,301,765.

Rear Admiral Sigbee says that the navy is greatly in need of more men.

Dreyfus has finally triumphed in his efforts to secure a judicial hearing of his case.

The title to the rich Bonanza mines of Valdes, is confirmed to the Alaska copper company.

Lord Roberts, commander in chief of the British army, is likely to retire on account of ill health.

Several members of congress will oppose the plan of Roosevelt to reduce the tariff on Philippine goods.

Columbia will ask Latin-American countries to protest against the action of the United States, if Reyes' mission fails.

A New York theater management paid $30 a minute for 90 minutes to hear Patti sing in making up a deficiency in receipts.

The lot of the American consul at Cartagena is being made very hard.

Ex-President Cleveland declares he has no idea of being a candidate for the presidency.

Utah miners declare they will not stay out in sympathy with Coloradoans if demands are met.

The American minister at Santo Domingo refuses to acknowledge the provisional government.

A crank evaded hundreds of New York police and approached President Roosevelt while at a funeral.

General Reyes must confine his activity for Colombia at Washington to lawful channels or be deported.

Senator Mitchell will urge that "the Oregon country" has paid far more into the treasury than it has received in appropriations and the 1905 fair should be favored.

The Far Eastern situation is less reassuring.

The strike situation in Colorado and Utah is fast approaching a crisis.

The senate is sure to pass the bill appropriating $1,125,000 for the 1905 fair.

General Reyes, the Colombian commissioner, has arrived in the United States.

The settlement of the Chicago street car strike did not restore normal conditions as soon as expected.

Columbia has given the Panama canal company warning not to sell its rights to the United States.

General Funston reports that liquor and tuberculosis is largely responsible for sad plight of the Alaskan Indians.

Pension Commissioner Ware has resigned. Everything was not going as smoothly for the commissioner as he desired.

Another crank, who has been disturbing the president by writing letters, has been placed in an asylum.

Friends of O'Day, the noted Wyoming outlaw, will try to rescue him. The sheriff has sworn in a large number of deputies and is confident of holding him.

The secretary of war says Oregon must secure the right of way for the Dalles-Celilo canal before the department will commence work. This action is very unusual, there being no precedent.

Senator Morgan severely criticizes the Panama policy of Roosevelt.

Secretary Hitchcock has suspended another clerk in the Indian territory land office.

Reports from India tell of a flood of the Palar river which wiped out an entire town. Two hundred persons were drowned.

While King Victor of Italy was leaving London an obstruction was found on the railroad tracks, evidently placed there for the purpose of wrecking his train.

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. "This decision," says the Morning Post, "is mainly due to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory."

London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South