

RUTS

CLATSASKIE

John H. Wilson, of the Nehalem valley, was doing business in the city Monday.

E. E. Chipman, of the Beaver creek, was trading with our merchants last Monday.

Mr. Benson has commenced excavating for his logging ditch out on the flats opposite the city.

Mrs. A. J. Convers is visiting friends in Portland, Oregon City, and Astoria this week.

Will Convers was out on the flats this week, surveying for Mr. Pykkonen, Hibbs, Lampas, Nicola, and others.

The new hotel building in the city is being pushed to completion as fast as possible.

We learn that Norman Pickering has purchased some lots in the city, and will build a handsome cottage thereon in the spring.

Al Montgomery has the roof on his new cottage and the carpenters will soon have the building completed.

The logging camps, sawmills and shingle mills in this part of the country are all running full time and are doing a big business.

Nester Thommen and Miss Ida Eckman were united in Holy wedlock, Sunday, out on the flats opposite the depot.

Frank Clark formerly of this city, who has been touring Eastern Oregon, Washington and Idaho returned to this city Tuesday last.

Mrs. Mary Lockwood, of LaCenter, Washington, is visiting friends in the city this week.

Banner Lockwood, of Portland, is visiting friends, and taking in the sights of the city, this week.

We noticed the general countenance of Oscar Wulffman upon our streets Tuesday.

Francis Wiser will soon have his new cottage completed out on the Nehalem.

A good roads meeting is called in this road district to vote a tax to mail on the dollar, on all the property in this district, at the city hall on December 18, at 8 o'clock p.m.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists,
409 Pearl St., N. Y.
50c. and $1. all druggists.

WARRIOR

Henry Larsen has been seriously ill for several days but is improving, and hopes to be out in a short time.

Postmaster Davies was in Portland Monday, buying quite a large variety of Holiday goods.

Floyd Pussey is home for a short time, visiting friends.

The Sunday schools of the Evangelical and Methodist churches will have an union celebration Christmas eve at Beacon's Hall. Santa Claus has signed his intent to be on hand with a bountiful supply of presents with which the Christmas tree is to be loaded.

"I'll meet Bennett to take the boat for Klamath Tuesday, for a short visit.

The two grades of the public school gave an entertainment at the school house Friday eve. Dialogues, recitations, songs, etc., were presented. Each participant did exceedingly well under the careful training of Professor Albin and Miss Grace, teachers.

Mrs. L. Rasmussen is at Marchfield for the winter, and likes that part of the state very much.

Inflammatory rheumatism has had quite a painful hold on Jasper Hazen for the last week or two.

Poh Lovett, who has been in Colorado for the past ten months has returned much improved in health.

Rev. G. M. Thorpe will preach at the M. E. church next Sunday at 11 a.m.

XXX.

VERNONIA

Clear, cold and frosty.

Everybody and wife preparing to enjoy themselves at the Xmas entertainment.

Since writing our last there has been born to the wife of William Ward and Gran Isenring each a daughter.

Elder Stump of the Evangelical Association, came over the mountains Friday day to hold his quarterly meeting at this place, and delivered several excellent sermons while here which were highly appreciated by the citizens and members.

Hans Christiansen, of Upper Nehalem had the grove a visit this week, after grab, etc.

Uncle John Pringle arrived in the valley Sunday, looking somewhat the worse of wear.

We are informed that Richard Sessions, the social club president, has made up his mind to bid adieu to Whist, and set sail for the sunny climes of California. Good luck attend you, Dick.

The force of men engaged in putting up poles and stringing wire for the Vernonian-St. Helens telephone line have reached Pittsburg. There had only one coil of wire stolen, which they think is doing fairly well.

Bitter King Dow, makes his regular trip next Thursday. He reports butter a good figure and plenty of customers.

J. R. Dallas is suppling the Pittsburgers this week with beef beef at just a trifle above a penny a pound. He is also hauling lumber with which to finish his house.

Frank Worman has purchased six head of calves and steers from Sid Malmsten. Frank thinks that beef will soon come up again in the near future.

Ant Sally Spencer has been quite sick with grippe but is able to be sick no more.

Terk Mill is having quite a time these days with something kinder the matter of his heart. We noted, unday that his lady had to cling to him arm to keep him from pulling. We presume, heart trouble is terrible at this time of year.

Next Saturday is the trustees election of officer's day. All should try and be in hand and help put the man with brains in a good office who can do the best work. And remember the talking man, he surely must not be left out in the cold.

E. R. Throop has lately rented the John Adams ranch on Little Beaver creek for the year, and he is now busy breaking his colts, the way of the farmer.

Uncle Sol Shireley is once more able to help himself around the house but feel quite weak yet.

KURLEY.

Owl Saloon

BRINK BROTHERS, PROPRIETORS

—only the best of—

Liquors and Cigars Kept in Stock

CYRUS NODL

And other popular brands of whiskies always in stock.

WEINHARD'S BEER

on draught.

"Tom Benton" Cigars.

All the latest newspapers and other popular periodicals.

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—