American Outposts are Keeping Admira Glass Well Informe

Panama, Dec. 23 .- By means of the run boats, Rear Admiral Glass is keep ing in almost daily communication with the two American outposts at San Mignel. One of these, composed of 100 marines and four field pleces, is well and comfortably located at Yaviza and the other, numbering 100 men, composed of marines and bluejackets, and which also has field pieces, is stationed at Real Santa Maria, 10 miles from Yaviza. Both of the outposts are en camped on the Tuirs river. A distance of 60 miles, partly an estuary of the gulf and partly river, separates them from the ancorage of the American war vessels, where the Wistonsin and Bosotn are now lying.
