The Mist has been informed that J. D. McKay, of Scappoose, went to Salem the first of the year to accept an important official position at the Oregon State penitentiary. He is well fitted for such a position, and The Mist congratulates.

E. W. Bingham, a well know attorney of Portland, died at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland last Friday of typhoid pneumonia. Mr. Bingham was well known in Columbia county, and was prominently connected with railroad construction, when the Northern Pacific was built through this section.

Several new buildings are in process of construction in St. Helens. George Brinn has commenced the construction of a neat cottage on the two lots he recently purchased on the brow of the hill below the water tank. Extensive improvements have been made on the Roberson and Lope property on the opposite side of the street.

Jesse Hendricks, Fred White and another party from Yankton, went up to the Schieve place this week to investigate the ghostly manifestations that have been taking place there. They discovered that a broken tree had fallen against another one, causing an unearthly screeching noise when the wind was stirring. A steel rake, also was found hanging against a wall which made a peculiar noise when moved by the passing breezes. In another place was a small tin can placed loosely on top of another one, and they surmise that this may have had something to do with the noise.

St. Helens harbor is full of ocean craft and river barges, and that part of the water front in the vicinity of Muckle's dock is a scene of activity. The schooner W. R Bartlett is now taking on car sills from the Lone Star mill, and another vessel is taking on ties. The A. F. Coats arrived back Monday, after taking a cargo of ties to San Francisco, and is reloading for another trip. The ties come from Lewis river, and are shipped by the Columbia Tie Company.

County Clerk Henderson visited at Mayger over Sunday, and attended the Maccabees Tent, of which he is the record keeper.

Erwin Seffert was up from Deer Island, and attended the installation of the K. of P. Lodge officers Tuesday night.

Misses Daisy Watkins and Miss Lulu George have delayed returning to the State Normal school at Monmouth, on account of the illness of the latter.

Ralph Feeney, past grand master of the Grand Lodge of the United Workmen of Oregon, was in St. Helens during the week, in the interest of the order.

Ed Black, a well known resident of Goble, was in town Tuesday. He reports that there were lively times in a social way in that locality during the holidays.

J. B. N. Gragg, of Deer Island, was in town Monday. He is putting up a new building at Deer Island, which will be occupied jointly as a barber and a shoe repairing shop.

John Walczak and Joe Sobiska, of Valley, were in from St. Helens Monday. They report that there had been a slight fall of snow in that section, but that it did not lay on.

J. B. E. Bourne, of Rainier, district deputy for the Knights of Pythis, was in town Tuesday, and installed the new officers of Avon Lodge. He installed the new officers of Seaside Lodge on the previous night.

WARREN

Margueritte Sutherland was badly burned about her limbs and body while playing near a small bonfire a few days since. Prompt action on the part of Drucie Grewell probably saved the childs' life.

A petition has lately been circulated and numerously signed asking Captain Good, of the steamer America, to have Robert Lovett re-instated as ferryman across the bay.

There was a large attendance at the Grange meeting Wednesday eve, ten candidates taking the first and second degrees. The new organ has been received and added very materially to the evening's enjoyment.

Mrs Dizney and daughter Grace, took the train for Seattle, Saturday for an indefinite absence.

Schools opened Monday with a good attendance after two weeks vacation.

The debt and mortgage on the M. E. parsonage has been cleared by public subscription, Rev. G. M. Thorp doing the soliciting for the money.

W. E. Stevens horse ran away while on his way heme from St. Helens Thursday, throwing Mr. Stevens out near Mr. J. Copeland's. The cart was demolished near the postoffiice getting mixed up with a cow and the fence. At that place the horse cleared himself of all entanglements and left towards home at a high rate of speed. Mr. Stevens was not hurt much only his feelings when he realized he would have to walk the rest of the way home.

Knights of Pythias Entertain.

Avon Lodge, Knights of Pythias, did themselves great credit at the installation ceremonies, program, six-course banquet and dance, District Deputy J. B. E. Bourne installed the officers-elect, while Dr. Cliff officiated as grand master-at-arms. The affair took place Tuesday night, and fully 80 persons were served at the banquet. The musical program consisted of a well rendered vocal solo by Mrs. J. G. Watts, selections by a quartet consisting of Dr. Ross, J. E. Day, W. H. Powell and H. J. Waters, Mrs. Waters being the accompanist. There were responses to an encore after each number. W. B. Dillard made an excellent short speech.

Dr. Cliff, E. E. Quick, Martin White Dr. Ross, C. W. Blakesley assisted by a few others, are a success when it comes to preparing and serving a banquet.

W. A. Harris, C. N. Gable and others were busy preparing for the festivities at the Masonic hall, where an enjoyable dance began after the banquet and lasted until 3 o'clock in the morning. The music was furnished by L. F. and Charles Barger.

The Pythian installation and entertainment was the most enjoyable affair that has taken place in St. Helens for many days.

WEDDINGS.

It is reported that Will Miles and Mrs. Watts, both formely of St. Helens, were married in Portland last Sunday, where they will make their home.

Katherina Hendrickson Putto and John Peter Carlson, of Quincy, were married in Astoria, Saturday, January 2nd. Rev. John Lounjarvi, of Quincy, officiated.

Maria Charlotte Nienni and Jacob Timonen were married at the home of the groom at Quincy, Sunday; January 3rd. Rev. Lounjarvi officiated.

Congratulations.

Mr. John H. Cullom, Editor of the Garland, Texas News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufacturers of the Chamberlain's Cough remedy as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of the remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the succes of your remedy." For sale by St. Helens Pharmacy.

Ross Surprise Party

Mrs. Elwin Ross planned a delightful surprise party on New Years' Eve in honor of Dr. Ross' birthday. A delightful evening was passed which ended a couple of hours into the new year.

Games, merriment and refreshments were enjoyable features of the affair.

An innovation was the manner of serving refreshments. The ladies dined, while the gentlemen served, and vice versa.

Among those present were: Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Cliff, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. John, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Deming; Misses Elbertson, Amy George, Charles Muckle, Washington Muckle.

Ingersoll Stanwood Dead.

Ingersoll Stanwood, a pioneer of the 60s, died at the home of his son, E. C. Stanwood, at Yankton, last Saturday night. The funeral took place at Vancouver, Wash., Monday. Mrs. Stanwood, wife of the deceased, died in 1883 Among the children that she left were J. S., William and George A. Brinn. Mr. Stanwood was 74 years old at the time of his demise, and had suffered a long illness. He left another son at Yankton, Roswell Stanwood. Mr. Stanwood was held in high esteem by a wide circle of friends. He was a native of Maine.

G. D. Gilson has ordered a part of the lumber from Brinn & Stanwood's mill for his new hotel at Houlton. Work will begin on the structure next week. Mr. Gilson purchased two lots from Mr. Lamberson, opposite Perry & Graham's store, and the building will be 34x48 and 2½ stories high.

A Prisoner in Her Own House.

Mrs. W. H. Layha, of 1001 Agnes Ave., Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeabl results. A friend gave me part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured." This remedy is for sale by St. Helens Pharmacy.

Found a Cure for Indigestion;

I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different remedies. I am nearly fifty-one years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to now.—Geo. W. Emory, Rock Mills, Ala. For sale by St. Helens Pharmacy.

VERNONIA

Arrived too late for last week.

Beautiful winter weather.

Farmers busy doing their winter plowing.

The Christmas entertainment was a success in every particular.

D. W. Keasey fell from his small step ladder, Friday, lighting on his show case mashing it completely, and cutting a severe gash on the lower part of his arm.

Willard Denslow and Ben Lewis, of Portland, were visiting relatives friends the fore part of this week.

Mrs. Nellie Ryner is visiting relatives in these parts this week.

The Christmas dance at this place was fairly well attended, everybody getting all the dance they wanted.

Uncle Joe Coulter had no trouble disposing of his beef last Thursday as the cow was in fine condition.

The question in almost every taxpayer's mouth is "who is going to be appointed road supervisor for the next year?"
