HIGHER VALUATION THE BETTER PLAN.

A higher valuation of several classes of property in Columbia county, would mean a lower tax levy, and it is confidently believed that the burdens of taxations would be distributed more equally. One thing is absolutely certain, the levy is made in proportion to the amount of money to be raised for the actual expenses of the county, based on the expenditures of the preceding year. If property were assessed at its full cash value, the proportion of tax paid by the actual tax payer could not be any higher than it is now, and it is evident that it would be much less, for the revenue from the non-resident speculator would be much larger than it is now.

Assessor Laws is to be commended for the plan that he will adopt during the coming year. There will be a raise in the valuation of several classes of property. The Speculator, who is holding valuable tracts of timber land, will have to pay on a higher assessment valuation. A few other classes of property, also will be made to pay its just share of taxation by increased valuation. While unimproved lands, that do contain timber, will not be increased in value. Valuable improved lands that bring high prices will be valued according to its just proportion.

ABOUT ROAD SUPERVISORS.

The Mist is in receipt of a communication from a subscriber seeking information in regard to the appointment of road supervisors by the County Court at this time. He is under the impression supervisors were elected at the last election to serve until the next election.

In answer we will state the last regular session of the Legislature, held in 1903, passed two bills relating to road supervisors. One of them, the first one passed, provided for their election by the people, and the other one, passed just a day or two before adjournment, and provided for their appointment by the County Court. The latter is a general road bill and the appointment clause embraced only one section in a large bill.

The County Court is going by the latter as it was the last one passed and they hold it is the one in force for that reason.

As We See It.

EDITOR MIST:

I saw in the MIST of December 25 a reply to Mrs. Oliver by H. A. A. Putt. I did not see Mrs. Oliver's letter and do not know what she had to offer in exchange for the saloon.

Mr. Putt tells us a story of some fellow that made a mistake in his calling as a preacher, and finally found out it was meant he should hoe potatoes instead of preaching. We think any well-informed school boy knows that it would be better for the country and the people if nine out of ten of the preachers of today were hoeing potatoes, or doing some useful labor that would be of some benefit to mankind. Christ says and as ye go, preach, saying the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Heal the sick: cleanse the lepers; raise the dead; cast out devils; freely ye have received, freely give—Matt. 10:7-8. Be perfect—Matt. 19:12. He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also—John 14:12. Other sheep I have, which are not of this fold—John 10:16. Blindness in part has happened to Israel—Rom. I am come that persons might have life, and that more abundantly—John 10:10. And Jesus said to another, follow me —Luke 9:59-60.

We go to church Sunday morning and evening and what do we hear? A little about Gideon's army and denominationalism; Jacob's well and sectarianism; striped willows in the watering troughs, but very little said about Christ; what good things Morgan and Rockerfellow have done for the church and charitable societies, but not a word about the rise in oil, or the price of coal; expansion and the open door, not a word about the tenement houses and the slums in our cities and the real causes of them. What a glorious country we have! The most prosperous in the world! But nothing about the sweat shops that are filled up with women and children struggling for an existence that never know or hear anything of God or His goodness.

Then at the end of each service (from one to three a day) we are told to be submissive and obey our bosses! and be liberal when the hat comes around, which quite often is the case.

Is it any wonder people go fishing and hunting on Sunday, or sign a petition for a gin mill?

People who are looking after something that will better their condition are very tired of what they are fed on these days.

Mr. Putt may say what has this to do with the liquor question? I say it has all to do with it. If the people were taught as they should be, to take the traffic out of all kinds of liquor, instead of howling temperance and prohibition, and at the same time voting to sustain the system that has made us just what we are today, misled, misguided, misrepresented, and many do not know what today. First of all we blame the preacher, because; first, he claims God called him to preach, and if God calls a man to preach he will fill his soul full of the Holy Ghost, and his mouth with words to speak, and those words will count; and if he is this kind of a man the people will hear him and follow at least the majority.

Second, if he is not this kind of a man and does the things the New Testament says he shall do; we claim he is not called by God, and is responsible for misleading the people, and should hoe potatoes or plow corn and not try to preach Christ.

As to the poor paying the saloon license, we claim the poor or the class of people commonly called the poor, pay very nearly all the bills that arise by traffic or revenue and protective tariff, either directly or indirectly.

As to temperance and prohibition: This has been tried for years and we all know it is worse than a failure. As Mr. Putt has said, the prohibition states are the most evil of the trio; as prohibition makes people both lie and steal, thereby making a bad matter worse.

And in regard to breweries: They are here to stay and the only way we can overcome them is to let the general government make all kinds of liquors and any person having any impure liquor in their possession shall be fined or imprisoned; the government to sell it at cost, and any one found selling it for any more than the government price to be fined or imprisoned. When you take the traffic out of liquor you just as sure take the saloon with it.

Now, remember I do not pretend to be a graduate from half a dozen universities, or my head full of gramar and my coat pocket full of diplomas.

As for Carrie and her little hatchet, that is not worth minding.

Yours for government ownership,
R. SESSEMAN.

Mr. Putt Replies to Experience.

In Experiences' little talk in the Mist of January 1st, 1904, coming to the defence of the business men of St. Helens and the county officers, lawyers and doctors, and I complemented in a former article as being very generous fellows which I have nothing to retract. But his effort reminds me of an aged gentleman while testifying into a revival meeting. He stated that he had been a christian for some fifty years and it had never cost him a nickle. When the old gentleman sat down, the Rev. told him he ought to be ashamed of himself and said "may the Lord have mercy on your stingy soul."

So I will say of the business men that are known occasionally to patronize the saloons of St. Helens or elsewhere do make it a point to sit around the saloons waiting for free drinks as Experience claims he does, I will say they ought to be ashamed of themselves and may the Lord have mercy on their stingy souls. I have reasons to have a better opinion of the business men of this county than that. If they or Experience, falsely so called, should wait for A. A. Putt to put up or pay for their drinks they will go with parched throats for a long while. A. A. Putt did suppose until being enformed to the contrary by Experience that they were business among loggers and fishermen, but there is where I have been in ignorance lo, these many years. I have never been in the logging business and don't know any thing about it and my fishing capacities are somewhat limited. Never-the-less I am glad to hear that loggers and fishermen are such good generous fellows as Experience represents them to be. They certainly must have a Herculean task on their hands, if Experiences' conclusions are correct for they seem to be the only ones the way he reasons it, that contributes to the support of the saloons.

A. A. PUTT.

To those who have helped me to maintain a prosperous business in the past, I feel truly grateful, and ask a continuance of your favors. To all others I wish you well and would be glad to enroll you among my customers. M. C. Gray, general merchandise, St. Helens, Oregon.

A Very Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sick, run down people always gain new strength and vigor from their use. Satisfaction guaranteed by St. Helens Pharmacy. Price 50 cents.

I have just finished the closing work for 1903, which shows a very flattering increase of business over the previous year, for which I take pleasure in extending hearty thanks to my patrons, and sincerely hope that this New Year will reveal to them happiness and prosperity. HOULTON

G. A. Fuller, A. N. Coy and Charles Urie visited Portland last Sunday morning.

The Kelley boys and Jesse Hendricks were both granted a saloon license in the last term of court.

G. D. Gilson's family expect to move down from Portland at once as Dan is going to commence operations on his new building.

Mrs M. I. Henshaw visited Portland last Thursday eveining.

N. A. Perry made a flying trip to Portland last week.

Mr. Rogers, organizer of the W. O. W. delivered an address here last Saturday eve.

We understand that Mr. Slaughter is going to build a new flume so as to flume stave bolts down to the mill.

RAINIER

Born, last Saturday, to Mrs. Ira Parcher, a son.

Rainier has had two fires this week, Both were small unoccupied houses. No great loss was sustained.

No deaths this week. The town is too healthy.

We've had a small amount of rain. About enough to float a battleship.

Yeon's camp will open again in a few days. They have just purchased a new Climax logging engine.

McKinnon's camp will open about the first of February.

There's another slide at Bugbys, consequently the Portland bound trains are several hours late.

There is a rumor of an electric plant being installed here.

The store part of Dr. McLaren's new building is rapidly nearing completion. He expects to be enabled to move in by the first of next month.

Vernonia

S. G. Schoonover, of Clark county, Wash., formerly of this place attended the meeting of the P. of H. Saturday.

Miss Steel, of Valley, began the winter term of school at this place January 4th, with a good attendance of scholars.

District Deputy Armstrong installed the newly elected officers of the P. of H. Saturday, assisted by the treasurer, F. J. Peterson of Natal Grange.

O. A. Powell, of Pittsburg, was the guest of the Vernonia grange Saturday.

Charles Mellinger attended commissioners court this week, at St. Helens.

Postmaster Keasey made the trip over the mountains to Houlton this week instead of "butter king" J. E. Dow.

The citizens of road district No. 15, met Saturday for the purpose of levying a special road tax but the majority would rather travel over hills and through the mud knee deep rather than pay out a few dollars and make the capitalist and non resident help build a good permanent road. The vote stood 12 for a tax and 28 for no tax. District 14 met Monday but we are unable to say what the results are.

Since the last items were sent in the sad news has been received from Echo, Umatilla county, of the death of the wife of H. A. Wilson, who is well known here and whose parents reside here. Have not learned the cause of her death.

John Baker has taken a contract of cutting 200 cords of shingle bolts for Hiatt, of the burn, for which he received $1.25 per cord.

Word has been received by Mrs. Esther Coulter of the death of the death of William Cressy, at the cottage farm near Salem on the 6th inst. Mr. Cressy was formerly a resident of this place but was committed to the asylum for insane some months ago.

Uncle Joe Coulter had quite a display of pelts tanned with the hair and wool and some very finely dressed buckskins at E. R. Throop's store Saturday. Any one wanting work done in the tanning line will do well to call on uncle Joe.

We can not see for the life of us how it is that our letters to the Mist come in too late to be printed when they should. We always have them on the road for St. Helens on Tuesday. We suspect some one too-muchee-foolee with the Mist news letters, see?

Wonderful Nerve.

Is displayed by many a man enduring pains of accidental Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Sore feet or stiff joints. But there's no need for it. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best Salve on earth for Piles, too. 25c, at the St. Helens Pharmacy.

Proverbs

"When the butter won't come put a penny in the churn," is an old time dairy proverb. It often seems to work though no one has ever told why.

When mothers are worried because the children do not gain strength and flesh we say give them Scott's Emulsion.

It is like the penny in the milk because it works and because there is something astonishing about it.

Scott's Emulsion is simply a milk of pure cod liver oil with some hypophosphites especially prepared for delicate stomachs.

Children take to it naturally because they like the taste and the remedy takes just as naturally to the children because it is so perfectly adapted to their wants.

For all weak and pale thin children Scott's Emulsion is the most satisfactory treatment.

We will send you the penny, i. e., a sample free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

FEMALE WEAKNESS

543 1-2 Congress St.
PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pains would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Wilhelmina Snow
Treasurer, Portland Economic League

Periodical headaches tell of female weakness. Wine of Cardui cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, that is the best reason in the world you should try Wine of Cardui now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui today.

Keasey.

Mrs. Laura Witmyre, sister of Mrs. W. B. Derebery, who with her three daughters came in before Christmas have returned to their home at Camas, Wash. They are not very favorably impressed with Nehalem, especially the roads. Miss Mae Derebery accompanied them on their homeward journey, returning to her studies in the graded schools at Camas.

Clarence Reed, who spent Christmas and New Years at home has gone again to Forest Grove, this time to enter the preparatory department in the college. There is nothing more beneficial to the mental development of young people than an everyday climb up the Hill of Science.

John F. Cheldelin has returned from a several weeks stay in Portland, the possessor of four horses, a new wagon and harness. John has been a reader of the Practical Farmer and Pacific Homestead, and intends to try his hand at farming for a season.

Mr. Douglass Magill received a kick from one of their horses, which resulted in one broken bone in the forearm. Mrs. McPherson also has a disabled knee.

We learn that G. H. Sitts has at last been appointed postmaster to succeed E. W. Keasey, who resigned October 1st. The wheels of government move slowly.

E. B. Sanders is again established on his homestead for the winter, nothing to cheer the loneliness of a bachelors dwelling, not even a cat or dog.

Deer Island

Deer Island Grange No. 334, will install officers Saturday evening January 16th.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis and son of Portland visited with Mrs. C. L. Smith over Sunday.

Mrs. C. H. English, Misses Bessie Malcolm and Minnie Thompson attended installation of Goble Grane last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Osman returned from their wedding trip last week and have taken up their residence at Palmer's camp.

Mrs. Kate Bradley, of Sellwood Oregon, visited with her sister, Mrs. English, several days last week.

Charles English was a Kalama, Wash. visitor last Monday.

Uncle Sam Holaday has been quite sick for the past two weeks but, is on the road to recovery at this writing.

E. J. Parnes, who has been rusticating in California the last month, returned New Years day, and reports having a very pleasant trip.

Mrs. J. G. Pringle was a Portland visitor the last week.

Another Pioneer Gone.

Mrs. Eliza Jane Elliott, wife of W. W. Elliott of Marshland, died at her home January 6, 1904, and was burried in the Maplewood cemetery in Clatskanie, on Saturday, January 9th. The funeral services were held at the residence of T. J. Flippin, of Clatskanie; Rev. Levi Johnson, of Portland, officiating.

Mrs. Elliott was a pioneer of Oregon, having come across the plains with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. S. Bryant, in 1862. They settled upon and took up a donation land claim in Washington county in 1865. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott took up a homestead at Marshland, where they have resided continuously up to the present time. She leaves her husband and nine children, besides a host of friends to mourn her loss.
