M. C. Gray, general merchandise, St. Helens, Oregon.

No goods are being received every day at Bailey & Brinn's at Houston. Call and examine some of their specialties—boys' suits and youths' suits, hats, caps, also a good line of ladies' mens' boys' youths' misses and children's shoes; hosiery; and a fine line of rubber goods, umbrellas, Overcoats, Men and women's underwear, leggings for men, women and children, gloves, decorated woolen jackets, and many articles too numerous to mention.

The dozen or 15 Japs, who are employed at the Lane Saw mill, work collectively about $150 of their hard-earned money last Monday, because one of their fellows unlike the cat, never came back. The Japs owed bills to the various stores and butcher shop amounting to $180. All but one went back to work after receiving the monthly salary, and that one worked the others. He was given the money to pay the bills, but diligent search has failed to reveal his hiding place.
