TO THE COUNTY COMMITTEES.

Why not hold the forthcoming primaries under the direct nomination system? The plan was tried in the Salem municipal election and it worked well...

Of course this is not a perfect system, but it is much better than anything we have had in the past. It has worked well where tried, and there is no reason why it will not work well here.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE AGAIN.

Mr. David Ogden, state correspondent of the Christian Scientists, sends us a long communication regarding an editorial in last week's Mist. The pith is as follows:

As reply to the question, "What is the matter with man—intelligent in man—when they believe that prayer can take the place of medical treatment in the case of bodily ailments?"

COLUMBIA CITY

Our correspondent starts with a very flattering greeting to the editor, for which we are truly thankful, but will object. The statement that the county is on the eve of a great development...

HOULTON SCHOOL REPORT.

The fifth month ending Feb. 12th with the following report: No. days taught 20 No. days attendance 701 1/2

The fact that hay is worth $20 per ton on the Columbia River would seem to indicate that there is not enough hay being grown in Oregon. About the only remedy is the logging camp, followed by the stump puller.

"Congress" are said to be quite numerous in the Escapoose hills nowadays, and the fresh snow makes them easy prey for the hunter.

The Great Success of the Brownsville Woolen Mills

Is largely due to the honest treatment given their customers and also to the superior quality of pure wool goods manufactured from the best Oregon wool, and sold at less price than other stores ask for shoddy and cotton mixed goods.

We want the trade of people tributary to Portland, and will guarantee a saving of at least $5.00 on a good suit of clothes.

"Get in the habit of trading here"

Portland : Oregon

It will be our endeavor to improve, week by week, until the Mist becomes one of the best known and most extensively read country papers in Oregon.

Any man who understands market gardening can make a fortune in Columbia County. Cheap land, low rates of transportation, and high prices for garden truck can titrate a winning combination.

The delinquent tax list for Tillamook County occupies nine columns of the local paper, The Headlight. Not a very good showing in this year of rural prosperity.

This is not the official paper of Columbia County, but it will publish the news of the county—official and unofficial.

If a bad beginning makes a good ending, the Russians will certainly win in the long run.

Our correspondent starts with a very flattering greeting to the editor, for which we are truly thankful, but will object. The statement that the county is on the eve of a great development...

The railroad company is filling in the canyon at Columbia station. The work will be completed about the 24th of April.

Miss Mamie McLay has gone to Monmouth to attend school to fit herself for the profession of a teacher.

Miss Millie Caples has returned home from Portland, where she had been visiting her sisters, Mrs. Thorne and Mrs. Wilton.

The logging railroad is unable to work on account of snow in the mountains, which is six inches deep. It will start Monday next unless more snow should fall.

The fifth month ending Feb. 12th with the following report: No. days taught 20 No. days attendance 701 1/2

Those neither absent nor tardy were: Elmer Matthews, Ida Popejoy, Harry Popejoy, Earl Perry, Bettie Smith, Jennie Spence, Ed. Thompson, Manley Copeland, Clyde Perry, Eva Wilkinson, Frank Graham, Violet Pine.

Those neither absent nor tardy were: Allen Spence, Emmet Smith, Esther Copeland, Harry Dunn, Wilma Davis, Edna Popejoy, Nellie Dunn, Beth Perry, Roy Perry, Helen Smith, Dale Perry.

Mrs. Magorany Bernhart, Teacher.

SENATOR HANNA'S DEATH.

Labor's Foremost Friend Succumbs to the Inevitable.

Hon. M. A. Hanna, senator from Ohio, died at the family apartments in the Arlington Hotel, Wash., D. C., at 6:40 p. m., Monday, February 16th, 1904.

Marcus Hanna was strictly of Ohio. He was born in the village of New Lisbon, September 24, 1837, where his childhood was spent. When he was 15 years old his father moved to Cleveland and went into the wholesale grocery and provision business.

The new firm of M. A. Hanna & Co. grew rapidly, and a great deal of transportation on the Lakes became necessary. Mr. Hanna became interested in several vessels, and in a short time was the owner of one, which he named for his father, Leonard Hanna.

Mr. Hanna has always successfully coped with the labor problems. He knew the value of a day's work and got it; he also paid for it. When the first labor union was formed he studied it most carefully and then organized an employers' union. He inherited ability and received an education in business.

The story of his life is the dramatization of energy, the romance of industrial achievement. Thousands of other successful Americans have been raised and lived as he did, but they did not attain the same results.

"Now, ladies, let that be a lesson to you. If you ever have occasion to visit in the South, look over the family tree before you start, and if you have any dead and gone ancestors who ever lived below the Mason and Dixon line, be very and resource him for the occasion. And don't forget to introduce him before the atmosphere gets chilly."

been termed a self-made man, for the path he carved out for himself were not the ones followed by his father before him—he made the way for himself.

Mr. Hanna was always more or less interested in politics and often used to state that he never missed the primaries or failed to vote.

Mr. Hanna was always more or less interested in politics and often used to state that he never missed the primaries or failed to vote. He went into National politics mainly through his interest in and personal friendship for three Ohioans—Sherman, Garfield and McKinley.

He was of a most charming personality, and could win the most skeptical of his enemies and opponents in given audience or acquaintance with him. The hideous cartoons which Democraic papers used to print were probably more unjust than any which ever appeared in American papers.

For a hundred years past the Hannas have been Quakers, but despite this fact, M. A. Hanna was jovial and loved a joke as well as any one. His grandparents were Virginians, which fact when once known among the people of that state made him greatly beloved by them.

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You are hereby notified and required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before March 15th, 1904.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION: Department of the Interior, Land Office at Oregon City, Oregon. Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his claim for land under the provisions of the act of Congress, approved February 22, 1889, entitled "An Act to provide for the location of the public lands in Oregon."

REUBEN.

School began in Dist. No. 20 Monday morning with Roy Blingham as teacher. Attendance 34.

O. E. Hunter and H. M. Fowler of Goble were attending to business in Portland Friday.

Miss Kitty Lindsay and Miss Minnie Burgess were shopping in Portland Saturday.

A Roosevelt League was organized at Goble, Oregon, Feb. 13, 1904, with an initial membership of 44. The officers chosen are as follows: Jas. H. Caffery, Pres.; Jas. K. Neely, Sec.; Vice Presidents, W. Hunter, M. J. Butler, M. Hansen, Jay T. Archibald, M. Lusk, A. S. Foster Jr., W. J. Vandusen, W. E. Miller and Delos Hunter.

The G. N. & T. R. R. had a slide on their track last Thursday night near J. M. Archibald's place. They have a large force of men at work clearing the track and expect to get through by Wednesday noon.

The Columbia Timber Co. has a large contract of piling to get out before they will begin logging. An account of so much rain and the slide on their road it has delayed them.

CLATSkanie CORRESPONDENCE

Many persons from the upper part of the county are in the city this week. Some say that they come here for the purpose of investing in city property, and others say that they come here to fix up their fences, prior to the meeting of the primaries.

Mr. Harry West, the veteran stock-raiser of Seppoose, was in the city Monday looking at the city, its improvements, etc.

Mr. Tom Laws, the efficient county assessor of St. Helens, was in the city Saturday and Sunday visiting friends and taking in the sights of the city.

Mr. G. W. Barries came over from Quincy last Monday on a business trip.

Candidates for office are looting up on all sides. If every fellow in this part of the county who would like to get an office at this coming election gets one, it would require another special session of the legislature to create an office for him.

We would advise all persons who live in other parts of this county, not to come to this place if they want to be candidates for office at the coming election. There are more candidates here now than offices to fill, unless you would like to be a city official in the city.

The heavy rains the past several days have raised the creek, and logs are being run down by the thousands, and loggers are happy.

Mr. E. B. Wilcox and son Edgar, of the upper Clatskanie, were in the city Tuesday trading with our merchants.

We noticed the genial countenance of our old friend Geo. Langenfelder upon the streets of this city Tuesday.

Oliver Wilson of the arholon was in the city Tuesday, buying supplies from our merchants, and taking in the sights of the city.

Jim Hill, the old reliable, not the railroad James Hill, but James Hill, the prosperous farmer from Mist, was doing business in the city Monday.

The entertainment given by the Clatskanie Grange at Conyers' hall last Friday night, was a grand affair. The hall was filled to overflowing, and all seemed to have a jolly good time, and acted as if it were the proper thing to be a granger. The music by Fichens' orchestra was fine. In the second hour all went home feeling that it was good for them to be there.

Krazz is having a new front put in his store. When completed it will add to the good looks of that part of the city.

We learn that a gentleman named McKinness has bought a lot on Bridge St., and intends to build and open a restaurant when spring opens.

INDIGESTION

"I was troubled with stomach troubles, Theford's Black Draught did me more good in one week than all the doctors a medicine I took in a year."—MRS. SARAH E. SHIPLEY, Ellensburg, Ind.

Theford's Black Draught quickly invigorates the action of the stomach and cures even chronic cases of indigestion. If you will take a small dose of Theford's Black Draught occasionally you will keep your stomach and liver in perfect condition.

More sickness is caused by constipation than by any other disease. Theford's Black Draught not only relieves constipation but cures diarrhea and dysentery and keeps the bowels regular.

All druggists sell 25-cent packages. "Theford's Black Draught is the best medicine to regulate the bowels. I have ever used."—MRS. A. M. GRANT, Samata Ferry, N. C.
