RE-ELECT WILLIAMSON.

The defeat of the Simon faction in the Portland primaries should mean the defeat of Hon. Malcolm Moody's aspirations for congressional honors this year, as Mr. Simon's success would have meant Mr. Moody's nomination and election. It is an old adage that a house divided against itself can not stand. It is equally true that a divided delegation can not do as good work for Oregon as one that is harmonious. Mr. Moody is a Simonite, and he should be content to go down to defeat with his chieftain. If Mr. Moody is nominated he will use the influence of his office to build up the Simon machine in this congressional district, for the purpose of encompassing the defeat of Senators Mitchell and Fulton. This is nothing more than natural, but it is well that it should be plainly understood in this county that a vote for Mr. Moody's nomination is a vote against the re-election of Senators Mitchell and Fulton.

In addition to this, Mr. Williamson is entitled to re-election on his own merits. He is a man of the people—straightforward, honest and unassuming. A letter written to him is answered by him personally, and the writer is not referred to some local boss through whom he must approach the throne. We hope to see the delegation from this county to the congressional convention instructed for Mr. Williamson.

NAME THE RINGSTERS.

Who are the corrupt persons in St. Helens who compose the alleged ring? If the Gazette has the courage of its convictions it will name the ringsters. It has made the charge that there is a ring here, composed of Republicans with itching palms, who desire to control the politics of the county. Are any of the following-named gentleman members of this corrupt ring:

MARTIN WHITE
E. E. QUICK
W. A. HARRIS
A. T. LAWS
RICHARD COX
W. H. POWELL
H. R. CLIFF
EDWIN ROSS
E. M. THOMP
C. N. GABLE
CHAS. BLAKESLEY
J. B. GODFREY
JOSEPH HAYBURN
C. H. JOHNS
A. KING
J. K. BLAKESLEY
JAMES SHELDON
W. W. BLAKESLEY
J. H. MCKIE
M. C. GRAY?

Or is the ring non-partisan, and does it include such distinguished democrats as

R. S. HATTAN
W. A. WOODS
H. HENDERSON
S. A. MILES
W. B. DILLARD
JAMES DART
W. F. SLAUGHTER
H. P. WATKINS
J. H. DECKER?

It would be hard to form a ring in St. Helens without some of these gentlemen being in it, and if the Gazette knows what it is talking about it should be able to name the ringsters.

Don't libel a community.

Point out the rascals and hold them up to public contempt.

THE DIRECT PRIMARY LAW.

Mr. Frank C. Baker, chairman of the Republican State Committee, has announced his determined opposition to the law providing for direct primary nominations, but as Senator Mitchell, Congressman Williamson and the Oregonian heartily favor the adoption of the measure, it is possible it may struggle along without Mr. Baker's support. The fact that Mr. U'ren, of Clackamas county, is one of the prime movers for the law, will not prejudice any sensible person against it. Mr. U'ren is an honest and earnest man, and his advocacy of any measure would certainly not bar it from a respectful hearing. Mr. Baker's objection to the proposed law seems to be that it is a populist measure, and he proudly asserts that the Republican party does not need any advice from Populists.

Well, the initiative and referendum constitutional amendment was somewhat of a Populist measure, and it passed a Republican Legislature without a dissenting vote. In fact, there was a time when the Republican and Populist parties very closely resembled each other, and measures thereafter adopted by the Populists were part of the Republican platform. It don't do to be too proud in these matters. The Labor party compelled the Republicans to restrict Chinese immigration, the Populist party gave it the referendum, and Grover Cleveland pointed it to the straight and narrow path on the money question, after it had been wallowing about in the mire of the Sherman bullion purchase bill. It is the pride and strength of the Republican party that it adapts itself to the wants and demands of the people. Examine all things. Hold fast that which is good.

We are pleased to note that the editor of the Gazette has announced that he "may support some of the Republican candidates for county offices at the coming election." Also that he spells ring with a big "R." Both facts are equally important.

A WORD OF WARNING.

Multnomah, Columbia, and Washington counties form a joint senatorial district. Columbia County has no Senator, therefore the only representation it can have in the State Senate is such as may be accorded by the grace of Multnomah and Washington. The nomination was given to Washington County last campaign, and it should come to Columbia County this year. It is our right, and we intend to demand it. So far as Washington County is concerned we have no doubt it will be cheerfully accorded; but the powers that be in Multnomah County seem inclined to play the hog and take the joint senatorship for themselves. This is not good politics, nor will it be relished here. Columbia County has for many years aided the Mitchell wing of the Republican party, and it is now entitled to better recognition than it has had for some years past.

The chief of the Pharisees has taken up his temporary abode in Portland, and is engaged in an attempt to cause the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition to be closed Sundays. He is entitled to a handsome salary from the saloon-keepers. He may wear the livery of Christ, but he is serving the devil. Such extremists damage the cause they are supposed to aid. They are the "fool friends" of religion.

IS THERE ANY EXCUSE FOR IGNORANCE?

Not ignorance of the sciences, not ignorance of the great mathematical laws that govern our universe, not ignorance of the anatomy of the human body, for it is written that "Man is fearfully and wonderfully made," but ignorance of the common things that meet us every day of our lives—it is not essential that ordinary people who make no aspirations after vaunted greatness should be endowed with a "fine command of language," but when we hear the young ones fresh from the school room using such expressions as "I knowed," "has be came," "I have saw," "I heered," "it got busted," and many kindred expressions, I have wondered who is to blame. Has not the teacher with sufficient watchfulness and persistence sought to correct these things? Is it too much at home, and has it been so thoroughly into the child's very nature that it cannot be eradicated?

We are aware that there are very many persons who did not in their earlier days have the advantages of school, or perhaps did not avail themselves of what they had—not the school room be not the only avenue through which to gather knowledge. Hundreds of our brightest and most intelligent men and women were not privileged with school advantages. The eye, the ear and the quick perceptibilities of the mind, or in other words, the gift of observation and the desire to be more than "a candle for the censor's taker" will bring to the person that which has been lacking for want of educational advantages, and remove from the children the impression of an uncultured home. A correct use of the few words most people use of the English language goes a long way—then the proper spelling of what we would write. Spelling books cost but little, and a pocket dictionary is not burdensome. Don't write both i and a capital U, but better that than vice versa.

Poor penmanship is winked at, but bad spelling is laughed at. Young man, young woman, do not adorn the pages of your letters with a flourish of capitals for every three or four words, and if you have expressed your heart's love in a valentine, I trust you have no written thus,

"If yu luv mee As i luv Yu, Know nife shal Cut our Luv in To,"

or if you should have occasion to send a note to a neighbor wishing them to lend to you, please do not say, "can I borrer 2 jints of Stove Pipe and My Woman wants to no ef you Can lend her Your biler she has to Do her washin to Day."
