OREGON MIST

Issued at the Founder's of St. Helens, Oregon, as second-class mail matter.

Issued Every Saturday by
E. E. QUICK,
Editor and Proprietor.

One year, cash in advance $2 00
Six months 1 00
Legal notices $1 each per line.

FRIDAY, APRIL 1.

THE CREEDS AGAIN.

As it now comes the Portland Telegram, during the Republican state and the call of democratic delegates to the Congressional Convention. It is about the dignity of those delegates will suffer if they are requested to abide by the wishes of the convention that elects them. It is the opinion of the Journal that those representatives should represent themselves and stand ready to make trades or deals as may best suit their individual interests. Upon this question the news that comes from Shoshone, and appears to be willing to submit to attempts at personal rights in such action. It all goes to illustrate the existence and fruits of machine rule, which is to be commended. It is not only failed for the purpose of representing the people in the Democratic party, but it is a failure in the Republican party as well. It is the machine at the state. In Oregon it is the machine that has made Grover Cleveland and Joseph Simon United States senators. It is the machine that has made Binger Hermann commissioner of the general land office. It is the machine that has made Dolph and Mitchell senators. It is the machine that has made Lord governor. It is the machine that has made Pennoyer governor. It is the machine that has made Corbett a millionaire. It is the machine that has made Mitchell, Dolph, Simon, Hermann, Lord, Pennoyer and Corbett defy the people