A COMPLETE SHOWING.

The statement made this week, over the signature of Edwin Ross, is entitled to full consideration by every voter in Columbia County. There is but one charge made against the Republican administration of county affairs, and that is the charge of extravagance. If this is not proven there can be no good reason given why any Republican should vote anything else than a straight Republican ticket, from Congressman to Coroner. Mr. Ross gives a very complete statement in tabulated form, of the amount of taxes levied in every fund from and including the year 1897. It shows conclusively that taxes for county purposes have not been raised, and that they are lower this year than they have been for the average of the past eight years.

The taxes for state, school, and road purposes, on the other hand, have been more than doubled. The school tax has been raised from $7,566.79, in 1897, to $15,660 in 1904. The state tax has been raised from $5,502.78, in 1897, to $12,985 in 1904. The Dolly Vardens do not publish these figures. They go before the people with half truths and endeavor to create the impression that Columbia County is going straight to ruin as a result of Republican mismanagement. They must credit the people with short memories, and believe that any statement, however unfair, will serve until after the election.

EXPLOITING P. A. FRAKES.

When P. A. Frakes was one of the directors of the county's destinies, he not only inaugurated the greatest road improvements the county has ever seen, but he managed it and liquidated its debt of $60,000 in four years. But this wasn't machine work. It didn't suit. Yet he demonstrated that the county could be run on a moderate taxation, and what has been done may again be performed; it requires only the application of business principles and a holy abstinance from folly and extravagance.—Register.

Mr. Frakes was elected as a Republican; he served as a Republican, and he is to-day supporting Judge Doan, the Republican nominee. He was a good Commissioner; but if he were running for office to-day, the Register would denounce him because he voted to purchase the road grader. He did not liquidate the county debt, and is entitled to no more credit for it than Judge Doan, or the other member of the Board, Mr. Chase. The debt was paid by the collection of back taxes, due to the change in the law, placing the Sheriff on a flat salary. Under the old law it did not pay the Sheriff to collect small amounts, and therefore they were neglected. The real reason why the county is out of debt is because the good times, due to Republican National policies, has put money in the pockets of the people and they pay their taxes promptly. The delinquent tax roll this year will be the smallest for many years. Voters should not forget that the Register and the candidates it favors are doing their best to restore the Democratic party to power in county, state and nation. The attempt to use P. A. Frakes as a Democratic decoy duck will prove a failure.

If it is correct as reported, that there will be no cash premiums offered for stock exhibits at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, we think the management will commit a serious mistake. It is hardly reasonable to expect men of moderate means to go to the great expense of preparing their cattle and putting them in exhibition condition unless they have some chance to recoup by securing a cash

The fight for the office of County School Superintendent promises to be interesting. The latest development is the nomination by the Democrats of Mr. W. A. Wood, who will probably receive the practically unanimous support of his party.

*.017 14.30 mills.
‡Includes 5.4 mills for roads and bridges.

It will be observed the levy and amount raised for the general fund, which includes all general expenses of the county, has been reduced.

The road fund has been increased from no levy to a levy of 10 mills, and the amount raised this year is $18,229.32.

The school and state taxes have each been more than doubled, and are levied in accordance with state laws, and are out of the jurisdiction of the County Court.

The column of totals includes the entire levy of each year, except the special school and special road taxes, which are levied by the school and road districts.

THE PROHIBITION COUNTY COURT.

The Searchlight is the organ of the Prohibition party in Oregon. The following is taken from its columns:

"Houlton, Or., April 24.—I noticed in the last Searchlight that if one person from each postoffice would send in a renewal this month you would give us an extra paper in May. So I send my renewal. We are having a revival of prohibition sentiment here, not a bluster, but the real thing. W. A. Young, of Clatskanie, the prohibition candidate for Representative, was indorsed by the Democrats, who also nominated present Sheriff Hatton for County Judge. Mr. Hatton is a man of sterling prohibition principles, and as the prohibitionists left this place blank, and the Republicans have a saloon man of the rankest type, a man who says he will uphold the saloon without regard to the law or to circumstances, the temperance vote will all go one way. G. L. Tarbell, the prohibition candidate for Commissioner, is well and favorably known all over the county, and both his opponents are weak men, little known, so we feel confident of having two members of the County Court next term in favor of prohibition."

The statement that Judge Doan said he "would uphold the saloon without regard to the law or the circumstances," comes from a woman, so that it can not be treated as it would if coming from a man; but the statement that Sheriff Hatton is a Prohibitionist will be somewhat of a surprise to the people of this county. If true, he managed to conceal it very carefully, if we are rightly informed, during the last campaign.

You see, it's this way: There are not enough Democrats to elect any one by their votes, and, therefore, we must endeavor to induce Republicans to vote a part of the Dolly Varden ticket, and, of course, you understand what Part. The way to do this is to create suspicion among them by conveying the impression that in certain sections of the county certain Republicans are going to knife a portion of the ticket, and in other sections other portions are to be slaughtered. In the meantime keep the Dolly Varden people solid for that Part of the Democratic ticket which it is possible to elect. I don't want to be personal, but you all know there is only one Part that stands any chance whatever, and I am beginning to think that chance is rather a slim one. The people don't seem to be suffering as much as I thought they were. I spoke to one man the other day about his heavy taxes, and the rude fellow said: "To —— with the taxes. I got plenty of money to pay 'em." He seemed to think the Republican National administration was responsible for the good times, and, of course, I did not dare attempt to persuade him to the contrary. He wanted to know if I was a Democrat, and I had to tell him, "Yes; but I am not working at it this year." I am doing my best to conduct this campaign on nonpartisan lines when I talk to Republicans, but when I get ahold of old-line Democrats I point with pride to the platform, which indorses the principles of Jackson and Jefferson. I don't really like these speak-easy campaigns, where one has to slide around from voter to voter, giving each one of them a different spiel in order to catch their vote; but it's the best that can be done under the circumstances, and one can not be particular about methods, the main thing being to win. Some old Democrats grumble that they can not see any victory for Democratic principles in merely securing good jobs for one or two persons; but as I understand it, Democracy favors the greatest good for the greatest number, and that number is No. 1. I don't like to ask for the support of Prohibitionists and Socialists, as I have no real sympathy for their views, and am only using them to rake my chestnuts out of the fire. I am afraid, however, that all this hard work is of no avail. They tell me the county is out of debt; there is a smaller delinquent list than ever before, and that this is the Presidential year, and they propose to vote the straight Republican ticket.

When Judge Doan took charge of the county's financial affairs we were heavily in debt. Now we are out of debt and all warrants are paid in cash on demand. Isn't that good enough?

---

Is it true that a member of the notorious St. Helens Democratic ring is furnishing the scrambled brains for the Register?

POMONA AT SCAPPOOSE.

The regular meeting of Pomona Grange, of Columbia County, was convened at Watts and Price's Hall, Scappoose, on Saturday, May 7, with Master W. A. Young presiding, and A. D. Holaday, acting secretary, in place of S. L. Holaday, absent.

The morning session was taken up with preliminary wrok, after which a bountiful lunch was served in the hall by the local grange.

The afternoon session was full of keen interest, every member being fully awake to the importance of the grange movement, and resolutions were adopted by a decided vote in favor of the "local option law," "direct primary nomination law" and in favor of state appropriations to county road building.

The evening session was taken up largely by the initiation of a large class into the Pomona degree, after which a musical and literary programme of unusual merit was had.

The meeting was a representative one, there being about 75 visiting members from all parts of the county in attendance.

The next meeting of the Pomona was voted at Goble, when the local lodge will do the grand in entertainment.

Prominent among visiting members were: W. A. Young, M. P. Young, J. H. Collins, J. B. Godfrey, T. C. Watts, M. Link and wife, F. J. Peterson, I. H. Copeland and wife, H. Woodham, F. M. Hoyt and wife, M. J. Butler and wife, and Mrs. Vail, Mr. and Mrs. Gates, of Evening Star Grange, and many others.

The meeting was voted a great success, and much credit is due the local committee for the clever manner in which they cared for the visiting members.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, It is the sense of Pomona Grange, of Columbia County, that the "good roads" movement stands foremost of all our immediate wants and demands our earnest consideration; and,

Whereas, There has been introduced into the Congress of the United States bills for National aid of public roads in the several states, and calling upon the several states to appropriate sums equal to those apportioned to the said states; therefore, be it

Resolved, That our State Representative and Senator from Columbia County be urgently requested to use their best efforts to secure the passage of a bill in the Oregon Legislature to apportion state funds among the several counties, to be used in the construction and improvement of the public highways, to the end that our public roads shall in the future receive the aid from the state and National Government that is their due, and to the end that our roads be improved and made equal to our other public institutions.

Resolved, That Columbia Pomona Grange go on record as favoring the passage of the "Direct Primary Law," to be voted upon by the electors of Oregon at the coming June election, and that we urge all subordinate granges of the county and each member thereof to work for the passage of said direct primary law.

Resolved, That Pomona Grange, of Columbia County, go on record as favoring the passage of the "Local Option Law," and that we urge all members of subordinate granges to work for the passage of said local option law.

HAZELWOOD TALKS.

Cream as a Crop.

Farm Machinery.

There are two machines necesssary for harvesting a crop of cream or butter. Each of the two is essential. Each one is as necessary as the other if the full results are to be obtained.

Machine No. 1 is the cow, the grass machine.

Machine No. 2 is the separator, the skimming machine.

You would not think of putting in wheat if a flail was your only threshing machine. It is just as ridiculous to think of getting big returns from a crop of cream without a skimming machine as it would be to get value out of a crop of wheat without threshing it by up-to-date methods. Any harvesting machine, even a self-rake, is better than none at all. Any hand separator is better than none at all. A separator is as much a necessity as is the milker or the cow itself.

Any Better Than None.

There is a big difference in separators, but the difference is not enough to make any of the standard makes a bad buy. Some separators wear longer than others, but almost any one will pay for itself before it gives any trouble, or wears out. Some separators skim a little smoother than others, but all of them will skim from one-fifth to one-fourth more butter fat than can be obtained in the old-fashioned way of skimming from pans. Some separators are simpler to operate than others, but there is none among the standard makes but what is simpler to operate than making butter on the farm.

Pays For Itself.

We indorse the U. S. hand separator because it has convinced our cream patrons and ourselves that it is the best.

You don't want to forget to vote for the Direct Primary Nomination Law. The political tricksters are opposed to it, and they will poll every vote against it that they can possibly secure among their strikers and heelers. Those who favor the law should be wide awake and see that every one of its friends vote.
