A number of members of the Modern Woodmen organization gave an entertainment and dance at the city hall on Saturday night last. The play presented was "The Deacon," and for amateurs they did very well, Had they done some advertising they would no doubt have had a crowded house; as it was they were money out on their trip but evidently had a good time.

J. Dupont & Sons, of the Valley shingle mill, will deliver shingles to customers at St. Helens, Houlton, Columbia City, Warren and neighborhood. They manufacture the very finest grade of cedar shingles and guarantee their prices to be as low as shingles of the same grade can be procured elsewhere. tf

Rev. Thorp, of Rainier, was a visitor at this office last Monday. He informs us that on Sunday last Dr. Rockwell, presiding elder of this district, dedicated a neat M. E. Church at Graud View, about four and one half miles from Rainier. A Sunday School was organized with the following officers: Superintendent, Susie Atwood; assistant superintendent, L. E. Gulker; secretary, Nora Hankins. treasurer, Bert Silver; librarian Lucy Wilson.

PERRY & GRAHAM.

Mr. R. McDonald, recently manager of the Lone Star Lumber Co., has accepted a responsible position with the Rainier Mill Company. Mr. McDonald is a thorough business man and his connection with his new employers will, no doubt, be beneficial to their interests.

At last Saturday's meeting of Houlton Camp, Woodmen of the World, two new names were added to the membership. It was decided to have a joint installation Saturday, July 2nd, and there will also be a banquet, prepared by the Women of Woodcraft. There should be a rousing turnout and a revival ot interest in the order.

Mrs. E. H. Flagg returned on Friday last from Hood River, where she had been as delegate from the Woman's Relief Corps, of Salem, to the Grand Army and Relief Corps state encampment at that place.

Mr. Charles Macauley, a Nehalem farmer who has recently been employed ou the rock crusher, was a Mist office visitor this week. He thinks the rock crusher is a good institution for this part of the county, but that the county should purchase a portable sawmill for those sections where crushed rock roads will be impracticable for many years to come. He says that the rains of the past week will be worth many thousands of dollars to the farmers of this county, as the crops are badly in need of moisture.

Our Rainier correspondence was unavoidably omitted last week, as it arrived too late for publication.

Mr. D. J. Switzer, of Dundee, Yamhill County, has been visiting at his old home in this city during the past week. He speaks highly of Dundee as a business point, and we are glad to know that he is prospering there. He states that the weather there has been quite warm, the temperature being from 85 to 95 degrees.

Della, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Henrici, of Sauvies Island, died Saturday night last, very suddenly and before medical aid could be summoned. She had been feeling well all day, but in the evening, at about 10 o'clock, she was taken suddenly ill with heart failure and died in a few minutes. Medical aid had been promptly summoned, but could have been of no avail. Miss Henrici had suffered from heart trouble in past years. The funeral occurred Monday at the Odd Fellows' cemetery near Warren, Rev. Davies officiating. The attendance was very large, as Miss Henrici was well known and esteemed throughout the southern part of the county. Mr. McIntyre, captain of the Annie Comings, and an uncle of Miss Henrici, kindly placed his boat at the disposal of the relatives, many of whom were present. Miss Henrici was 22 years of age, and the only unmarried daughter.

Assessor Laws returned from his official trip to the Lower Nehalem country last Sunday, having completed the assessment of Auburn precinct, while Mr. White was assessing the upper precinct. This completes the assessment of Columbia County with the exception of a portion of the nonresidents' property. Mr. Laws had not been in the Nehalem country for a year, and was very much surprised at the improvement shown. A great deal of hard work has been done, and the roads are now in fair condition. The cream industry has grown into importonce and very many of the farmers have separators. The cream is taken to Clatskanie, and thence shipped to Portland. The good roads movement means prosperity to the Nehalem country and to the whole county.

There are no shoes made that are better than the Stilson line, carried by Perry & Graham.

A steam laundry would pay at St. Helens. It is the best point in Otegon for such an institution. All the country north of here would patronize it, and it would get a great deal of business from Portland. Cheap wood, free water, and low rent would de helping factors.

Leigh Gatch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Gatch, of Salem, is visiting his friends, George and Frank Flagg, of this city. From here he goes to Seattle for a visit with relatives and friends.

Bailey & Brinn's store is headquarters for general merchandise, Houlton, Oregon. Good goods a specialty. Quality, quantity and price guaranteed.

The enemies of prohibition must have done something to the St. Helens water system, for we are drinking a mixture this week that has a tendency to drive people to stronger beverages. However it puts us in mind of the fact that years ago we depended entirely upon the river and the germ-laden rainwater barrel; and still we lived and were happy.

The fruit canning season is approaching and the price of sugar is sure to go up. Prudent housekeeper should order a supply from Bailey & Brinn, Houlton's reliable grocers.

Mr. John McKie has received a contract for 125,000 Belgian Blocks from the City and Suburban Railway Company of Portland, and it is probable several other contracts will be given out in a short time. It is understood, also, that Smith & Howard have come to an understanding with Mr. McKie whereby he will have charge of the works at the Sisters' quarry. A number of new men have been put to work at the Milton Creek quarry and additions will be made to the force as soon as possible. This means an increase of about $100 per day in the pay roll.

Our suits, from $3.50 up to $12.50, are better value than you can get in Portland.

PERRY & GRAHAM.

More fish running; more men working in the quarries, and a good prospect for a new court house and a new mill.

Mr. James Sheldon informs us that the run of fish is better now than it has been at the same time of the year for the past two years. He is getting about a ton of fish per day, and the quality is prime.

Mr. N. A. Perry and family, of Houlton, are sojourning at Seaside.

The regular annual school meeting for this district was held at the school house last Monday evening, President Cliff presiding. The clerk read the financial statement, which showed a reduction of about one half in the warrant indebtedness of the district, notwithstanding the expenditure of a considerale sum for outbuildings and other betterments. The election of officers resulted in the choice of S. A. Miles for director and the re-election of Mr. Walkins as school clerk. Dr. Cliff was renominated for school director, but declined to run as he had served two terms.

The funeral of Raymond Watts, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Watts, took place at the church at Scappoose on Friday last, Reverends Jones and Staub conducting the services. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity, and the funeral was one of the largest ever held in this county, evidencing the sincere sympathy felt by the community for the sorrow stricken parents. Raymond was 12 years old, and their only son.

Mrs. David Davis, of Portland, has been visiting during the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cox.

Fresh fish in season every Friday, and special Sunday dinner at the Oriental Hotel.

Our Reuben correspondent reports that at the annual school election held in distaict 20 Antone Wise was re-elected director and T. C. Watts clerk. CHILDREN'S DAY.

An Entertaining Program at the Congregational Church Sunday.

Sunday last was the Children's Day in the Sunday Schools, and the occasion was marked by appropriate exercises at the Congregational Church in this city. The program rendered by the children was as follows:

Recitation—"Wonderful Thought"	Virgil Hattan
Motion Exercise	Maudie Richardson
Reading	Sadie Ellis
Song	"Arise, O Happy Children"
Recitation	Mary Robinson
Recitation	Lois Clear
Recitation—"God Makes Us Strong"	Frank Thorp
Song—"In Our Happy Garden"	Infant Class
Recitation	Harvey Wilkins
Recitation	Robert Patterson
Recitation	Goldie Hattan
Recitation	Chalmers Patterson
Recitation—"Praise God"	Infant Class
Recitation	Harry Thorp
Recitation	Jessie Cade
Recitation	Archie Robinson

All the children did well and reflected credit upon the patience of their instructors. The singing of the choir is worthy of special mention, and would be hard to excel in any community the size of St. Helens. A collection was taken up for Sunday school work, the statement being made by the pastor, Rev. Taggert, that there is a community in Columbia County where the people are unable, for lack of funds, to secure books for Sunday School use.

DIED.

WATTS—Died of pneumonia, at Scappoose, Oregon, Thursday, June 16th, 1904, Raymond, only son of J. G. and Rose Watts; aged 12 years, 11 months and 12 days. The remains were interred in the family burying grounds in Scappoose Cemetery. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

IN MEMORIAM.

The funeral services of Raymond Watts, the only son of J. G. and Rose Watts, of Scappoose, held in the Congregational Church, on Friday, June 17th, was full of the expression of love and esteem in which this pure, noble boy was held by all who knew him. Friends were in attendance from all over the county, more than filling the church, and all seemed to be mourners. The many beautiful floral tributes, many of which were from his schoolmates, seemed to attest the beauty and purity of his character.

The services were conducted by Reverends Jones, the pastor, and Straub, of Portland, who truly said that, though only a boy in years, whose time had been but a brief span, Raymond's life was worthy of emulation by every young person, his character, noble purposes, and high ideals are beautiful sermons to all who knew him. Those whom we love are never lost, and the influence of a good life never dies. Those whom we see no more in their accustomed places have been summoned home to become in a higher, fuller, larger sense than was possible amid these earthly surroundings, the ministers of the mysteries of Divine Providence as affecting our lives.

Raymond was indeed a good boy. He was a kind playmate, an interesting companion, an ideal pupil, a manly brother, a loving and obedient son. His influence at home, at school, among his associates, anywhere, was always elevating and refining. He gave much promise of a noble, useful life; but the tender plant was cut down, just as the beautiful flower was budding, ere fruitage time had come. Such a boy will be missed, not only in the home in which he has been its light and joy, but in the entire community.

"Leaves have their time to fall,
And flowers to wither at the north wind's breath,
And stars to set; but all,
Thou hast all seasons for thine own, O, Death.

J. H. COLLINS.
