THE MUCKLE STORE HAS A REPUTATION

of Long Standing for Only the Best in

GENERAL MERCHADISE

Dart & Muckle,

St. Helens, Oregon.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The pharmacy building is nearing completion.

Mr. James Beagle, of Warren, has been quite sick during the past week.

The Evening Telegram is now being delivered every day to its subscribers in St. Helens by Frank Plagg. Subscriptions may be left at the MIST office.

Lost—On steamer Iralda, July 22d, a lady's opal ring. Finder please send it to this office or with the captain of steamer Iralda and receive reward.

Taxpayers who fail to send in the exact change should remember that the deficiency must be made good by the sheriff, and in the aggregate it amounts to a considerable sum. It is just as easy to send in the full amount due.

To those who love a good horse the speed contests at Irvington Park offer unusual attractions this week. The best thoroughbreds ever assembled on the Pacific Coast are gathered there, and every effort is being made to secure square racing.

A Set of Dishes Free—I am giving away dishes to my cash customers. You get a coupon with each cash purchase of ten cents and over, and you can exchange these coupons for all varieties of the best class of China ware. Goods on exhibition at my store. Great inducements that it will pay you well to investigate.

H. MORGUS, St. Helens.

The editor of the MIST is correspondent for the Portland Oregonian and proposes to furnish the news to that paper without fear or favor. He has done so in the Robinson mystery and will continue to do so in all future matters of general interest, and will not be influenced by either loss or gain of patronage.

J. Dupont & Sons, of the Valley shingle mill, will deliver shingles to customers at St. Helens, Houlton, Columbia City, Warren and neighborhood. They manufacture the very finest grade of cedar shingles and guarantee their prices to be as low as shingles of the same grade can be procured elsewhere.

Something like one hundred cords of wood are being ranked daily at the Scappoose Bay landings. About sixteen teams are engaged in the work, and of course they are playing havoc with the road leading from the railroad to the hills.

The Royal Chinook salmon is the best fish that swims, and Chinook shoes are the best shoes on the market. They are made of the very best material and are sure to give satisfaction. Bailey & Brinn, Houlton's reliable dealers in general merchandise, keep them for sale at from $3.50 to $5.

WANTED—Stave bolts; yellow fir timber, 38 inches long. For information write Western Co. Houlton, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude DeViere and Mrs. Hortense Rice visited Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Upen Sunday.

State Labor Commissioner Hoff was a visitor to St. Helens on Monday last gathering information for his biennial report to the State Legislature. Mr. Hoff has done considerable good work since his appointment, mainly in the line of inducing manufacturers to provide better protection for their employees.

Magnolia, Canadian Club, Old Government Whiskies and Gordon's Dry Gin at the Owl Saloon. Old Crow Whiskey bottled in bond. Also Old Quaker-made Rye Whiskey.

Mr. Jack Black returned home from St. Vincent's Hospital at Portland last Tuesday evening. He is still compelled to use crutches as a result of his accident, but has every prospect of a complete recovery.

Bailey & Brinn's store is headquarters for general merchandise, Houlton, Oregon. Good goods a specialty. Quality, quantity and price guaranteed.

Reuben Seseman was brought before Justice J. M. Blackford, at Clatskanie, on Monday last, charged with the larceny of a binding chain from Frank E. Malmberg. The defendant waived a jury, and the trial resulted in his acquittal, no evidence warranting a conviction, in the opinion of the justice, having been produced. Deputy Dist. Atty. Powell for the State; W. H. Conyers for the defendant.

There are no shoes made that are better than the Stilson line, carried by Perry & Graham.

The Porcelain Baths at Houlton are all ready for customers. If you want a refreshing bath or a first-class shave or hair cut patronize the Houlton barber shop. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Chief Justice Moore, of this county, wrote the decision that mandamus will lie to compel officers of the law to do their sworn duty, notwithstanding orders from their superiors to the contrary. Its good sense and that is supposed to be good law.

Goods delivered without charge, willingly and cheerfully. Order freely. M. C. GRAY, St. Helens, Ore.

All the local and war news in the MIST and Oregonian. Only $2 a year.

A Telegram writer has discovered a "Garden of Eden" on Sauvie's Island. That's nothing. The whole island is and can produce more garden truck to the acre than any ranch in Asia.

The fruit canning season is approaching and the price of sugar is sure to go up. Prudent housekeeper should order a supply from Bailey & Brinn, Houlton's reliable grocers.

A large stock of novels just received at the St. Helens Pharmacy.

In St. Helens going to be represented in the Clatskanie base ball tournament which we understand is to be held the latter part of this month? We should have a strong team there, and to do so it will be necessary to get a quick move on, as it will not do for the county seat to be represented by a poor team. If we enter at all, we should endeavor to have the best team on the ground.

From the Lakeside Stock Farm we have the following news: Miss Lou S. Frakes is visiting in Eastern Oregon and arrived in Condon two weeks ago. She wrote home that the heat there on the 12th inst. was 112 degrees in a drug store in Condon. Mrs. D. Warren Dobbins visited all last week at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. R. J. Frakes. Mr. and Mrs. J. Hoyt Dobbins and their infant daughter, Lola, visited the home of his mother last Sunday, making a flying visit before moving to Roseburg, Oregon.

M. C. GRAY, St. Helens. Now is the time to paint and I am prepared to send you money on the goods. M. C. GRAY, St. Helens. Lewis and Clark Flour is one of the best grades on the market, and a very popular brand—try it.

M. C. GRAY, St. Helens. Adjustable screens to fit any window, 24 inches wide, 35c. M. C. GRAY, St. Helens. Golden Gate Baking Powder, Spices and Extracts, are the best. M. C. GRAY, St. Helens.

In Mr. Charles Muckle's front yard in St. Helens there are two English walnut trees that were planted over twenty-five years ago by Mr. W. B. Morse. We are of the opinion that these are the oldest and largest English walnut trees in the State of Oregon, and for many years they have yielded abundant crops. This year is no exception to the rule, and they will yield about twenty bushels of as good nuts as ever came from California.

A small quantity of the old crop is still on hand in excellent condition, demonstrating that they are good keepers. A few acres set out in English walnuts would be a safe and very profitable investment, as their culture has passed the experimental stage and they are demonstrated to be a success in Oregon.

Buy that home and "DO SOMETHING." Cheap. At Quick & Holton's.

We buy our shoes direct from the manufacturer and can save you the middle man's profit.

PERRY & GRAHAM. Up in the south end of this county Mr. Payne is quietly conducting a little manufacturing enterprise that some day will develop into a great factory employing hundreds of hands, and around which will cluster a prosperous community.

He is manufacturing red and yellow ochre, and finds a ready sale for his product. His supply of ore is unlimited and the quality excellent. It does not need an over active imagination to predict a great growth for this infant industry.

DENSMORE TYPEWRITER FOR SALE—Nearly new and in every respect as good as new. Can be purchased for $75. Inquire at the MIST office, St. Helens, or of Lew Davies, Warren, Ore.

Mrs. Thomas Cooper returned home to Kalama last Tuesday evening after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Decker, of this city.

To do well THINK and WORK together. How? Ask Quick & Holton. St. Helens and Houlton had a match game of base ball last Sunday, resulting in a victory for the Houlton boys by a score of 15 to 14. It was a very poor exhibition.

It is worth the price of admission to see Mr. Slaughter carry the baby. They "do say" that he wanted to charter the boat for the youngster and let the rest of the people come along as incidentals.

Weinhard's beer on tap at the Owl saloon.

Mrs. James Dart and daughter are sojourning at the Seaside.

Mr. Norman McKay, of Sauvie's Island, was a visitor to the county seat on Sunday last.

Largest stock to select from at Perry & Graham's.

Quite a number of St. Helens' best people are camped out on the banks of Milton Creek, about a mile from town, where they find all the advantages that less fortunate folks travel hundreds of miles to secure—pure water, shade and cool breezes, and a "swimming hole" that is just deep enough for pleasure and not deep enough to be dangerous.

Mrs. Martin White and Mrs. Ellis were Iralda passengers for Portland on Monday last.

Our suits, from $3.50 up to $12.50, are better value than you can get in Portland. PERRY & GRAHAM.

Miss Irene Johnson, teacher of a school near Clatskanie, paid eight dollars for a drink of water at the Houlton well. She had her purse with her, and laid it down while taking a drink and forgot to pick it up when she left. Upon returning she found that it had been taken. Suspicion rests upon two parties who were seen about that time walking down the railroad track, but there is no positive proof against them. Miss Johnson had been in attendance during the day on the county teachers' examination at St. Helens.

Puts an End to It All. A grievous wall of pain comes as a result of unclean parts from over taxed organs. Dizziness, backache, liver complaint and constipation. But thanks to Dr. King's New Life Pills they put an end to it all. They are gentle but thorough. Try them. Only 25c. Guaranteed by the St. Helens Pharmacy.

FROM WARM HEARTS.

Yukon Sends a Contribution to The Sobiska Family.

The Editor of the MIST has received the following letter from Karth Brothers, former residents of this county, but now located at Sulphur Creek, Yukon Territory:

SULPHUR CREEK, Y. T., July 26, 1904. To the OREGON MIST: We all feel sorry for the Sobiska family. We have known them for fourteen years. They have been the very best friends to us and we know of their faithfulness. We will enclose a money order in this letter of $30, and our sister Rosie also $25; Mr. Ole Kvinie $5, Mrs. Brandmeyer (road-house lady 32 below) $5.

Yours respectfully, KARTH BROS., 40 Below Sulphur, Yukon Territory. Karth Brothers are subscribers to the MIST, and saw the account of the drowning in this paper. Sister Rosie, from the goodness of her heart, sends nearly as much as her two brothers, and then two strangers send $5 each. It is an instance of unostentatious goodness that deserves to be recorded. A road house is a place of entertainment, where the weary prospector can procure lodging and refreshments; "40 below Sulphur" means that Karth Brothers' claim is the fortieth below the original discovery on Sulphur Creek. The editor of the MIST is what is known in the North as a "sour dough," having passed a winter in Nome. He expresses the wish that the Karths and their friends may always be in pay dirt, and when the summons comes for them to "mush on" over the great divide their act of kindness will be found recorded in their favor.

MISSING. Fifty dollars reward for Mary Robinson, who left her home in St. Helens, Oregon, July 29th, 1904, between 6 and 7 o'clock in the morning.

Age 14 years 8 months, small for age, spare built, walks rapid, with slight stoop forward, weight about 90 lbs., height about 4 feet 8 inches, blue eyes, dark hair, fair complexion. May be found working in private family under assumed name, or her body may possibly be found in the river; $50 will be paid for the recovery of her body dead or alive. R. S. HATTAN, County Judge.

The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Mary Robinson is still unsolved. The County Judge has offered a reward of $50 for her discovery. Dan Lope has been placed under $500 bonds, charged with her abduction, and Sheriff White has made a trip to Arlington on a false clue given by a commercial traveler named Richards. The Evening Telegram printed a column concerning the affair last Tuesday, but the gist of it is in this short item.

DEATH OF W. C. NOON. W. C. Noon, one of Portland's foremost citizens and proprietor of the Noon farm at Warren, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital Tuesday afternoon at 4:20 o'clock. Mr. Noon had been ill for about three weeks, and Monday he had an operation performed from which he was unable to rally. His family is prostrated with grief, and expressions of sorrow from his many friends throughout the city are very general.

William C. Noon was born in Leicester, England, August 25, 1858. He came to America with his parents when only 10 years of age, and attended school in Andover, Mass., for three years before going to work in a woolen mill in Lowell, and afterwards in Portland, Maine, until in time he acquired a thorough and extensive knowledge of the business. In 1887, when most of the mills in the East were closed on account of financial depression, Mr. Noon decided to try his fortunes in the gold fields of California, and arrived there in the spring of 1888, via the Isthmus, engaging in mining and ranching for three years, during which time he accumulated a large herd of cattle. In 1891 the entire herd was destroyed by a flood, leaving him penniless after years of hard toil. He secured passage to Oregon, arriving in Portland in 1892. He went down to Salem and worked in the woolen mills for a year, then went to the Salmon River mines, which he worked for four succeeding winters. In 1899 he came to Portland again and entered the employ of J. W. Cook, a bag and awning man and upholsterer. Realizing that the business might be made to pay well if properly conducted, Mr. Noon bought his employer's interests in 1900, and under his able management the business prospered, and in 1902 the firm of W. C. Noon & Co. was organized, its growth having been unprecedented. In 1903 the firm was incorporated as the W. C. Noon Bag Co.

Mr. Noon was a life long Republican and a prominent member of the A. O. U. W. He was always intensely interested in the growth and development of Oregon, and especially of Portland, and had contributed materially to its advancement by great industry and energy he accumulated a comfortable fortune. His character was of the highest standard; surviving him are a wife and five children—Lila, William C. Viola, Ralph and Alma E.

The Death Penalty. A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve handy. It is the best salve on earth and will prevent fatalities, when burns, sores, ulcers and piles threaten. Only 25c, at St. Helens Pharmacy.

Bargains on Clothing and Shoes. Men's suits at $4.75, $6, 7.50 and $10; worth double. Boys' suits, $1.25, $1.95, $2.50 and $3; worth double. Ladies' men's, misses' and boys' shoes, 95c, $1.45, $1.95 and $2.45; worth double. We are cutting prices to clear out all the odds and ends, to make room for Fall Goods. John DeLar, corner First and Yamhill.

THRASHING OUTFIT FOR SALE. A J. I. Case, twenty-four inch cylinder, eight horse-power. Cash sale, or lumber and shingles taken. GUS HECHLE, Houlton.

GEORGE B. CORTELYOU. Ten years ago—and that is a mighty short time—Cortelyou was stenographer to Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Maxwell at Washington. When Maxwell came into office he found Cortelyou there. Maxwell was a Democrat, and a Democrat who believes that to the victors belong the spoils. Cortelyou was a Republican, and expected to be fired. Before a fortnight was over Maxwell turned to Cortelyou one day and said: "Would you like to stay here with me indefinitely?"

"Of course I would." "Well, you stay." The fact is, Cortelyou, I don't know how I could get along without you.

As the months rolled by, Maxwell was so much delighted with the quiet, skillful, rapid work of his secretary that he fell into the habit of boasting that he had the best stenographer in the shop. He cracked up Cortelyou till his fans reached the White House—and President Cleveland sent for him.

When Cortelyou started in at the White House, it was as a stenographer to the president. He wrote the president's letters. After a day or two, Cortelyou thought it best to offer a little explanation to the man whose confidential work he was doing, and so he said: "Mr. President, perhaps you think I am a Democrat. But I think it is no more than right I should tell you I am a Republican."

"I don't care a damn what your politics are," replied Mr. Cleveland. "As long as you do your work well and are loyal to your chief."

Cortelyou was such a good stenographer and a man so zealous and trustworthy in all his work that President Cleveland kept him and liked him. When McKinley was inaugurated, Cortelyou was there, and became assistant to Secretary Porter. He was the best stenographer and man of business on the White House staff, and when Porter's health broke down, it was the most natural thing in the world that he should be promoted to the secretaryship.

When Roosevelt came in, of course he kept Cortelyou. Moreover, he stood by the arrangement which McKinley himself had made, and appointed Cortelyou secretary of the Department of Commerce and Labor.

Today Cortelyou is the center of all eyes—the chairman of the Republican National Committee.

After the campaign is over he is to take Henry C. Payne's place as postmaster general. Thus, in ten years, he will have completed the circuit.

Pretty good work in ten years, on merit alone, without wealth or political influence or anything but his habit of being the best wherever he is put—Walter Wellman.
