LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Messrs. W. H. Powell and H. Morgus, of St. Helens, and W. D. Case, of Pittsburg, were return passengers from Portland on the Hassalo last Monday night.

St. Helens may have a banking institution in the near future. A responsible and competent man is making inquiries with that object in view.

J. D. Peden, of St. Louis, Missouri, writes to J. B. Godfrey, of this place, for information as to starting a sawmill here. This is in answer to an advertisement in the Oregonian stating that land would be given to any responsible party who would put a good mill in operation here.

The editor of the Mist is receiving numerous inquiries in regard to Columbia County's exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Centennial. The latest is from a lady at Scappoose in regard to a display of of fancy work. We are particularly pleased at this inquiry, as we believe the battle is won whenever the women take a thorough interest in it.

Attorney Day is at Salem this week for the purpose of appearing before the Supreme Court in the case of Washington County ex rel against Columbia County, to settle the boundary line between the two counties. The case envolves eleven sections of land, and has been before the courts for several years. It will be quite an expensive piece of litigation. Hon. S. B. Huston appears for Washington County.

Judge Hattan is in Salem this week with a bill for the purpose of setting aside the two-mill levy made by the court for the purpose of erecting a court house, so that it may be placed in a special fund for that purpose. Without the passage of this act it is thought that the treasurer would be compelled to pay the money out on general fund warrants wherever the expenses exceed the general levy. The bill, as we understand, has the approval of the commissioners.

Dan Burns, engineer on the Columbia City and Nehalem Logging Company's road, was shot last Sunday morning in a mysterious manner. He was hunting in company with a friend, on the Caples place, and was chasing a crippled goose, when the report of a gun rang out and a rifle bullet struck him in the calf of the leg. He was brought to St. Helens to have the wound dressed by Dr. Cliff and was taken Sunday evening to a Portland hospital.

There is a special term of circuit court this week, the docket being as follows: 26th-Weinhard vs Wilcox, foreclosure; 27th-Blanchard vs Smith-Suit to quiet title to land in Rainier; 28th-Tarbell vs Oregon Wood Co.-to recover for timber alleged to have been wrongfully cut; also a writ of review in the matter of the guardianship of D. K. Abrams. In the latter case an attempt was made to secure the removal of the guardian, but the county court sustained him, and now the matter comes before the circuit court on a petition for a writ of review.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Holton will soon leave St. Helens for an extended trip through Southern California.

The County Assessors will adopt a resolution at their convention in Portland which will be forwarded to the Legislature, recommending the abolishment of polltax. Very few polltaxes are ever collected, and the law, if tested in the courts, would probably be declared unconstitutional. The Washington Supreme Court recently declared the polltax laid in that state unconstitutional for lack of uniformity, and the Oregon law is subject to the same objection. The polltax law was discussed at length by the assessors yesterday, and while some favored its continuance, the concensus of opinion was against it.

In order to prevent the appropriation of postage stamps, paid for by the county, for private purposes, Judge Webster and Commissioners Lightner and Barnes, of Multnomah County, are considering the advisability of issuing stamped envelopes upon which shall be printed; "Office of ——— (stating the name of the office to which the envelopes are issued); to be used for county purposes only." The envelopes will be of about the same form as those issued by the Government for official purposes, but there will be no penalty clause attached, for the reason that the court cannot prescribe a penalty for the misuse of the envelopes. The result the court hopes to obtain is that any official or any of his subordinates who may use an envelope so stamped for private purposes may be reported by the person who receives the letter, and his future supply of envelopes be therefor reduced.

The county commissioners of Clatsop County have given notice that at their next meeting they intend to appropriate $1,000 for a county exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Fair.

It is said by those who claim to know that the saloon at the intersection of Nehalem and Bridge streets has closed its doors and the proprietor Mr. E. C. Whitney will move to Portland.

Our efficient Postmaster, Mr. M. E. Page has moved the postoffice and his store into the Silvo Graham building on the corner of 1st and Nehalem streets. This move gives satisfaction to most of our people.

How would it do for Mr. Mitchell, the editor of the Houlton Register, to have an expert examine some of the bills that he has heretofore presented to the county court. Look out a little, Mr. Mitchell, we're onto you.

The steamer Geo. W. Elder, which for many years has plied on the route between Portland and San Francisco, was wreckad on a rocky reef near Goble at about 10:00 last Saturday night while on her way to San Francisco with a miscellaneous cargo, composed in large paris of flour, crackers, and paper from the Ore-City Paper Mills. The accident was caused by her steering geer getting out of order. As soon as this was discovered the engines were reversed, but the strong current carried the vessel against a sunken rock. The vessel and cargo are now in the hands of the insurance company. Quite a number of passengers were on board, but no lives were lost. The vessel now hangs across the reef with about a fathom of water forwarded and nearly a hundred feet aft. There is said to be danger that she will slide off the reef into deep water and become a total loss. The steamer Costa Rica will take the Elder's place upon the route temporarily, but it is thought that as soon as possible the company will replace her with a first-class, modern vessel.

Hereafter hunters will have to pay a state license of $1 per year; no game will be permitted to be sold, and the number of ducks will be 25 per day or 50 per week for each hunter. All of which is bosh, and would take a small army to enforce.

ANOTHER PIONEER IS GONE.

Cyrus Lee, of Clatskanie, Succumbs to Attack of Pneumonia.

In the death of Cyrus Crane Lee, of Clatskanie, Oregon has lost another of her stalwart pioneers. Mr. Lee was stricken with pneumonia, and owing to his advanced age, he quickly succumbed to the ravages of the disease. He was buried Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Lee was born in Montgomery County, Indiana, near Crawfordsville, in 1831. He came of a family of Indiana pioneers, and it was no more than natural that when the Westward movement took possession of the East that Mr. Lee should be a member of of that sturdy band of men and women who opened the Golden Coast. Mr. Lee was married to Miss Mary Harrison, a sister of President Harrison. August 31, 1855, and about three years later found the young couple members of an emigrant train bound for California. It took six months for the emigrant train to reach Red Bluffs, Cal. There Mr. Lee and his wife settled. In 1868, a desire to see Indiana again resulted in a return East. There he remained until August when he came to Oregon, settling at Clatskanie, where he lived until his death. He is survived by his wife and four children; Mrs. Ida Tichenor, wife of the Mayor of Clatskanie, Mrs. Grace Tichenor and Mrs. Mary Eastman, all of whom reside at Clatskanie. The son, Charles W. Lee, lives at Woodlawn.
