LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Marriage licenses have been issued during the past week for the union of Gertrude Colvin and William Race, and Rose Seaton to Rithan A. James.

The suit of Tarbell vs. The Oregon Wood Co. was tried before Judge McBride on Saturday last. Tarbell claims damages for wood alleged to have been cut on land belonging to him. It appears that the Wood company sold the land to Tarbell, but claims that it reserved the timber. The case was taken under advisement.

Mrs. W. F. Watts, of Scappoose, has kindly consented to take charge of the department of ladies' needle and fancy work in the Columbia county exhibit at the Lewis and Clark fair. This should be a very attractive feature of the exhibit. All who have any work in this line to exhibit should correspond with Mrs. Watts, whose duty it will be to collect and arrange the same.

Mrs. W. A. Harris, Mrs. W. H. Powell, Misses Grace and Bertha Dart, and Lavelle Watkins, were Portland visitors by the train on Monday last.

Attorney Fisher, of Rainier, was a visitor to the county seat on Wednesday last.

Preparations for raising the steamer Elder are still going ahead. Captain McFarland, who represents the underwriters, has four divers at work in the hold of the vessel, removing the freight. On account of the swollen grain, it is very slow work getting it out. There has been no alteration in the position of the ship since she struck the rock.

Cleo B. Whitting and Joseph Banzer were united in marriage at the residence of Sheriff White, in this city, on Thursday last, Judge R. S. Hattan performing the ceremony.

Judge Dean Blanchard, George Moeck, John Dibble, Attorney Fisher and Wm. Muckle were attending Circuit Court in St. Helens last Friday, the occasion being a suit to quiet title to certain lands in the city of Rainier. Attorney Montague of Portland appeared for one set of heirs, and Messrs Powell and Fisher upheld Judge Blanchard's title.

Do you want free garden seeds? If so, send in your application and we will send you a free package by mail. They are furnished by the Department of Agriculture of the United States and the Mist has a large number to distribute.

Papers for Sale.—Old newspapers for sale, 25c for 100. Inquire of Frank Flagg, agent Evening Telegram.

M. P. Hazen, of Warren, was in town Wednesday last, bringing a bushel of Northern Spies and a bushel of Sophie Spitzenberg apples, and also over a bushel of the finest kind of corn, for our exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Centennial. If others are as liberal and enterprising there will be no doubt of success.

There is a big run of smelt in the Coquille and large shipments of this delicious fish are being taken to Portland. The price is down to $1 per box.

The salaries of the officers of Columbia county may not be as large in proportion to the amount of work as in some other counties, but it is a safe rule not to raise salaries during the term for which an officer is elected, and this rule has very few exceptions. It is not probable that the bill before the legislature will pass the house, as we understand it is opposed by Mr. Mayger, and he can undoubtedly defeat it.

The sale of the property belonging to the estate of Willie Bailey took place at the court house, in this city, on Tuesday last. The old Taylor corner in St. Helens (a one-third interest) was purchased by J. B. Godfrey, whose wife owns the other two-thirds. It is the best building lot in the city, and we hope to see it occupied by a handsome brick or concrete structure.

Born.—To the wife of J. G. Watts, of Scappoose, on Wednesday morning last, a son.

P. Adams, of the Adams Bros. wholesale butchering company of Portland, was in St. Helens, Wednesday, on his return from Muckle Bros' big ranch at Deer Island, where he had been to secure the beef cattle purchased of the latter firm. Adams Bros., it is said, bought all the beef steers Muckle Bros. had for sale.

In the injunction suit of H. McKiel vs. Silvio Grahm, to enjoin the running of a skating rink above McKiel's store, in Clatskanie, Judge McBride, on Wednesday, granted an injunction against the running of such rink until 8:30 p. m. each day, and also gave the plaintiff costs.

REUBEN.

The Coffee Club met at Mrs. Martin Horen's residence last Saturday afternoon and elected the following officers for the year 1905: Mrs. S. J. Butler, president; R. N. Hamilton, vice president; Mrs. R. Horen, secretary; Mrs. M. E. Jordan, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Horen are visiting friends in Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Withrow have moved to Rainier, where Mr. Withrow is employed in the logging camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Baldwin, of Portland, are visiting Mrs. Baldwin's aunt, Mrs. T. C. Watts. Mr. Baldwin has charge of the men who are discharging the freight of the steamer Elder.

The Wyatt Mill Co. are running their mill and logging camp full time. They are loading cars this week for the eastern markets.

Report has it that the Columbia Timber Co. contemplates building a large saw mill at or near Moorville this spring.

Mrs. Antone Wise has been quite sick, but is now improving.

Mrs. J. M. Lindsay is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ira Withrow, at Rainier this week.

School district No. 10 has completed its water system for the school house. The children will now have pure mountain water to use.

FROM KIST.

Born.—To the wife of Philip Sheeley, on January 17, a son. All is well.

This sunny weather is a poor excuse for winter.

Peter Bergerson is our new road supervisor.

Our road district voted a ten-mill road tax, which will amount to $1600, to be spent on the roads of the upper Nehalem.

Our school district voted a five-mill tax for the purpose of building a new school house. They have sold the old one to Riley Thomas and are now clearing a site for the new one.

After an eight-day hunt, on January 20, J. R. Dallas succeeded in finding the last four of his cattle. They had survived three snows, but were looking well.

Now that a cream route has been started up the Nehalem river by the Hazelwood Cream company, a couple of bridges are badly needed. Our commissioners have been petitioned, and we are hoping, but "The mills of the gods grind slowly."

Syrup of White Pine and Tar, the old reliable cough remedy. For sale by A. J. Deming, druggist.

Spotted Her Beauty. Harriett Howard, of 209 W. 34th St., New York, at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin troubles. She writes: "I had Salt Rheum or Eczema for years, but nothing would cure it until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. 25c at Deming's drug store.

REMOVAL SALE.

I am building a concrete store building in St. Helens and when it is completed will occupy it as a general merchandise store. I don't want to move any more goods than necessary and therefore I will sell all the goods in my present store at greatly reduced prices. This is the opportunity you have been looking for. My stock is large and you can save money by trading with me.

H. MORGUE.

WANTED—LADIES AND GENTLEMEN in this and adjoining territories, to represent and advertise the Wholesale and Educational Departments of an old established house of solid financial standing. Salary $3.50 per day with expenses advanced each Monday by check direct from headquarters. Horse and buggy furnished when necessary; position permanent. Address Blew Bros. & Co., Dept. 4, Monong Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

TAKEN UP—At my premises on Willamette Slough, about November 15th, one white cow with red neck, about three years old. Owner can have same by proving property and paying expenses of keep and advertising.

MRS. C. SELEVE.

FARM FOR SALE—Section 28, township 6 north, range 3 west. More timber than will pay for the farm, and after the timber is off it will make a good farm. Lays well and will bear inspection. Some excellent and making of a good frame house. Four miles to the river, where you can sell your produce at good prices. It will pay any one wanting a good bargain to inspect this and write to me.

D. W. COPP, Currier's Crossing, Canada
