SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Columbia County.

Emily G. Jones, plaintiff, vs. E. T. Jones, defendent.

To E. T. Jones the above named defendant.

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON. You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and cause, on or before the eleventh day of March, 1905, and if you fail so to appear or answer the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in the complaint, which is that the marriage now existing between you and the plaintiff be forever dissolved, and for such other relief as to the court may seem just and equitable. This summons is served upon you by publication by order of the Hon. T. A. McBride, judge of the above entitled court, dated the 16th day of January, 1905, and the date of the first publication of this summons is the 20th day of January, 1905.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Don't forget the basket social to be given by the Women of Woodcraft this (Thursday) evening, February 16th, at Houlton. Big baskets full of the best eatables at your own price.

Mr. Frank Glinieski, of Coal Creek, was a visitor to St. Helens on Friday last. He has property here which he contemplates improving in the near future, as he has every confidence in the growth of the county seat.

Mr. W.F. Piper, of Scappoose, an enthusiast for the exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Fair, was a pleasant visitor at the Mist office on Friday last.

Rev. Alford and Rev. E. Riley of Spokane, Washington, are holding a series of revival meetings at Houlton this week. The meetings will continue over Sunday and all are cordially invited to attend. Quarterly meeting of the M. E. church will be held at Houlton on the 25th and 27th of this month, with Presiding Elder Hollingshead in charge.

Dr. C. J. Caples, of Columbia City, came to the county seat last Tuesday for the purpose of paying his taxes, but found that he would have to postpone that duty until the roll is turned over to the tax collector.

Mr. Crawford, of Tigardville, was a visitor to St. Helens last Friday. He has purchased the property of Mr. Gilson, recently occupied by Mr. Frank Wilkinson, and has also leased the Vermont House at Houlton. He will take charge of the hotel March 1st.

A. G. Bochrodt, of Portland, was a visitor to St. Helens on Saturday last.

That ground hog story don't go any more. Ground hog day was shadowless and subscribers to the Mist began calling for their Government garden seeds, and probably some of the seeds are now under ground, waiting for the ground hog to make good his promise of an early spring. On Friday and Saturday we had the coldest weather of the season. Milk froze in the pantries, and those who neglected to turn off the water Friday night found their pipes frozen in the morning. The plants in Mr. Day's conservatory, including a fine calla lily, were frozen. Mr. Groundhog has lost his reputation as a weather prophet.

Papers For Sale.—Old newspapers for sale, 25c for 100. Inquire of Frank Flagg, agent Evening Telegram.

Thomas O. Connell, living on Russell street, Portland, was instantly killed by the Astoria and Columbia River Railroad train No. 21, Sunday morning about 10:35 o'clock, one and a half miles south of Warren. The body was severed below the shoulders and badly scattered, pieces being found all around. He was a short, stout man with blue eyes and brown hair and brown mustache, with about three days' growth of beard; probably 35 to 38 years old. A number of papers were found on his person, but they were badly torn. Among them were a letter of recommendation from the Antrim and Taylor implement and machinery house, a license as engineer, granted in the East, and numerous other things, including a pawn ticket for a watch and tax receipts for property in the East. The man was caught on a curve of the track and on the approach of the train threw himself across the rail. Dr. H. R. Cliff held an inquest on Monday last and the jury rendered a verdict of suicide, exonerating the trainmen from blame. Connell was a bicycle repairer and came to Portland about four years ago from South Dakota. He had been drinking heavily and is supposed to have been out of his mind.

Harry Millerman was brought before Judge McBride last Monday charged with the crime of burglarizing a Northern Pacific freight car at Goble on Friday last. Millerman was caught inside of the car by the station agent, and on attempting to escape the door was closed and he was fastened in until help was secured. The car was filled with merchandise for Astoria and Millerman had broken open a case of shoes and scattered them about the car. He admitted his guilt but stated that he had been drinking and intended to take but one pair of shoes. He was given the lowest sentence permitted by the law—two years in the penitentiary—and was taken to Salem by Sheriff White that evening.

Houlton Camp No. 655, Modern Woodmen of America, at its meeting last Thursday night, elected as delegates to the district convention, which meets McMinnville March 8th, Leslie Bailey and U. W. Clark; and Lester Bailey and E. A. Emerson alternates. The meeting night was changed to the last Saturday in each month.

The Rathbone Sisters gave a very pleasant social party at their hall in this city last Tuesday night. Progressive Hearts was the principal pastime of the evening, and all present participated in a bounteous banquet provided by the Sisters.

THE COMPLETE STORE

We have added so many things to our stock of General Merchandise during the past year that we believe we are justified in asserting we have one of the most complete general stores in Columbia County. We owe this to the liberal patronage we have received, and we hope to merit a still greater share of your custom by continuing to furnish the best goods at reasonable prices. A fine line of

Stoves and House Furniture

Don't go to Portland to buy anything in this line, as we can save you time and money. Are you going to put in a garden. Let us sell you the seeds and the tools to cultivate them. In Groceries and especially in canned goods we carry the best makes of the very best makers. We would appreciate a trial order. from you.

BAILEY & BRINN, HOULTON

One glory ticket was issued this week. Miss Belle Neer and Chester Metcalfe have received permission to share each other's joys and sorrows. The bride is a daughter of an esteemed pioneer, Mr. A. Neer of Neer City. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's parents on Tuesday last, Rev. Taggart officiating.

Special road taxes have been voted in only three districts in this county this year—districts 13, 14, and 15 taxing themselves about $1,500 each. No doubt they will now call on the county court for a little aid, on the theory that the county court should favor the districts that show a willingness to tax themselves for good roads.

Mr. Clay Clark, of Houlton, cut a bad gash in his forehead on Sunday last by falling on the ice while skating.

Mrs. August Buss, we are sorry to learn, is suffering from an attack of typhoid fever.

The tax roll for Columbia County is now in the hands of the sheriff, and those desirous of settling up can do so. The total amount carried by the roll is about $75,000, exclusive of special district road and school levies. This is about $9,000 more than last year. The school and road districts will probably add at least $10,000 to this amount.

The novelty of skating has been the chief attraction during the past week. Every night the ice has been crowded with people enjoying themselves thoroughly in the bracing air. The weather would delight an Eastern man, but here it seems to be productive of a large crop of la grippe and nearly everyone will be pleased to have the rain again.

Mr. J. B. E. Bourne, of Rainier, was a St Helens visitor last Tuesday.

Local Woodmen will hear with regret the news of the death of Head Consul F. A. Falkenburg, which occured at Los Angeles, California, on Monday last. Mr. Faulkenburg was a man of great ability and one of the best fraternal organizers in the United States.

The unexpired terms of E. F. O'Brien and Fred Door, convicted of libal and confined to prison at Manila, have been remitted and both men set at liberty. O'Brien was sentenced to six months in prison and a fine of $1,000 in gold. He denies malice and states that he is publishing a newspaper as a business venture and not to vent spite. He states that it cost him and Door over $7,000 to defend the case.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Columbia.

David T. Brush, plaintiff, vs. Helen A. Brush, defendant.

To Helen A. Brush, defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the 27th day of March, 1905 (that being more than six weeks after the first publication of this summons upon you, and that being the date for you to appear, fixed by an order of the judge of said court) and if you fail to answer for want theriof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint, which is a divorce from you upon the ground of desertion, and for such other and further relief as he may be entitled to receive.

This summons is published upon you by order of Hon. Thos. A. McBride, judge of said court, duly made on the 6th day of February, 1905, directing that the summons be served upon you by publication thereof in the Oregon Mist for six weeks.

J. C. MORELAND,
Attorney for plaintiff.
