LOCAL

On Wednesday last the Mist was again declared by the County Court to be the official paper of Columbia County. The court has been put to considerable trouble by Mr. Mitchell, and all for nothing.

Mr. S. B. Richards, of Vernonia was a St. Helens visitor on Thursday last.

Taxes are coming in quite freely and the sheriff's office is naturally behind in its correspondence, though the sheriff and deputy are working nights to catch up. Receipts will be sent to taxpayers just as soon as possible. None will be overlooked.

Sheriff White sold the property of the East Fork Shingle and Manufacturing Company last week. The sale took place at Clatskanie on the 23d, at Pittsburg on the 24th, and at Vernonia on the 25th, different parcels of the property being sold at each place. The sale realized slightly over $1,000.

On March 1st there were two uncalled for letters at this postoffice. One for Geo. La Rose and the other for John Schweiger. If these letters are not taken out before April 1st they will be sent to the dead letter office.

Warren Church Notice—Services at the Evangelical Church, Warren began Thursday and will continue a week or ten days. Rev. H. L. Pratt, of Portland, will conduct the services.

Charles Green, an old man living alone three miles from Kalama, has been missing since Sunday evening. His boat was found in the river with the oars in place, and it is thought he fell in the river. His house was locked and there were tracks leading to where his boat was usually moored, and it is thought he was about to start to town and in attempting to get into the boat fell overboard. He was about 75 years old, and has been on the Columbia river fishing since 1860. Search has been made for the body, but so far without success.

County Surveyor Watts has been busy during the last week, under the supervision of a number of St. Helens public spirited citizens surveying a route for a switch from the Northern Pacific to the water front of this city. A feasible and easy grade has been found and it is estimated that the cost of putting the grade in condition for the rails will not be more than $5,000. A good mill site is offered free of cost to any person or company desiring to build a mill of large capacity or a factory that would give employment to a considerable number of men, and it is desired to secure the right of way so that such an institution could ship by rail as well as by water. This is the preliminary work for the upbuilding of the newcity of St. Helens. One good mill is an assured fact and other manufacturing institutions will follow.

Mr. W. D. Price, of Scappoose, was a visitor at the Mist office Saturday to renew his subscription for two years and to add the name of Mr. Thurman Saxon to our list.

Mr. Amos Slavens and W. J. Fullerton, of Warren, were visitors at the county seat Saturday for the purpose of paying their taxes.

Mr. M. Collins, manager of the Honeyman farm, was in town Friday for the purpose of shipping some horses to Portland. Mr. Collins claims that the Honeyman is one of the best improved stock and dairy farms in Oregon, and that Scappoose has three of the best herds of dairy cattle in the State.

Mr. E. T. Wallace, whose father has been a resident of the Nehalem Valley for over thirty years, has gone to Lincoln county, for the purpose of taking up a homestead there. He was born in the Nehalem Valley and has literally "grown up with the country," therefore he knows just what it is to take up a homestead in a heavily timbered country.

Mr. E. H. Lynch, of Warren, was in town Saturday, and while here subscribed for the Mist for himself and also for a relative in the East. Mr. Lynch is one of the many old subscribers who have come back to this paper during the past year.

The building formerly occupied by the Mist as an office is being partitioned off into several rooms and otherwise repaired. It is a good location and no doubt will rent readily when ready for occupancy.

Mr. Milton Doane, of Lost Island, was a tax-paying visitor to St. Helens on Tuesday last.

Mr. Walter Jones, of Quincy, died of heart disease on Saturday last, the funeral occurring Tuesday at 2 o'clock. He was the son of C. H. Jones, an old and respected veteran of the civil war. Mr. Jones, sr., is also afflicted with heart disease, and his presence at the funeral was contrary to the doctor's orders, but his love for his son overcame the fear of death. He was attacked with his trouble during the service and while the young man was being buried the friends and relatives were in constant fear of the death of the parent. Mr. Walter Jones leaves a wife and seven children, two of whom are infant twins. He had about fifteen hundred dollars insurance in the Maccabees and Grange.

Mr. Ed. Henrici, of Sauvies Island, was a visitor to the county seat on Tuesday last. He informs us that Mrs. Henrici has been an inmate of the Good Samaritan Hospital at Portland for over a month past, having gone there for the purpose of having an operation performed for kidney trouble. At last accounts she was slowly improving. Mr. and Mrs. Henrici have had more than their share of trouble during the past year, as it will be remembered that some time ago they were so unfortunate as to lose their daughter by a very sudden death.

Marriage license has been issued to Myrtle M. Pawson and Wm. F. Meacham of Goble

Mr. W. J. Mellinger was unfortunate enough to have the bone of his right arm, at the elbow, clipped by one of the saws in the cooperage factory at Houlton last week, necessitating his laying off for a few weeks, but, it is hoped, not permanently disabling him.

On the recommendation of the bar committe,e W. H. Powell, of this city, was, on Friday last, admitted to practice in the Unitad States federal circuit and district courts.

Zellie Crosno has been appointed to have charge of the postoffice at Deloma, in place of Annie Ingles, resigned.

Elmer Labelle, an Indian, aged 20 years, had a portion of his foot severed by the A. & C. southbound train at Goble last Friday evening, and was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland for treatment. It was impossible to learn just how the accident occurred, but the trainmen thought Labelle was stealing a ride and attempted to jump from the train before it stopped, his foot slipping under the wheels.

Mr. Chas. Hickling, formerly steward of the Telephone, and well known to old patrons of the river boats, visited Goble last Saturday for the purpose of looking up the ability of that place to support a good restaurant.

Messrs. Henry Larsen and Max Berg, of Warren, were among the taxpayers to visit the county seat on Saturday last.

Messrs. A. Barbieri and Lester Duncan, of Scappoose, were St. Helens visitors on Monday last. Mr. Barbieri is an illustration of what can be done in this county by hard work, perseverance and economy. He came here a poor boy, without even the advantages of education, and now he owns one of the best dairy farms in the county and pays over $220 in taxes. Such men are a credit to the community in which they live, and an incentive to others to "go and do likewise." There are numbers of them in the county and chances for many more.

Mrs. W. H. Powell gave a delightful "At Home" to a number of her lady friends on Wednesday last. The feature of the entertainment was a guessing contest as to the originals of pictures. One set of pictures represented celebrities, the other popular advertisements. There was also a musical guessing contest, the hostess playing one bar of a number of a number of musical selections, and the guests guessing the title. Mrs. W. B. Dillard, guessing the largest number, received the prize. The Misses Dart contributed instrumental duets. An elaborate luncheon was served. Those present were; Mrs. James Dart, Mrs. W. A. Harris, Mrs. E. E. Quick, Mrs. F. H. Flagg, Mrs. A. J. Deming, Mrs. M. C. Gray, Mrs. H. R. Cliff, Mrs. Edwin Ross, Mrs. J. H. Wellington, Mrs. C. H. Johns, Mrs. W. B. Dillard Mrs. J. W. Day, Mrs. I. H. Copeland, Grace and Bertha Dart and Grace Powell.

Mrs. W. F. Slaughter, of Portland, is visiting friends and relatives in this city.

Miss Allie Perry, of Rainier, is visiting friends in St. Helens.

Papers For Sale.—Old newsyapers for sale, 25c for 100. Inquire of Frank Flagg, agent Evening Telegram.

Mrs. Bertha Fowles, of Mountaindale, Washington County, visited her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Quick, Saturday and Sunday last.

Elder Hollingshead, presiding elder of the M. E. church for the Rainier circuit, held services at Warren Sunday morning, Houlton in the afternoon and St. Helens in the evening. The sermon here was a very forcible one and eloquently delivered. Reverends Riley and Alford have been holding meetings at Bachelor Flats during the past week, with the result of an accession of four members to the church. The interest there was very great.

We are requested to announce that Reverends Alford and Riley, of the M. E. church, will begin a series of revival meetings at Grand View Church, this county, beginning Sunday next and continuing one week.

Attorney Powell is moving into Mr. Gable's building on the Strand, the location recently occupied by Dr. Cliff. The rooms have been neatly papered for his occupancy, and he will have a comfortable and convenient office, with plenty of room for his extensive law library.

The Mist has distributed all of the garden seeds furnished by the Department of Agriculture. They have gone to every part of the county, without regard as to whether the persons asking for them were subscribers to this paper. We hope they will all grow, and if they produce record beating vegetables we hope some of them will be forwarded to this county's exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Fair.

G. W. Weber, of Felida, brother-in-law of George, William, and J. N. Brinn, died at that place on Tuesday morning last, of pneumonia. A number of the family from this place went to Felida Wednesday to attend the funeral. Weber was an old resident of Clark county, and was well known on both sides of the river. He leaves a wife and six children.

Mr. D. J. Switzer has sold the Warren Lumber Company 120 acres of land near Bachelor Flat, on Sauer Creek, for $2,400. Its a good timber land.

WORTH INVESTIGATING.

Piano Selling that is Abreast the Times and Altogether to the Advantage of Buyers.

Methods of doing business change and improve along with methods of communication. With the telegraph, the railway and the typewriter came facilities for handling business on a tremendous scale and at a tremendous saving. The recent invention of wireless telegraphy and other time saving devices have still further reduced the time required to accomplish really great things.

And the plan of piano selling now adopted by Eilers Piano House is in strict conformity with these latest inventions of quick ways of doing things. This enterprising establishment has put itself for the time being in the place of wholesale agent for individual buyers, and by cutting out the tremendous expense incurred by selling in the regular retail way enables each purchaser to save all the way from $75 to $150, and it figures its profit is just as great, by turning its money so many times.

Eilers Piano House is equipped for selling pianos in tremendous quantities. They can handle 1000 pianos or more with as much facility as they can 100, with their large sales and office force, and a splendidly equipped dray and shipping department. Having branch houses in all the leading towns in Washington, Oregon, Idaho and California, they occupy a commanding position and keep in close touch with the people all over the country and their musical wants, which latter they can fill on the very shortest order, if desired, from their immense warehouse in Portland, although the primary idea in this preient plan of selling, is to deliver direct from the factory to the home.

The plan, known as the co-operative piano clubs, admits 1000 members. Any one may join. The initial payment is small, and is regulated by the club which the piano buyer joins, there being six clubs in all, which embrace 1000 pianos. Fully a third of the membership has already been taken up. People from all over the country are joining. It is by far the best way of buying a piano that has ever been offered. Anyone without a piano will find it to their advantage to investigate this. Store 351 Washington street.

Attorney T. H. Ward, on Tuesday last closed a deal between M. J. Kinney and F. V. Sherman for 320 acres of timber land in 5, 1, west of Columbia City, for $5,000. Sherman is a Seattle capitalist.

There was a mass meeting at the town hall Rainier Monday evening, at which the following ticket was nominated, to be designated as the Independent ticket: Councilmen—Dean Blenchard (indorsed) Lguis Brandt, J. D. Cain, W. D. Plue, Wm. Doherty. Treasurer, M. Nations, Town Marshel, Wm. C. Lee; Poliece Judge, J. A. Shuenson.

The Rainier municipal election occurs next Monday, and with two tickets in the field a lively time is anticipated.
