

LOCAL

Several errors occurred in Perry & Graha...

The steam schooner Casade has been loading...

The cheapest is not always the best; in fact rarely is so...

Miss Daisy Watkins, of this city, was home on a visit last week...

The Portland Oregonian has installed one of the most modern and rapid newspaper presses...

The Portland city council has granted the franchise for the Portland-Forest Grove electric line...

Judge J. C. Moreland of Portland, was a caller at the Mist office on Saturday last...

Attorney Wright, of Portland, was in St. Helens on Saturday last...

H. B. Nicholas, a well known lawyer of Portland, was in this city on Saturday last...

W. C. Fisher, of Rainier, was in St. Helens last week attending circuit court...

Mr. D. J. Switzer, accompanied by Miss Lois Clear, were train passengers for Portland last Friday...

The district convention of the Knights of Pythias and Kathbone Sisters, which was recently held at Astoria, will be held in this city next year...

Mr. G. W. Stapleton, of the firm of Covert & Stapleton, Portland attorneys, was a caller at the Mist office last Saturday...

The St. Helens school boys went to Seppoe last Sunday to beat the Scappoose boys in a game of baseball...

Miss Lulu George was visiting with her parents last week...

Mr. James Dart and Mrs. M. C. Gray visited Portland last Saturday...

Fishing season opens tomorrow, the fifteenth, and there will be about thirty gasoline launches and about ten sail boats engaged in the business at this point...

Miss Leslie Bailey, of Houlton, was in St. Helens bright and early Wednesday morning to catch the train...

The above prices are spot cash, subject to market changes without notice. These goods are guaranteed to be exactly as represented, or money refunded...

IT WAS LOADED. The front of Dr. Ross' new building, which was chared by the big fire, is being repaired.

There was an adjourned term of circuit court held at St. Helens on Saturday last. Quite a number of motions, demurrers, etc., were disposed of and divorces were granted in Bush vs. Bush and in Arthur vs. Arthur...

The block makers at work for Smith & Howard, the Portland contractors, at the Sister's quarry, struck on Wednesday morning for the reason that the contractors had not kept their agreement in regard to the payment of wages due on the fourth day of each month...

Marriage license was granted on Wednesday for the union of Eona Perry and A. N. Coy, of Houlton. Miss Perry is the daughter of C. H. Perry and Mr. A. N. Coy is a brother-in-law of Mr. Belford, foreman of the Western Coopers Company.

Dr. Knoder uses Dr. Green's new and correct method of making artificial teeth. Plates are made by this method fit accurate. 322 Mohawk building, Portland.

First class printing done at this office. We are closing out our entire line of men's and boys' suits to make more room for a larger stock of shoes...

Capt. W. E. Newsum, of Rainier, was a business visitor to St. Helens on Saturday last.

The entertainment given by the boys of the Houlton public school last Wednesday evening, is reported to have been a decided success in every respect, and netted a good sum for the benefit of the baseball team.

GOOD HORSE FOR SALE—Will sell either a seven-year-old mare, weight about 1300 pounds, or a well-broke three-year-old gelding, Percheron sire. Particulars on application. PERRY & GRAHAM, Warriner, Ore.

Hazelwood Cream Co. is making special effort to build up cream routes in Columbia county. Write them if you want to interest them in your neighborhood.

We carry the largest up to date shoe stock in Houlton, with such well known brands as J. Miller and Stilson, the best shoes made. PERRY & GRAHAM, Syrup of White Pine and Tar, the old reliable cough remedy. For sale by A. J. Deming, druggist.

SCHOOL REPORT. Report of district No. 2 for month ending April 7, 1905.

Mr. W. Peterson and family, from Colorado, will live on the farm lately purchased of C. J. Larsen the coming year.

There is a prospect of the blacksmith shop being opened for business by Mr. J. Blandburg, a new comer from Colorado—if the shop can be rented at a reasonable price.

Max Berg Jr. is home from Vancouver for a short time. Otto Berg is employed as waiter on the steamer Potter and is giving excellent service.

At the next meeting of Vail Grange, Thursday April 21st, Miss Mary N. Chase, of New Hampshire, is expected to be present and address Patrons of Husbandry on subjects of special interest to members of the order.

Henry Larsen is making arrangements to spend the fishing season at Astoria and will leave here in a few days.

N. F. Baker has resumed business at his old store and has restocked it throughout. His many friends are glad to see him behind the counter again.

Road supervisor Cooper is making improvements on the road with a force of men and teams. He opened a gravel pit on Robert Fullerton's place near the brick yard where a good quality of gravel can be secured for road purposes.

When the M. E. church was built it was unfortunately placed partly in the county road, the fence in front and several feet of the church is on public road way. The county judge was here Thursday viewing the premises. As to what will be done about it is unsettled at present.

Nels Jensen has lost two cows within a month by insisting on a right of way for feeding purposes on the railroad track.

Mrs. C. W. Adams and daughter Stella, are at Los Angeles, Cal., visiting friends there and other places in the State.

Ballards Horehound Syrup. Immediately relieves hoarse croupy cough; oppressed, rattling rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, Druggist, Sunburg, Wis., writes, May 20, 1902: "I have been selling Ballards' Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by A. J. Deming.

What Did the Wogglebug Say? THE WOGGLEBUG WAS PASSING SWETT'S STORE And stopped awhile to look in, When I heard it say—Now, WHAT DID THE WOGGLEBUG SAY? To every man, woman, or child who guesses the exact words of the Wogglebug, L. Swett will give ten cents in cash or merchandise. It costs nothing to try. All answers must be sent in before Thursday, April 20th, to L. SWETT, Rainier, Or. N. B.—The names of correct guessers and what the Wogglebug said will be published in the next issue of the Mist. A gentle hint: The Wogglebug said 10 words.

Cures Coughs and Colds. Mrs. C. Peterson, of 625 Lake St., Topeka, Kansas, says "Of all cough remedies Ballards' Horehound Syrup is my favorite; it has done and will do all that is claimed for it—speedily cure all coughs and colds—and it is so sweet and pleasant by the taste. Sold by A. J. Deming.

WARREN. Mr. W. Peterson and family, from Colorado, will live on the farm lately purchased of C. J. Larsen the coming year.

There is a prospect of the blacksmith shop being opened for business by Mr. J. Blandburg, a new comer from Colorado—if the shop can be rented at a reasonable price.

Max Berg Jr. is home from Vancouver for a short time. Otto Berg is employed as waiter on the steamer Potter and is giving excellent service.

At the next meeting of Vail Grange, Thursday April 21st, Miss Mary N. Chase, of New Hampshire, is expected to be present and address Patrons of Husbandry on subjects of special interest to members of the order.

Henry Larsen is making arrangements to spend the fishing season at Astoria and will leave here in a few days.

N. F. Baker has resumed business at his old store and has restocked it throughout. His many friends are glad to see him behind the counter again.

Road supervisor Cooper is making improvements on the road with a force of men and teams. He opened a gravel pit on Robert Fullerton's place near the brick yard where a good quality of gravel can be secured for road purposes.

When the M. E. church was built it was unfortunately placed partly in the county road, the fence in front and several feet of the church is on public road way. The county judge was here Thursday viewing the premises. As to what will be done about it is unsettled at present.

Nels Jensen has lost two cows within a month by insisting on a right of way for feeding purposes on the railroad track.

Mrs. C. W. Adams and daughter Stella, are at Los Angeles, Cal., visiting friends there and other places in the State.

Ballards Horehound Syrup. Immediately relieves hoarse croupy cough; oppressed, rattling rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, Druggist, Sunburg, Wis., writes, May 20, 1902: "I have been selling Ballards' Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by A. J. Deming.

What Did the Wogglebug Say? THE WOGGLEBUG WAS PASSING SWETT'S STORE And stopped awhile to look in, When I heard it say—Now, WHAT DID THE WOGGLEBUG SAY? To every man, woman, or child who guesses the exact words of the Wogglebug, L. Swett will give ten cents in cash or merchandise. It costs nothing to try. All answers must be sent in before Thursday, April 20th, to L. SWETT, Rainier, Or. N. B.—The names of correct guessers and what the Wogglebug said will be published in the next issue of the Mist. A gentle hint: The Wogglebug said 10 words.

Cures Coughs and Colds. Mrs. C. Peterson, of 625 Lake St., Topeka, Kansas, says "Of all cough remedies Ballards' Horehound Syrup is my favorite; it has done and will do all that is claimed for it—speedily cure all coughs and colds—and it is so sweet and pleasant by the taste. Sold by A. J. Deming.

WARREN. Mr. W. Peterson and family, from Colorado, will live on the farm lately purchased of C. J. Larsen the coming year.

There is a prospect of the blacksmith shop being opened for business by Mr. J. Blandburg, a new comer from Colorado—if the shop can be rented at a reasonable price.

Max Berg Jr. is home from Vancouver for a short time. Otto Berg is employed as waiter on the steamer Potter and is giving excellent service.

At the next meeting of Vail Grange, Thursday April 21st, Miss Mary N. Chase, of New Hampshire, is expected to be present and address Patrons of Husbandry on subjects of special interest to members of the order.

Henry Larsen is making arrangements to spend the fishing season at Astoria and will leave here in a few days.

N. F. Baker has resumed business at his old store and has restocked it throughout. His many friends are glad to see him behind the counter again.

Road supervisor Cooper is making improvements on the road with a force of men and teams. He opened a gravel pit on Robert Fullerton's place near the brick yard where a good quality of gravel can be secured for road purposes.

When the M. E. church was built it was unfortunately placed partly in the county road, the fence in front and several feet of the church is on public road way. The county judge was here Thursday viewing the premises. As to what will be done about it is unsettled at present.

Nels Jensen has lost two cows within a month by insisting on a right of way for feeding purposes on the railroad track.

Mrs. C. W. Adams and daughter Stella, are at Los Angeles, Cal., visiting friends there and other places in the State.

Ballards Horehound Syrup. Immediately relieves hoarse croupy cough; oppressed, rattling rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, Druggist, Sunburg, Wis., writes, May 20, 1902: "I have been selling Ballards' Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by A. J. Deming.

What Did the Wogglebug Say? THE WOGGLEBUG WAS PASSING SWETT'S STORE And stopped awhile to look in, When I heard it say—Now, WHAT DID THE WOGGLEBUG SAY? To every man, woman, or child who guesses the exact words of the Wogglebug, L. Swett will give ten cents in cash or merchandise. It costs nothing to try. All answers must be sent in before Thursday, April 20th, to L. SWETT, Rainier, Or. N. B.—The names of correct guessers and what the Wogglebug said will be published in the next issue of the Mist. A gentle hint: The Wogglebug said 10 words.

Cures Coughs and Colds. Mrs. C. Peterson, of 625 Lake St., Topeka, Kansas, says "Of all cough remedies Ballards' Horehound Syrup is my favorite; it has done and will do all that is claimed for it—speedily cure all coughs and colds—and it is so sweet and pleasant by the taste. Sold by A. J. Deming.

WARREN. Mr. W. Peterson and family, from Colorado, will live on the farm lately purchased of C. J. Larsen the coming year.

There is a prospect of the blacksmith shop being opened for business by Mr. J. Blandburg, a new comer from Colorado—if the shop can be rented at a reasonable price.

Max Berg Jr. is home from Vancouver for a short time. Otto Berg is employed as waiter on the steamer Potter and is giving excellent service.

At the next meeting of Vail Grange, Thursday April 21st, Miss Mary N. Chase, of New Hampshire, is expected to be present and address Patrons of Husbandry on subjects of special interest to members of the order.

Henry Larsen is making arrangements to spend the fishing season at Astoria and will leave here in a few days.

N. F. Baker has resumed business at his old store and has restocked it throughout. His many friends are glad to see him behind the counter again.

Road supervisor Cooper is making improvements on the road with a force of men and teams. He opened a gravel pit on Robert Fullerton's place near the brick yard where a good quality of gravel can be secured for road purposes.

When the M. E. church was built it was unfortunately placed partly in the county road, the fence in front and several feet of the church is on public road way. The county judge was here Thursday viewing the premises. As to what will be done about it is unsettled at present.

Nels Jensen has lost two cows within a month by insisting on a right of way for feeding purposes on the railroad track.

Mrs. C. W. Adams and daughter Stella, are at Los Angeles, Cal., visiting friends there and other places in the State.

Ballards Horehound Syrup. Immediately relieves hoarse croupy cough; oppressed, rattling rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, Druggist, Sunburg, Wis., writes, May 20, 1902: "I have been selling Ballards' Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by A. J. Deming.

What Did the Wogglebug Say? THE WOGGLEBUG WAS PASSING SWETT'S STORE And stopped awhile to look in, When I heard it say—Now, WHAT DID THE WOGGLEBUG SAY? To every man, woman, or child who guesses the exact words of the Wogglebug, L. Swett will give ten cents in cash or merchandise. It costs nothing to try. All answers must be sent in before Thursday, April 20th, to L. SWETT, Rainier, Or. N. B.—The names of correct guessers and what the Wogglebug said will be published in the next issue of the Mist. A gentle hint: The Wogglebug said 10 words.

Cures Coughs and Colds. Mrs. C. Peterson, of 625 Lake St., Topeka, Kansas, says "Of all cough remedies Ballards' Horehound Syrup is my favorite; it has done and will do all that is claimed for it—speedily cure all coughs and colds—and it is so sweet and pleasant by the taste. Sold by A. J. Deming.

WARREN. Mr. W. Peterson and family, from Colorado, will live on the farm lately purchased of C. J. Larsen the coming year.

There is a prospect of the blacksmith shop being opened for business by Mr. J. Blandburg, a new comer from Colorado—if the shop can be rented at a reasonable price.

Max Berg Jr. is home from Vancouver for a short time. Otto Berg is employed as waiter on the steamer Potter and is giving excellent service.

At the next meeting of Vail Grange, Thursday April 21st, Miss Mary N. Chase, of New Hampshire, is expected to be present and address Patrons of Husbandry on subjects of special interest to members of the order.

Henry Larsen is making arrangements to spend the fishing season at Astoria and will leave here in a few days.

N. F. Baker has resumed business at his old store and has restocked it throughout. His many friends are glad to see him behind the counter again.

Road supervisor Cooper is making improvements on the road with a force of men and teams. He opened a gravel pit on Robert Fullerton's place near the brick yard where a good quality of gravel can be secured for road purposes.

When the M. E. church was built it was unfortunately placed partly in the county road, the fence in front and several feet of the church is on public road way. The county judge was here Thursday viewing the premises. As to what will be done about it is unsettled at present.

Nels Jensen has lost two cows within a month by insisting on a right of way for feeding purposes on the railroad track.

Mrs. C. W. Adams and daughter Stella, are at Los Angeles, Cal., visiting friends there and other places in the State.

Ballards Horehound Syrup. Immediately relieves hoarse croupy cough; oppressed, rattling rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, Druggist, Sunburg, Wis., writes, May 20, 1902: "I have been selling Ballards' Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by A. J. Deming.

What Did the Wogglebug Say? THE WOGGLEBUG WAS PASSING SWETT'S STORE And stopped awhile to look in, When I heard it say—Now, WHAT DID THE WOGGLEBUG SAY? To every man, woman, or child who guesses the exact words of the Wogglebug, L. Swett will give ten cents in cash or merchandise. It costs nothing to try. All answers must be sent in before Thursday, April 20th, to L. SWETT, Rainier, Or. N. B.—The names of correct guessers and what the Wogglebug said will be published in the next issue of the Mist. A gentle hint: The Wogglebug said 10 words.

Cures Coughs and Colds. Mrs. C. Peterson, of 625 Lake St., Topeka, Kansas, says "Of all cough remedies Ballards' Horehound Syrup is my favorite; it has done and will do all that is claimed for it—speedily cure all coughs and colds—and it is so sweet and pleasant by the taste. Sold by A. J. Deming.

WARREN. Mr. W. Peterson and family, from Colorado, will live on the farm lately purchased of C. J. Larsen the coming year.

There is a prospect of the blacksmith shop being opened for business by Mr. J. Blandburg, a new comer from Colorado—if the shop can be rented at a reasonable price.

Max Berg Jr. is home from Vancouver for a short time. Otto Berg is employed as waiter on the steamer Potter and is giving excellent service.

At the next meeting of Vail Grange, Thursday April 21st, Miss Mary N. Chase, of New Hampshire, is expected to be present and address Patrons of Husbandry on subjects of special interest to members of the order.

Henry Larsen is making arrangements to spend the fishing season at Astoria and will leave here in a few days.

N. F. Baker has resumed business at his old store and has restocked it throughout. His many friends are glad to see him behind the counter again.

Road supervisor Cooper is making improvements on the road with a force of men and teams. He opened a gravel pit on Robert Fullerton's place near the brick yard where a good quality of gravel can be secured for road purposes.

When the M. E. church was built it was unfortunately placed partly in the county road, the fence in front and several feet of the church is on public road way. The county judge was here Thursday viewing the premises. As to what will be done about it is unsettled at present.

Nels Jensen has lost two cows within a month by insisting on a right of way for feeding purposes on the railroad track.

Mrs. C. W. Adams and daughter Stella, are at Los Angeles, Cal., visiting friends there and other places in the State.

Ballards Horehound Syrup. Immediately relieves hoarse croupy cough; oppressed, rattling rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, Druggist, Sunburg, Wis., writes, May 20, 1902: "I have been selling Ballards' Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by A. J. Deming.

What Did the Wogglebug Say? THE WOGGLEBUG WAS PASSING SWETT'S STORE And stopped awhile to look in, When I heard it say—Now, WHAT DID THE WOGGLEBUG SAY? To every man, woman, or child who guesses the exact words of the Wogglebug, L. Swett will give ten cents in cash or merchandise. It costs nothing to try. All answers must be sent in before Thursday, April 20th, to L. SWETT, Rainier, Or. N. B.—The names of correct guessers and what the Wogglebug said will be published in the next issue of the Mist. A gentle hint: The Wogglebug said 10 words.

Cures Coughs and Colds. Mrs. C. Peterson, of 625 Lake St., Topeka, Kansas, says "Of all cough remedies Ballards' Horehound Syrup is my favorite; it has done and will do all that is claimed for it—speedily cure all coughs and colds—and it is so sweet and pleasant by the taste. Sold by A. J. Deming.

WARREN. Mr. W. Peterson and family, from Colorado, will live on the farm lately purchased of C. J. Larsen the coming year.

There is a prospect of the blacksmith shop being opened for business by Mr. J. Blandburg, a new comer from Colorado—if the shop can be rented at a reasonable price.

Max Berg Jr. is home from Vancouver for a short time. Otto Berg is employed as waiter on the steamer Potter and is giving excellent service.

At the next meeting of Vail Grange, Thursday April 21st, Miss Mary N. Chase, of New Hampshire, is expected to be present and address Patrons of Husbandry on subjects of special interest to members of the order.

Henry Larsen is making arrangements to spend the fishing season at Astoria and will leave here in a few days.

N. F. Baker has resumed business at his old store and has restocked it throughout. His many friends are glad to see him behind the counter again.

Road supervisor Cooper is making improvements on the road with a force of men and teams. He opened a gravel pit on Robert Fullerton's place near the brick yard where a good quality of gravel can be secured for road purposes.

When the M. E. church was built it was unfortunately placed partly in the county road, the fence in front and several feet of the church is on public road way. The county judge was here Thursday viewing the premises. As to what will be done about it is unsettled at present.

Nels Jensen has lost two cows within a month by insisting on a right of way for feeding purposes on the railroad track.

Mrs. C. W. Adams and daughter Stella, are at Los Angeles, Cal., visiting friends there and other places in the State.

Ballards Horehound Syrup. Immediately relieves hoarse croupy cough; oppressed, rattling rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, Druggist, Sunburg, Wis., writes, May 20, 1902: "I have been selling Ballards' Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by A. J. Deming.

What Did the Wogglebug Say? THE WOGGLEBUG WAS PASSING SWETT'S STORE And stopped awhile to look in, When I heard it say—Now, WHAT DID THE WOGGLEBUG SAY? To every man, woman, or child who guesses the exact words of the Wogglebug, L. Swett will give ten cents in cash or merchandise. It costs nothing to try. All answers must be sent in before Thursday, April 20th, to L. SWETT, Rainier, Or. N. B.—The names of correct guessers and what the Wogglebug said will be published in the next issue of the Mist. A gentle hint: The Wogglebug said 10 words.

Cures Coughs and Colds. Mrs. C. Peterson, of 625 Lake St., Topeka, Kansas, says "Of all cough remedies Ballards' Horehound Syrup is my favorite; it has done and will do all that is claimed for it—speedily cure all coughs and colds—and it is so sweet and pleasant by the taste. Sold by A. J. Deming.

WARREN. Mr. W. Peterson and family, from Colorado, will live on the farm lately purchased of C. J. Larsen the coming year.

There is a prospect of the blacksmith shop being opened for business by Mr. J. Blandburg, a new comer from Colorado—if the shop can be rented at a reasonable price.

Max Berg Jr. is home from Vancouver for a short time. Otto Berg is employed as waiter on the steamer Potter and is giving excellent service.

At the next meeting of Vail Grange, Thursday April 21st, Miss Mary N. Chase, of New Hampshire, is expected to be present and address Patrons of Husbandry on subjects of special interest to members of the order.

Henry Larsen is making arrangements to spend the fishing season at Astoria and will leave here in a few days.

N. F. Baker has resumed business at his old store and has restocked it throughout. His many friends are glad to see him behind the counter again.

Road supervisor Cooper is making improvements on the road with a force of men and teams. He opened a gravel pit on Robert Fullerton's place near the brick yard where a good quality of gravel can be secured for road purposes.

When the M. E. church was built it was unfortunately placed partly in the county road, the fence in front and several feet of the church is on public road way. The county judge was here Thursday viewing the premises. As to what will be done about it is unsettled at present.

Nels Jensen has lost two cows within a month by insisting on a right of way for feeding purposes on the railroad track.

Mrs. C. W. Adams and daughter Stella, are at Los Angeles, Cal., visiting friends there and other places in the State.

Ballards Horehound Syrup. Immediately relieves hoarse croupy cough; oppressed, rattling rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, Druggist, Sunburg, Wis., writes, May 20, 1902: "I have been selling Ballards' Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by A. J. Deming.

What Did the Wogglebug Say? THE WOGGLEBUG WAS PASSING SWETT'S STORE And stopped awhile to look in, When I heard it say—Now, WHAT DID THE WOGGLEBUG SAY? To every man, woman, or child who guesses the exact words of the Wogglebug, L. Swett will give ten cents in cash or merchandise. It costs nothing to try. All answers must be sent in before Thursday, April 20th, to L. SWETT, Rainier, Or. N. B.—The names of correct guessers and what the Wogglebug said will be published in the next issue of the Mist. A gentle hint: The Wogglebug said 10 words.

Cures Coughs and Colds. Mrs. C. Peterson, of 625 Lake St., Topeka, Kansas, says "Of all cough remedies Ballards' Horehound Syrup is my favorite; it has done and will do all that is claimed for it—speedily cure all coughs and colds—and it is so sweet and pleasant by the taste. Sold by A. J. Deming.

WARREN. Mr. W. Peterson and family, from Colorado, will live on the farm lately purchased of C. J. Larsen the coming year.

There is a prospect of the blacksmith shop being opened for business by Mr. J. Blandburg, a new comer from Colorado—if the shop can be rented at a reasonable price.

Max Berg Jr. is home from Vancouver for a short time. Otto Berg is employed as waiter on the steamer Potter and is giving excellent service.

At the next meeting of Vail Grange, Thursday April 21st, Miss Mary N. Chase, of New Hampshire, is expected to be present and address Patrons of Husbandry on subjects of special interest to members of the order.

Henry Larsen is making arrangements to spend the fishing season at Astoria and will leave here in a few days.

N. F. Baker has resumed business at his old store and has restocked it throughout. His many friends are glad to see him behind the counter again.

Road supervisor Cooper is making improvements on the road with a force of men and teams. He opened a gravel pit on Robert Fullerton's place near the brick yard where a good quality of gravel can be secured for road purposes.

When the M. E. church was built it was unfortunately placed partly in the county road, the fence in front and several feet of the church is on public road way. The county judge was here Thursday viewing the premises. As to what will be done about it is unsettled at present.

Nels Jensen has lost two cows within a month by insisting on a right of way for feeding purposes on the railroad track.

Mrs. C. W. Adams and daughter Stella, are at Los Angeles, Cal., visiting friends there and other places in the State.

Ballards Horehound Syrup. Immediately relieves hoarse croupy cough; oppressed, rattling rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, Druggist, Sunburg, Wis., writes, May 20, 1902: "I have been selling Ballards' Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by A. J. Deming.

What Did the Wogglebug Say? THE WOGGLEBUG WAS PASSING SWETT'S STORE And stopped awhile to look in, When I heard it say—Now, WHAT DID THE WOGGLEBUG SAY? To every man, woman, or child who guesses the exact words of the Wogglebug, L. Swett will give ten cents in cash or merchandise. It costs nothing to try. All answers must be sent in before Thursday, April 20th, to L. SWETT, Rainier, Or. N. B.—The names of correct guessers and what the Wogglebug said will be published in the next issue of the Mist. A gentle hint: The Wogglebug said 10 words.

Cures Coughs and Colds. Mrs. C. Peterson, of 625 Lake St., Topeka, Kansas, says "Of all cough remedies Ballards' Hore