Mr. J. Sedgwick, of the N. P. tax commission was before the board of equalization Monday last, asking for a reduction in the assessed valuation of the company's property in this county. The valuation this year is $452,000, and Mr. Sedgwick wishes this reduced so that the company's taxes will not exceed the amount paid last year. Mr. J. W. Morrow, of the Oregon and California was also before the board with a request for a reduction in the valuation of that company's land in this county.

Dr. R. R. Cliff will be at the beach from Friday to Monday until September 10th at his office Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

Syrup of White Pine and Tar, the old reliable cough remedy. For sale by A. J. Deming, druggist.

The Board of Equalization is in session this week and is endeavoring to do its work in a thorough manner. Not only will it reduce valuations where they seem excessive, but it will also raise the valuations where they are manifestly too low. Notices are being sent out in all cases where a raise is contemplated, and parties failing to appear will forfeit their right to protest.

Total valuation of property in Columbia County this year is $4,404,020, as against $2,578,362, an increase of $1,825,658, the raise in valuation being more than the entire valuation for four years ago.
