Mrs. W. B. Hillard and son Mason visited Portland by the Iralda on Saturday. Sherman Miles, grandson of S. A. Miles, spent last week in this city. Mrs. L. L. Decker took the Iralda for Portland on Saturday. Mrs. J. B. Godfrey was a Portland visitor Saturday. The cedar board that has been one of the features of Columbia county's exhibit is to be placed in Oregon's permanent exhibit in the Log building, at the close of the Exposition. A section of it will be polished, and for all time to come it will attract the attention of visitors. It probably will be the largest clear cedar plank ever placed on exhibition, being twenty feet long, fifty two inches wide, and without a knot or crack. Dr. H. R. Cliff will be at the beach from Friday to Monday until September 15th at his office Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Syrup of White Pine and Tar, the old reliable cough remedy. For sale by A. J. Deming, druggist. Mr. John Morgus, wife and child are visiting Mr. Morgus' brother, H. Morgus at this city. The fountain in front of this office has been turned on and hereafter there will be a place to water horses. The Marshall has had considerable trouble making the children leave it alone. When it was turned on there were continually getting trash in it. Mr. Jack Black again went to the hospital, on Saturday last. Miss Lulu George visited Portland on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Laws and sons are spending their vacation at LaCamas, Wash. Mrs. A. J. Deming and children are visiting Mrs. Deming's sister Mrs. J. H. Hollington, at Clatskanie. Mr. and Mrs. Kotel were Iralda passengers for Portland on Monday. Dance in Spence's Opera House Saturday night. For three days last week there was a carnival at the Exposition, somewhat similar to the Madri Gras at Southlands. It was under the direction of the exhibitors at the Exposition, hundreds of prizes were awarded, and the evening pageants on both land water were both notably brilliant. The stove factory closed down last Saturday at noon, to give the boys a chance to go to the fair. Most of them are going to spend a few days in Portland and then heading. A number of citizens of Clatskanie and neighborhood have purchased and brought to that city as fine a specimen of the English Coach stallion as can be had anywhere. The purchase price understood to have been $3,000. He is three year old, a perfect bay, and weighs over 1500 pounds. The English stallion is the type of all purpose horse used by our farmers—a servicable animal and a good looker, suited for either the farm or the track. The Albany Democrat claims that the people of the county has conspired to keep Col. Hoyer and the Capital Journal claiming that Barnum and Bailey exhibition was the greatest show on the coast. Mr. Waldo, State Lecturer for the second of husbandry, will address the Grand Island Grange the first Sunday in October. The general public is invited to attend. Mr. J. B. Godfrey is having a porch on the south side of his residence that is euphemistically termed "Lansy Hill."

The change in the route of the side from St. Helens to Houlton is resisted by all pedestrians who go away. Clatskanie's contribution to the Columbia county exhibit this week includes six vines six feet and eight inches in length six Duchess apples weighing one and six, several boxes of ripe strawberries, hops on the vines and numerous other excellent samples of Columbia county's products, not omitting some of the immense Burbank potatoes. For the benefit of the large numbers of people who are unable to visit the exhibition in the daytime, it has been arranged by the exhibitors in the machinery and electricity building to keep their exhibits open to the public Tuesday and Friday evenings of each week until nine o'clock. On these days the building will be brilliantly illuminated with electric lights, and the exhibitors plan to have electric displays, showing the advances in lighting methods during the last few years, in both indoor and outdoor illumination. The Grand Master of the Grange in his speech at Clatskanie that, concerning the number of acres under cultivation, Columbia has the best exhibit at Lewis and Clark Exposition of any city in Oregon. Come and see for well. The Grange picnic at Clatskanie last Saturday was a very pleasant affair. The attendance was not as large as would have been, owing doubtless to the fact that the farmers are kept at their work and the fear of fire, but was an excellent dinner served to them in the afternoon there was a literary program followed by an excellent address by Past Grand Master Lewis, and short talks by a number of strangers, including Rev. Hawkins Prof. Collins, of Clatskanie. Dr. president in his usual pleasant and interesting manner.

VERNONIA ITEMS

Rev. J. O. Coleman and daughter May went to Mist Saturday. Mr. Coleman preached at Mist and Natal Sunday. N. A. Perry and daughter Gladys, of Houlton, and Will Price and wife of Scappoose, visited friends hereabouts last week. Mrs. Carson and children, of Portland, visited with Mrs. J. G. Pringle over Sunday of last week. Chas. and Alice Malmsten who have been ranching it for two or three weeks, taking care of E. E. Nickerson's interests while he and family took a drive up the Willamette valley, taking in the fair on their return, moved back home Monday. Miss Lizzie Harley will teach the Hopewell school in Yamhill county the coming year. She will have quite a large school, and a term of eight months. Claude Chamberlin, for the past week has been at work on the ranch of Harry Clark, of Portland, getting things in readiness for comfortable living. Mr. Clark and family expect to move about the first of November to make the ranch their permanent home. Tell Soul is at Mist this week helping J. E. Dow improve his place. J. B. Wilkes and family, of Hillsboro, took their outing in the Nehalem last week, visiting the families of E. G. Shannahan, H. G. Downing and other friends in this vicinity. Mrs. I. P. Spencer and son Robert, Mrs. Frank Tracey, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Schoonover, Misses Lois and Laura Ballard, Mrs. B. M. Emmons and others from near here, went down the river Monday to the Johnson hop yards, to be gone a couple of weeks. The "racket" in Justice Sheely's court Monday, was over the shooting of a couple of steers belonging to Oscar Lindstrom. The trial is set for Saturday, at which time it is expected that Prosecuting Attorney, W. H. Powell, will be here, and also an attorney for the defense. Two new timber buyers were here last week, scouring the country to find some good timber land for sale at a very low price. They said they had a half a million to invest and wanted to buy several thousand acres in a body. Impossible, gentlemen, unless you buy out some other speculators at an advanced price. So! Our comment of last week, concerning the R. R. was not in accordance with the facts, and we hasten to make correction. The work between Hillsboro and Banks did stop because of two partners of the Atlas Construction company pulling out and leaving the work, for some reason. Assistant Engineer Davis was here last week spying out the road across the divide between the Nehalem and Rock Creek. He informs us that the road will be built as soon as the construction company can be reorganized.

RAINIER

Mrs. A. M. Houlton, of San Francisco, was in St. Helens Wednesday, looking after business interests here. She and the children are visiting the big fair. Up to date 183 hunters' licenses have been issued in this county. County Clerk Henderson paid a visit to Portland on Wednesday to procure the books for the initiation of the Turrens system of registering land titles, which provides that any party may by filing a proper application in the circuit court, followed by published notices, and proceedings procure a decree of court quieting title. The clerk makes a certificate of the court's findings, this is filed with the registrar of titles—who is the clerk or recorder—and the registrar then makes out a certificate of title and gives a duplicate thereof to the owner, and thereafter no recording of deeds is necessary, as upon each transfer the owner's certificate is surrendered to the clerk and a new one issued to the purchaser. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Beagle, of Ketchikan, Alaska, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Flagg for a few days. Misses Gertrude and Effie Metz and Mrs. J. T. Creiter and daughter, of Whatcom County, Washington, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Gray, of this city, during the past week. Mrs. Creiter is Mrs. Gray's sister. I now have a nice assortment of paints, oils, varnishes, stains, enamels, brushes, etc. Tin and granite ware, stove pipe etc. Groceries, Hay, Grain, Flour, etc. M. C. GRAY, St. Helens.

Many a millionaire would be glad to swap places with the humblest, hard-working, contented citizen.—Gresham Record. Send a real nice looking intelligent one over this way, Mr. Record. He can have our place.—Signal. Do you want Lewis and Clark souvenir plates. The county owns about six dozen of these beautiful plates, and I will sell them at 25 cents each at the close of the fair. They are now being used as fruit plates. They are green with gilt borders and have the coat of arms of the State of Oregon in the center. No better souvenir can be obtained. If you want one or more send your order, accompanied by the cash, to E. H. Flagg, St. Helens, and be quick about it, for they won't last long. Mr. James Dart, who has been quite ill for several weeks, is again able to be about. Landlord Cloninger, of the St. Helens Hotel, is suffering from an attack of the gripe. James P. M. Ayres and wife, of Hannibal, Missouri, are visiting his brother's family near Yankton. The two brothers had not met for thirty years. Today they are visiting the great exposition and the Missourian is being shown the products of Oregon. Riemenschneider returned to her home in this city Tuesday night after spending two months visiting friends in Eugene. Miss Esther Silva leaves to-morrow morning for Kansas where she will visit relatives. She will be accompanied as far as Iowa by Miss Grace Vogelsang who leaves Rainier for her home in that state.

SCAPPOOSE

Welcome rain came Monday evening. Corn cutting is under way and the yield is average. Lumber shipping by rail is steadily increasing. Members of Charity Lodge of Artisans, of Glencoe, Or. paid Scappoose Assembly a neighborly call last Saturday. Several Scappoose babies will be seen at the baby show next Saturday. Messrs Collins, Frakes, and West are preparing to show herds of fine stock at the fair. Several Scappoose people visited the fair this week and say that Columbia county's booth is quite attractive and draws considerable attention. Henry Collins has returned to his school at Hankato, for the winter. School opened last week with Miss Allen as principal and her sister as junior teacher. W. L. Goin measures calico at Watts & Price's store these days. Gus Lang is carrying mail on route No. 1 since O. W. Allen has resigned. J. F. McDonough is finishing a substantial barn, and so is Albert Johnson. Jas Leonard has his new residence well under way, and I. G. Wickstrom is laying the foundation for a fine large dwelling. Supervisor Engelert has begun gravel handling preparatory for winter. Mrs. Lucinda Proebstel, of La Grande, Ore., returned home this week after a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. R. Watts. Messrs Perry, Price, and Campbell, local pictorial artists, paid a professional visit to the placid waters of Nehalem valley last week, with results, four days of tramping, lots of dust, a lot of bacon and beans, but nary a fish did they land.

QUEER ORDERS.

Here are some orders recently received by a druggist in a neighboring city: "You will please give the little boy 5 cents worth of Auntie Toxyn for to gargle baby's throat, and oblige." "Dear Daechter, please give five cents worth of opcum for to throw up in a five months' old babe. N. B.—The babe has a sore stomach." "I have a cute pain in my child's diaphragm. Please give my son something to release it." "My little baby has cut up its father's parish plaster. Send an anecdote quick as possible by the enclosed card." "I had a hot time in my incides and wish I would like to be extinguished. What is good for to extinguish it? The enclosed money is for the price of the extinguisher. Hurry please."
