Mrs. Lizzie Butler has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Miles, during the past week. Mr. H. Mergins is building a commodious warehouse on Columbia street. Miss Ruth Richardson is visiting Miss Clara Beagle at Warren.

The planing mill of I. G. Wickstrom, at Scappoose, was destroyed by fire last week, the loss being about $5,000, without insurance. The mill will probably be rebuilt in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. James Sheldon, of this city, returned on Sunday from Portland for San Francisco, to spend the winter.

To you want one of those souvenir plates at 25 cents each. Send your orders to R. H. Plagg, St. Helens. They are being sold to reimburse the county and are the best souvenirs you can have, because they have upon them the coat of arms of the State of Oregon. Mr. J. S. Millard, who was taken to the insane asylum at Salem, from this city on Thursday last, died there Friday night. Mr. Millard had been a resident of St. Helens and vicinity for over twenty years. He was a good citizen-hardworking and noted for his integrity, and it seems very sad that he should end his days in such a manner, after having amassed sufficient means to keep him in comfort. He had relatives in Spokane. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Blakesley, of Portland, are visiting relatives in this city. Mrs. H. R. Cliff was a Portland visitor on Tuesday last.

Mr. I. T. Kreiter, of Bellingham, Wash., a brother-in-law of Mrs. M. C. Gray, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Gray. He left for Portland Monday in company with Mr. Gray for a several days visit to the Exposition. Old papers for sale, cheap, at this office. FRANK FLAGG, Agent Evening Telegram. Moses Beagle, Hattan, Annie Kettel, Sallie Ellis, Nellie Laves, Annie Quick and Edna Harris returned on Saturday last from the hop fields of old Yamhill, near Dayton. The girls report having had a very enjoyable time, but they seemed exceedingly pleased to get back home. The money they earned will at once be put in circulation, and no doubt they will visit the fair on Portland Day.

Miss Hazel Butler spent Sunday with relatives in this city. Late returns of the stock show make it plain that Mr. Harry West, with his Jersey herd, achieved great success, exceeding all competitors except the great Lohd herd. Mr. West took fourth on aged herd, second on young herd, second on get of one sire, fourth on produce of one cow. This is a remarkable show considering the small number Mr. West exhibited and the strong competition he had to contend with.

I now have a nice assortment of paints, oils, varnishes, stains, emulsions, brushes, etc. Tin and granite ware, stove pipe etc. Groceries, Hay, Grain, Flour, etc. M. C. GRAY, St. Helens.

Mr. L. J. Sheets, of Rainier, sends to the Columbia County exhibit a crosscut saw handle of his invention, on which he has applied for a patent. No screws are needed, the grip being held in place by a clamp. It appears to be a very useful device, and had it been sent in time to do so a medal could have been secured. Syrup of White Pine and Tar, the old reliable cough remedy. For sale by A. J. Deming, druggist. You will have to hurry if you want any of those souvenir plates. They are the best and cheapest souvenirs that you can have of the great exposition which will soon be a thing of the past. They have the coat of arms of Oregon in the center, with a ground of green and a border of gold. Order from R. H. Plagg and you can get them immediately after the Exposition. The number is limited. The price 25 cents.

Violins and all stringed instruments repaired by me. All work guaranteed. Address me at St. Helens. GTS HEGELE. Dr. Knoder uses Dr. Green's new and correct method of making artificial teeth. Plates are made by this method to fit accurately. 322 Mohawk Building, Portland.

Mr. David Henshaw, of Houlton, con- tributes Northern Spy and Ben Davis apples, popcorn and quinces to Columbia County's exhibit this week. Mr. Nels Peterson, of Mist, sends Gravenwicks, Kings and an unnamed variety. Mr. J. A. Beagle, of Warren, sends Glouin Mundie, Mr. Elliot of Felshaw, send-corn fourteen feet high, Wm. Van, of Mist sends immense potatoes, T. A. Cloninger, of St. Helens, sends crook-neck squashes, Mr. J. B. Godfrey, of St. Helens, sends Sweetwater grapes that excel anything shown in the Agricultural building, Mrs. D. J. Switzer sends fresh Canadian wild blackberries, the Nook ranch at Warren, sends mammoth corn that excites the envy of the Missourians, and Mrs. H. L. Colvin, of Marsland, sends a box of choice dahlias to ornament the booth. There has been so many contributions this week that it is probable that we have omitted some, but if so it is unintentional. Mr. J. P. McKibben, who resided here during the fire and lost considerable property, was in St. Helens Saturday to visit his sons Bert and Henry. Mr. McKibben is a victim of the civil war and as he is suffering from partial paralysis he intends to avail himself of the right he has so well earned, and become an inmate of The Soldier's Home at Roseburg.

CLATSKANIE The Rev. J. K. Hawkins, minister at the Methodist church at this place, has been assigned to the McMinnville M. E. church by the conference held at Albany. Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins have made many friends in the past five years that they have been stationed here, who regret their removal from this place. Many strangers are in town this week, some looking for work, some for home- steads, some for timber claims, some are buying land while others are looking for business opportunities. There is room for all; come on strangers, and see what a country we have here. We can raise any thing in immense quantities that will grow in this climate; as for timber, this county beats the world. Come and take a look at it before buying elsewhere. The business opportunities can't be beat anywhere. Good wages are paid the working men, best school between Portland and Astoria. Come and see us, we will treat you white.

Many persons expect to take in the exposition on Portland Day from this part of the country. Why not have a day set aside for Clatskanie Day before it's too late. It is said by some of the boys that war has been declared by some of the Nehalem- ites, and that the rattle of musketry will soon be heard at some point in the Nehalem country, and that the Red Cross are making extensive preparations for the care of the wounded. We have not learned the cause of the trouble, but one fellow told us that some one living near St. Helens was kicking over the actions of the county court, in making the grade over the mountain between Clatskanie and Nehalem, and that a few crack brained cranks in the upper part of the county thought the county court would bankrupt the county if they didn't quit fixing the roads in the lower part of the county, that the county crib ought not to be opened to any clique or faction, if less they lived in or near St. Helens. If such conditions do exist, the said Nehalem- ites as well as every other voter in the county should see to it that their guns are clean and ammunition dry, and when election time comes that the enemy should be put to route and all impurities should be cleaned and scoured with soap from the Rainier soap factory.

Dr. Portland Wednesday, as well as the sights of the city. Mrs. Wm. Pringle, of the Nehalem, was in the city Saturday attending to some business and shopping with our merchants. Mr. S. Lindgren, formerly of the Nehalem, but now of Grants Pass, was in the city Wednesday looking after his property interests here and taking in the sights of the city. It is said that a new lodge, the Degree of Releka I O O F, was organized in this city last week. We have heard it reported on the streets that the Redmen are going to give a smoker in this city on the fourth of October, and that the affair will be grand, that a war dance, was on the tapis, and that a grand potlatch held, and that the old chief Tigeratweenatossamequin would be present in war paint and moccasins, dance a jig, and entertain the boys in good style. If any Redmen should read this, it will be an invitation to attend on that occasion and get a black eye, and see old Skookum.

VERNONIA ITEMS.

Mrs. S. A. Hooford is visiting in Portland and doing the exposition. Marley Redmond made a business trip to Houlton the first of last week. Ed Sessman has been carrying the mail at this end of the route, this week. T. B. Denslow and Arthur Johnson went to Portland Monday to see the stock show and other sights of the great exposition. Willard Tucker, who had been carrying the mail for two weeks, left Monday of last week for Houlton where he will visit friends for a few days and then go to his home at Newport for the winter.

Mrs. D. W. Case, of Pittsburg, who had been visiting friends and relatives in Portland and other points for a couple of weeks, returned to her home on Tuesday. She caught a glimpse of the great fair while out. D. W. Keasey our good looking P. M. went to Banks on Monday of last week, bringing back a load of flour for his store. Willburn Hall, wife and smaller children, returning from the hopfields near Saleu, spent a day or two in Portland the first of the week seeing the fair, coming to Rainier Wednesday where they visited with old friends, and from thence on home Saturday last via Clatskanie.

Mr. and Mrs. Olf Malmsten went out to Portland Friday last to attend the exposition and the stock show in connection therewith. They also attended the latter part of the great temperance congress held in Portland last week. Miss Lizzie McPherson who had been visiting Portland relatives and enjoying the many good things at the Lewis and Clark fair for three or four weeks, returned to her home near Keasey on Wednesday last.

The Portland papers were full of talk about our Nehalem R. R., the past week, prophesying that trains would be running the first ten miles within forty days, if—Well trust the "ifs" will all "clear the track," and the toot of the locomotive may be heard at a near by date. Mrs. Hatfield has been engaged to teach the Vernonia school and Mrs. Emmons the Tucker school this winter. The new seats for the town school have been purchased and the directors will have them in place by the time school opens.

We are informed that we are to have a sawmill in operation within three miles of our city, in the near future. The proprietors will be T. M. North and J. D. Baker, and the mill, which is small one, will be set up in timber belonging to the latter. It is the intention of these gentlemen to cut door and window stuff from cedar for the Portland market but they may do a little work for local trade should there be any demand. We trust they may find this new enterprise a genuine pocket filler of golden nuggets.

ABSCESSES, with a few exceptions are indicative of consumption or debility. W. H. Harrison, Cleveland, Miss. writes, Aug 15 1902: "I want to say a word of praise for Ballard's Snow Liniment. I stepped on a nail which caused the cords of my leg to contract and an abscess to rise in my knee, and the doctor told me that I would have a stiff leg so one day I went to J. F. Lord's drug store—who is now in Denver, Colo—he recommended a bottle of Snow Liniment. I got a 50c size and it cured my leg. It is the best in the world." Sold by A. J. Deming.

NEHALEM'S RAILROAD.

Backed by Ample Capital and Ability, It is Sure to Go. (Oregonian)

E. E. Lytle announces that he will build the Portland, Tillamook & Nehalem Railroad, which is now tied up at its first 20 miles of road through the tangle with the Atlas Construction Company. Since the retirement of Mr. Lytle from the Columbia Southern and the subsequent statement that it was his intention to engage in further railroad construction work in the state, there has been much speculation as to where his activities would first make themselves felt.

The announcement of Mr. Lytle's connection with the Portland, Nehalem & Tillamook was not made as a public utterance, but in the course of a meeting of the transportation committee of the Chamber of Commerce, called to consider the feasibility of providing for further transportation by the Open River Association. Several leading business men were present at the meeting, among them being Mr. Lytle, who, while discussing the meeting, said it would be inconvenient for him to become active in the plans under discussion, owing to other interests, the chief of which was the Portland & Nehalem road, which it was his intention to construct.

His Associates Not Known It is not known who is working with Mr. Lytle in his efforts to rescue the road from the trouble into which it has fallen but it is safe to presume that ample capital is behind the proposition, or he would not have made the announcement. Edward Records, of the Atlas Construction Company, is at Portland, recovering from an operation, and has not been able to attend to business for some time. It is expected, however, that Mr. Lytle and his associates will call upon Mr. Records tomorrow and enter into negotiations by which the control of the road will be transferred to the new financiers.

The Atlas Construction Company began the construction of 20 miles of the new line, extending from Hillsboro, some time ago, but was unable, or did not pay its men at the end of the month, with the result that the work is now tied up. It is expected that by the middle of the end of next week the affairs of the company will have been straightened out until some official statement can be made, revealing the purpose of Mr. Lytle definitely, and telling who it is that is associated with him.

Efforts in the Past Prior to this time many efforts have been made to construct a road into the Nehalem country, which is recognized to be one of the richest undeveloped regions of the Northwest. William Reid well known as a promoter, and many other prominent men have been interested in the proposition and have used their efforts to induce capital to invest in the construction. Up to this time there has been no great response and no very definite or certain management, but the announcement made by Mr. Lytle dispels further doubt, provided his plans carry and he actually does take charge of the construction. He has the money behind him, possesses the confidence of his associates and has the experience and the executive ability to handle such work with success. From statements recently made by those known to be interested in the construction it is believed that the work will be commenced in a very short time and the task hurried through to completion.

The Nehalem country is one of the richest in the entire state, or the North west, while the Tillamook district is just as favored. It is estimated that there are 50,000,000,000 feet of timber in both the districts, which are composed of practically 884,954 acres of land. This country is all tributary to Portland and is situated from 13 to 30 miles from the city. Besides the timber lands there are many highly improved farms and dairy ranches, which yield produce as fine as any grown in the state. On the line of the proposed road are situated vast tracts of lowlands which have produced 30,000 pounds of oysters to the acre.

In the Tillamook district it is estimated there are 17,117,000,000 feet of timber, or enough to keep Portland mills, at their present rate of consumption, busy for 30 years. Besides these natural resources there are 64 cheese and butter factories, while there are valuable mineral and other resources yet undeveloped.

The Tillamook and Nehalem valleys offer what is perhaps the richest district in the Northwest for development. A road into the country would be vastly profitable to the community and would be a great success as an investment. The statement from Mr. Lytle that he will construct the road at an early date, will therefore raise high hopes in the minds of all the residents of the interested district.

Are You Engaged? Engaged people should remember, that after marriage many quarrels may be avoided by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters. "For five years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried electric bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." Perry & Graham sells and guarantees them at 50c a bottle.
