The above was clipped bodily from a two-column announcement by The Evening Telegram of a $5000 prize contest it has just instituted to obtain new subscribers.

This sweeping tribute was absolutely unsolicited. As ALL the business colleges of Portland use the advertising columns of The Telegram the Behnke-Walker College being by no means the largest advertisers-the sweeping nature of this indorsement came as a great surprise. It was in no sense a paid advertisement, but was the verdict of that great evening daily—its fair and impartial judgment after having investigated best business colleges in the west.
