Mr. George Morrow, of Goble, was in the city Monday last.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Perry, of Houlton, spent Thanksgiving with relatives at Scappoose.

Mr. and Mrs. David Davis, and Annie and Amy George, were Thanksgiving visitors to relatives in St. Helens.

School report cards—the very best form—$1 per hundred, with envelopes.

Mr. Wm. Ketel was a Portland visitor to his brother at St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, during the past week.

The St. Helens public school sent a substantial contribution to the Boys and Girls Aid Society in Portland. It consisted of apples, potatoes, canned fruit, clothes, etc., and filled two large boxes.

Syrup of White Pine and Tar, the old reliable cough remedy. For sale by A. J. Deming, druggist.

WOODMEN AT WARREN—The Warren Lodge, Woodmen of the World, gave a very enjoyable entertainment and dance last Wednesday night. The attendance was large, quite a number being present from St. Helens and Houlton.

Violins and all stringed instruments repaired by me. All work guaranteed. Address meat St. Helens.

GUS HEGELE.

Mr. Rudolph Ketel returned Monday from St. Vincent's Hospital, Portland. His injured eye has been removed and will soon be replaced by an artificial one. Mr. Ketel takes his loss philosophically and believes that in a short time he will be able to resume his work.

Mr. Frank Bishop, of Goble, was a business visitor to St. Helens on Saturday last, securing abstracts to a number of pieces of timber land in that vicinity for which he has negotiated sales to the Columbia Timber Company.

Mrs. Otis Hayes returned Monday from the hospital in Portland, where she was operated upon for appendicitis. The operation was entirely successful and she will soon be restored to full health.

The Forest Grove Times reports that R. Holscher, a successful grape raiser of Dwyer's Hill, Washington County, Ore., this year marketed about 5,000 baskets of grapes, mostly Concord.

I now have a nice assortment of paints, oils, varnishes, stains, enamels, brushes, etc. Tin and granite ware, stove pipe etc. Groceries, Hay, Grain, Flour, etc.

M. C. GRAY, St. Helens.

ON THE CORVALLIS TEAM—Mr. Chas. Little spent Sunday last with his grandmother at Houlton, returning Monday to school at the Agricultural College, Corvallis. Mr. Little is right guard of the Corvallis football team, and played in the recent game with the University of Washington, when our Oregon "farmers" walked all over their northern competitors.

Lost, Strayed, or Stolen, from my place on upper Tide creek, one 3-year-old Durham bull, color red and white, white forehead, no brand on it. Reward will be paid to parties who can give information about it. FRED A. BACKER, Goble, Ore.

THE ARTISANS TO-NIGHT—Kalama Assembly, United Artisans, is to visit the lodge at Houlton this (Friday) evening. They will bring their famous goat along and he is expected to make it lively for a large class of initiates. A supper and dance is on the program.

WILL RECOVER—Mr. Smith, who was severely injured recently while at work in a tie camp, and sent to the hospital in Portland with the expectation that he would die there, was in St. Helens recently to have his injuries attended to, and will undoubtedly recover.

EYE REMOVED—Mr. Rudolph Ketel, who recently lost the sight of one of his eyes by an accident while at work in the Western Coopersage factory at Houlton, had the eye taken out last week, fear being entertained that it would injure his sound optic.

COOK STOVE FOR SALE CHEAP—A good second-hand cook stove and two joints of pipe for sale very cheap. A bargain for anyone wanting a stove. Call at this office for information.

DANCE AT SCAPPOOSE—The St. Helens folks who attended the dance at Scappoose Thanksgiving night report having had a very enjoyable time and are especially enthusiastic in praise of the supper served by the hotel people. There was a very large attendance and credit is given the managers, Messrs. Bulch and Brown, for the manner in which the dance was conducted.

Various Fighting "For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash., I had a bitter battle with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won, and cured my disease, by the use of Electric Bitters. I enthusiastically recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold under guarantee to do as the name for you, by Perry & Graham, Houlton, at 50c a bottle. Try them today.

BIG SCHOONER COMING—Fred P. Baumgartner, agent for the California and Oregon Steamship Company, informs the Evening Telegram that his principals have chartered a schooner with a capacity of 1,100,000 feet, to load lumber at St. Helens for San Pedro. She is supposed to have sailed from San Francisco Thursday and should arrive some time during the coming week.

PAINTING, Papering and Freezing. Estimates given free. Inquire Mr. C. Gray for further particulars.

A. B. CULBERTSON, St. Helens.

REAL ESTATE BREAK—Transfers of real estate in all parts of this county are more frequent than heretofore, especially in the matter of timber tracts, which are being rapidly bought up by mill men.

Mr. Quick, of the Columbia County Abstract and Trust Company, is literally flooded with work in this line. The timber is passing out of the hands of speculators and small holders, and is being acquired by those who will convert it into lumber.

I have money to loan on approved real estate security.

W. H. POWELL, St. Helens, Oregon.

FINED TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS—John West, a saloonkeeper of Clatskanie, was brought before Recorder Freeman last Thursday charged with permitting minors to frequent his saloon. A jury trial was had, W. H. Powell appearing for the city and Attorney Smith, of Astoria, for the defendant. Both sides of the case were thoroughly tried, a verdict of guilty rendered, and a fine of $25 assessed, with costs. The complaint was made by the city marshal, Mr. McDonald.

AN IMPORTANT DEAL—Messrs. Godfrey and Quick, of this city, are busily engaged making out the abstracts for an important timber transfer about to be consummated in this county. Six thousand acres are involved, and the average price is said to be $60 per acre. The present owners are Messrs. Melville, Giltner, Mann & Montgomery, Charles Ladd, and a number of others. The land is situated on the north fork of the Scappoose, in section 4 north, range 2 west. Taking this in connection with the statement of Mr. Lytle, who is building the railroad from Hillsboro, that one terminus of this road would be at Scappoose, this deal is significant. It means great activity in the south end of Columbia County, and that in less than two years Scappoose bay will be a great log harbor.

Stolen, from my ranch four miles west of Scappoose, Ore., the night of Nov. 14, one sorrel mare, about six years old, white spot in forehead, roach mane, white spot on right side of neck, saddle marks, branded T-E on left shoulder, weight about 900 pounds. $150 reward for the return of her to N. C. HANSON, Scappoose, Oregon.

CLARK IN TROUBLE—It is reported that Mr. H. H. Clark, formerly manager of the Noon ranch, at Warren, is to be called to account for the manner in which he managed that property. It is charged that Clark failed to account properly for money he handled, and that he ran the ranch in his own interest rather than in the interest of his employer. Among other things it is said that he did outside work with the threshing machine, charged the expense up to the estate, and put in his own pocket the money received for the work; also that he was in the habit of having the employes sign blank receipts, which is a very bad habit and likely to arouse suspicion.

DAIRY ASSOCIATION MEETING—The annual meeting of the Oregon Dairy-men's Association will be held at Forest Grove December 21 and 22. This is the one occasion of the year when those interested in the development of the dairy industry in Oregon get together, and there ought to be a big crowd of both dairymen and creamery men on hand at the meeting. Forest Grove is a fine place for such a meeting, and its enterprising citizens will do their share towards making the meeting a success.

LOADING TIES—The barkentine Tropic Bird is loading ties at Muckle Bros' wharf in this city. The Tropic Bird was originally built for the south sea trade, and for several years carried the mails from San Francisco to Tahiti. She is heavily sparred and her great spread of canvas is too much for her hull in the winds she encountered in her passage here from San Pedro, so that she had a very difficult time making the passage. Captain Wickman did not wait for a tug at the bar, but sailed his vessel in. She took part of her cargo at the Eastern and Western Lumber Company's mill. As the loading of the ties has to be done by hand she will be here the rest of the week.

LOSERS THREE FINGERS—Bonnie Lewis, while at work feeding hay into the silo at Hegeler's dairy ranch at Scappoose, on Tuesday last, had the misfortune to lose three of the fingers of his left hand. It appears that he was watching the man on the other side of the silo, believing that he was working carelessly, when he got his own fingers into the cutter, the knife severing three near the first joint and clipping a small piece off of the fourth. He was brought to St. Helens for treatment, and the three fingers amputated below the first joint.

In a daydream we heard the sawmill buzzing—but it was only Prier's wood-saw.

Tortures of a Preacher The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed, and I tried many remedies without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased condition of throat and lungs. At Perry & Graham's, Houlton, Price 50c and $1, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Taken Up. Came into my enclosure about May 1st, one 2-year-old speckled bull. Will owner please prove property, pay damages, and remove from my premises. JOHN JOHNSON, Scappoose, Ore.

Born—December 5, to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pusey of Warren, a son.

Mrs. Wm. Muckle, of Rainier, spent several days visiting relatives in this city the past week.

Mr. M. P. Hazen and wife and Mr. J. A. Beegle and wife, of Warren, were business visitors to the county seat the past week.

Mr. J. A. Wikstrom, of Yankton, was a business visitor to St. Helens on Monday last.

The men who could not purchase a mill site at St. Helens are building at Rainier and will soon be running, employing men and adding to the prosperity of that community. Meantime this town mozeys along and a team or two comes in from the country every day.

RAISING THE DEBT—The effort to raise the debt of $1,000 due upon the Methodist church building in this city is meeting with good success, and we hope before long to be able to announce that the indebtedness has been entirely cleared. It is a business proposition that should appeal to every resident of St. Helens. This city is either to go ahead or go backward, and the result rests with our people more than with any outsiders.

M. E. CHURCH SERVICES—Rev. Kemp will occupy the pulpit at the M. E. church Sunday evening at 7:30. He will also occupy the pulpit at Houlton at 10:45 Sunday morning, instead of 11:30, as heretofore.

HOULTON CITY ELECTION—The citizens of Houlton held their annual city election last Tuesday evening, with the following result: Councilmen, N. A. Perry, W. E. Belford, Chas. Heine, A. H. Mathews, Thos. Mills; Recorder, L. E. Bailey; Treasurer, Chas. Graham; Marshal, J. Farmer.

K. OF P. ELECTION—Avon Lodge, K. of P., of St. Helens, held its election of officers last Tuesday evening, with the following result: Chancellor, Commander, I. Copeland; Vice Chancellor, E. E. Quick; Keeper of Records and Seal, W. A. Harris; Master of Finance, C. W. Blakesley; Master of Exchequer, M. C. Gray; Prelate, W. H. Powell; Inner Guard, Rudolph Ketel; Outer Guard, Martin White; Master of Arms, H. R. Smith; Trustee (for three years), E. E. Quick; Master of the Work, W. B. Dillard.

MRS. REEDER'S WILL IN COURT—The will of Catherine Reeder, a pioneer of Sauvie's Island, well known to many of the older residents of this county, is being contested by all of the heirs except J. L. Reeder, on the ground that it was procured by undue influence and is unjust to the contestants, in that it gives one-half of the entire property to J. L. Reeder, dividing the remainder equally among the other heirs. Mrs. Reeder had been sick for nearly a year prior to her death and it is asserted that she was not in proper mental condition to make a valid will, and that she did not realize what she was doing. The matter is to be settled in the courts, and it is safe to say that after the lawyers are through with it there will not be so much to quarrel over.

A Fearful Fate It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Henry Colson, of Masonville, Ia., "that for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Protruding Piles, Buckler's Ictha Salve is the best cure made." Ask your best for cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at Perry & Graham's, Houlton.

WARREN

The Woolmen of the World entertained given in the Baker Hall was a decided success. The boys look fine in their new uniforms. The following officers were elected at their last night of meeting: Con. Com., A. F. Baker; Past Con. Com., W. C. Cooper; Advisor, K. F. Larsen; Banker, P. H. Lund; Secretary, Lew Davies; Marshal, E. Garrison; Sentry, Louis Chezey; Guard, John Reiberg.

Presiding Elder Hollingshead held the first quarterly conference of the Warren circuit last Friday. Rev. Lew Davies is in charge of this work this year. The circuit includes the churches at Linnnton, Scappoose and Warren.

Mr. N. F. Baker is building an eight-room house for Mr. F. M. Hoyt. When it is finished it will be an ideal country home. The workmanship reflects great credit upon the builder.

Arthur Leonard died at Houlton Dec. 20, aged two months and ten days. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Lew Davies.

Mr. J. S. Bacon has his son-in-law, Mr. Ed. Collins, clerking for him. Ed. has many friends, as he is always good natured and accommodating.

Walter Bacon is at home on a visit. The public school at Warren is well attended and the teachers are giving entire satisfaction.

John Johnson, Scappoose, Ore.

VERNONIA ITEMS.

John Pringle was at Portland the first part of last week in a stock of merchandise for his store and on business in connection with his real estate agency.

Josh and Harrison Rose were visitors last week with friends and relatives. What he has left as administrator of his father's estate, L. B. Stewart having resigned.

Mrs. E. R. Throop went to Portland Friday last, via Houlton on horseback, to lay in a supply of holiday goods for the store. Look out for a fine display. Santa Claus is coming.

R. Sesseman started again the first of last week for California, but got as far as St. Helens only returning Saturday. Guess he did not have the notion very powerfully, or was he just joking his "better half?" Perhaps.

Billallen Jr. went out to Forest Grove Monday for a load of merchandise for D. H. Keasy. Elmer Lavinder went along and may remain there for the winter to attend school.

B. V. Trocy and wife are moving this week to their ranch two miles up Rock creek, the new house being so far completed as to afford them a home for the winter. Frank says he wants to stop paying rent in town and to be where he can put in his time improving the ranch without having to lose so much time in going and coming. The town people will miss them.

Mrs. G. W. Sitts, of Keasy, and Miss May Deerbrey went out to Houlton Monday, the former to visit her daughter, Mrs. Dell Potter, who lives at Vancouver, and the latter to stop for the winter with friends at Camas, Wash. May Redmond took them there.

Thanksgiving services were held at the church Thursday evening, Rev. J. O. Coleman preaching an appropriate sermon. Our people were quite sociable during the day, and if there were no turkeys for dinner there were plenty of other good things to eat at various homes in the village.

Commissioner Lbel, of Mist, was up last week to measure up the grade and gravel work just completed by D. W. Keasey and G. Gustafsen on the road just north of the city. This, we believe, completes all the special tax permanent work in districts 14 and 15 for this year, and what has been done the past summer and will save very much in the solving of the transportation problem in this part of the county.

The women of the town and country, a few at a time, came dropping in on Mrs. D. B. Beilstein on Tuesday morning of last week, as though they each had thought to make only a call, and not until half a dozen or more were there did Mrs. Beilstein "catch on" that it was a surprise and that the ladies had come to assist her with her wool picking. My, how they did make the wool fly, as well as their tongues. Altogether there were sixteen present, and the ladies all had a good time while helping a neighbor "in need."

Mrs. B. says "Thanks." The city council had another meeting Saturday night to hear a report from the committee appointed at the previous meeting to investigate and make an estimate of the cost of blowing out the stumps on the road from the foot of the Braden hill south to Bridge street. The committee reported that the cost would be about $20 and that this expense would be borne by the property owners along the proposed road, and that the work can be had from volunteers, so that a roadbed thirty feet wide can be made on the new road without cost to the county. The probabilities are now that a petition may go into the county court in January to have the old road the road runs diagonally from the foot of the Braden hill to Fringle's street, changed to the proposed new route. The people, so far as we know, are united in desiring this change.

David Basley and E. R. Jones, who have been at Vancouver the past three months packing prunes, came home Monday of this week with their pockets full of "gold boys," we suppose. It took both of the boys to bring one horse to town Tuesday morning to send him back to Houlton by the mail carrier, but then there might have been an attraction here.

Last Sunday at the annual election of officers for the Sunday school the following were chosen for the ensuing year: Mrs. D. B. Beilstein, superintendent; O. B. Malmsten, assistant superintendent and treasurer; Miss May Coleman, secretary; S. V. Malmsten, assistant secretary; Miss Margaret Spencer, organist; Miss Coleman, assistant organist. The teacher will be appointed by the pastor and superintendent during the month.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week the Vernonia School Literary Society, Mrs. Hatfield's school, gave a very delightful as well as instructive Thanksgiving open entertainment to a house crowded with the friends and patrons of the school. The program carried the audience back to the beginning of Thanksgiving times, introducing the boys with their pig, pumpkins and jack-o'-lanterns, the pilgrim maids with their big pumpkin pies. His highness, the boy, was now shooting the red deer, and various other features in the history and progress of our nation. One of the very best things on the program was a paper, the Literary Gazette, read by W. E. Lindsay. This young editor will no doubt be heard from again. But the feature that was the most satisfactory to all present was the singing at the close of the literary entertainment, by four young ladies, of quarter sections of fat pumpkin pies. The sentiment of all at the time no doubt was expressed by one of the lads of the school, who, getting a whiff of a steaming hot pie, said, "Gosh, but it's good." Mrs. Emmons and her school—the Tucker—on invitation, attended in a body.

Phillips; outside guard, O. Anderson.

In Mad Chase Millions rush in mad chase after health, from one extreme of faddism to another, when if they would only eat good food and keep their bowels regular with Dr. King's New Life Pills, their troubles would all pass away.
