THE NEW BANK—Messrs. Utha Clark and Arthur George are doing some work in the interior of the Cooper building, preparatory to its being occupied as temporary quarters for the new bank.

A BROKEN PIPE—There was a run of logs and piling in Milton Creek last Tuesday, and as a result the pipe of the St. Helens water works was broken where it crosses the creek, and the town of Houlton was left without water supply.

The occasional dance at the Masonic Hall deserves the patronage of all who delight in this amusement. The dance always ends at 12 o'clock, thereby avoiding the excess that is so ruinous to the health of young people.

Christmas in St. Helens was marked by a number of family reunions. The sons and daughters came home to their parents to celebrate the greatest of the holidays, and doubtless they all had a day to be pleasantly remembered until the next anniversary.

THE BIG TERM—County Court for the January term meets next Wednesday. This is the term at which the road supervisors are appointed for the year, the tax levy made, and a great deal of other important business transacted.

Twenty-two instruments were received for record at the county clerk's office on Tuesday last. Most of them were transfers of timber land, the Chapman Company, Benson, and others being the purchasers.

Dr. and Miss McLaren, of Rainier, spent Christmas with Dr. and Mrs. Cliff of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Perry and Mr. and Mrs. John Dart spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Dart of this city.

POLITICAL ADVERTISING COMBINE.

The Mist is reliably informed that one John Martin, of Monmouth, claims to have authority to secure political advertising for a number of papers in different parts of the State, and that these papers have agreed not to deal directly with the candidates, but to refer them to Mr. Martin, who will fix the compensation to be allowed the papers and deduct his commission therefrom.

The Columbia Timber Co. gave their employees a vacation from Dec. 21 to Jan. 2.

The two teachers in School District No. 20 held Christmas exercises last Friday afternoon. The school at Mooreville, Mrs. S. C. Archibald teacher, had songs, dialogues and speaking, and Mrs. Rex Haren gave her scholars a surprise by having erected in the vacant schoolroom a tree, which was laden with presents for the scholars.

The Christmas tree and dance given by Goble Grange No. 329 Saturday evening was a success. The only drawback was the failure of Mrs. Waldo, the speaker of the evening, to arrive.

Martin Haren and wife, Samuel Mann and wife, Albert Larson and wife, and T. C. Watts and wife spent Christmas with friends in Portland.

Wm. Daherty and wife, of Rainier, spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Withrow.

Goble Grange No. 329 elected the following officers for the year 1906: Geo. W. Makinister, Master; M. C. Jordan, Overseer; Jane McGregor, Lecturer; A. J. Sweeney, Chaplain; G. S. Foster, Treasurer; Jessie McGregor, Secretary; M. Link, Steward; Thomas Hunter, Assistant Steward; G. W. Jordan, Gatekeeper; Nellie Wise, Ceres; May Link, Pomona; Jennie King, Flora; D. A. Wise, Lady Assistant Steward.

Mr. Geer says he does not wish to be considered as the candidate of the farmers exclusively. This is a little fling at Dr. Withycombe's statement that he was proud to be considered the farmer's candidate. But Mr. Geer need not worry. He never was much of a farmer, and for many years past his main business has been politics.

The editor of the Review, whoever he may be, possesses a remarkable knowledge of the seamy side of Republican politics. He appears to be on intimate terms with John Daly, the old-time Simonite who was appointed Surveyor-General as a reward for voting for Senator Fulton, and who is now putting in his time opposing Dr. James Withycombe's candidacy.

Tortures of a Preacher The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased condition of throat and lungs. At Perry & Graham's, Houlton. Price 50c and $1, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

We have heard that St. Helens was not a very busy town, and that its people in the past have been a little slow; but we hardly think, if our new banker wants to put up a building, that any one will compel him to pay a license for purchasing the material. That certainly is the limit.

Furious Fighting "For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won, and cured my diseases, by the use of Electric Bitters. I unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have such a bad case as mine." Sold, under guarantee to do the same for you, by Perry & Graham, Houlton, at 50c a bottle. Try them today.

In Mad Chase Millions rush in mad chase after health, from one extreme of faddism to another, when if they would only eat good food and keep their bowels regular with Dr. King's New Life Pills, their troubles would all pass away. Prompt relief and quick cure for liver and stomach trouble, 25c at Perry & Graham's, Houlton.

Ex-Governor Geer flipped a penny the other day, "heads, I take the Governor's chair; tails, I go to the United States Senate," and it came heads. Now, what will Mr. Furrish's friends think of that!—Seaside Signal.

A Fearful Fate It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Henry Colon, of Masonville, Ia., "that for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Protruding Piles, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at Perry & Graham's, Houlton.
