According to reports, Rainier will soon be the happy possessor of two tanks.

Capt. Megher, an eastern capitalist, is looking up the iron and coal interests of Columbia County this week.

There are rumors of a railroad bridge across the Columbia River from Caples to Columbia City, and the rumors appear to have some foundation in fact.

Mr. Reuben Graham, of Portland, was a visitor to St. Helens on legal business last Wednesday.

The Knights of Pythias and Rathbone Sisters had a very pleasant social session at their hall in this city last Tuesday night.

Attorney W. C. Fischer and Rev. Kemp, of Rainier, were visitors to the county seat on Wednesday last.

Mr. Jack Black and family visited Portland on Wednesday last.

I have money to loan on approved real estate security.

W. H. POWELL,
St. Helens, Oregon.

Mr. Clarence Garrison, of Bebo, Unalaska County, has been in this neighborhood the past week, visiting his son Clarence, who is quite seriously sick with typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Day and the Misses Day were patrons of the opera in Portland last Monday.

Mr. Elmer Connell, of Deer Island, was a visitor to the Mist office on Wednesday last.

Mr. Newton Perry has returned from California, and is fully satisfied to get back to Oregon. He enjoyed the trip thoroughly, but says the best effect of a visit to our Southern neighbor is to convince an Oregonian that there is no place like home.

HORSE FOR SALE—Weight 1200 pounds, five years old. Good all purpose animal. Apply to E. C. LAWS, St. Helens.

Mr. William Karth, of Yankton, was in St. Helens on Monday last for the purpose of securing aid for the elder Soleski, who has been confined to his bed for many months. Mr. Karth says the old man is greatly in need of assistance and the county judge told him that the matter would be attended to.

SOMETHING REMARKABLE—It is stated that the steamer Northwest will begin making regular trips between Portland and Castle Rock, leaving Portland at night and reaching here at 5 in the morning, three times a week, leaving Portland Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, and the alternate nights from Castle Rock for Portland. It will doubtless be a great convenience, as one can go to bed and get up next morning at either end of the route. The new schedule will begin about the 10th of this month.—Covilz Advocate.

A Healing Gospel.
The Rev. J. C. Warren, pastor of Sharon Baptist Church, Blair, Ga., says of Electric Bitters: "It's a Godsend to mankind. It cured me of lame back, stiff joints, and complete physical collapse. I was so weak it took me half an hour to walk a mile. Two bottles of Electric Bitters have made me so strong I have just walked three miles in 50 minutes and feel like walking three more. It's made a new man of me." Greatest remedy for weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee of 100% success or 40-day refund. Price 25c.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE.
Whereas, Since our last meeting the all-wise Father has seen fit to call to his reward our worthy Brother O. F. Chelant, of Vernonia Grange 305; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Pomona Grange extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy. The Grange has lost a faithful member. Be it

Resolved, That our charter be draped for 60 days, and a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and a copy be spread upon our records.

JENNIE LOVELACE, JANE MCGREGOR, Committee.

TAKEN UP—A three-year-old heifer, black all over, crop off both ears, and one red yearling steer, with same mark, came to my place near Deer Island December 15th. Owner can have the stock by paying expenses. J. A. HOLADAY.

VERNONIA ITEMS.
Josh Rose, who had been visiting old friends hereabouts for two or three weeks, left Friday for a Columbia River point, where he will resume work as an engineer.

Reube Seseman, of Clatskanie, made a visit to the home folks several days last week.

Vernonia Grange No. 305 expect to give an entertainment and social at their hall on the evening of the 22nd. Washington's birthday, for the purpose of raising money for the new building they expect to build in the future.

J. C. Coulter had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs Tuesday morning. He has been in poor health all winter and had a slight hemorrhage a few weeks ago.

Oscar Lindstrom expects to move to his own ranch about the first of March, and the Baker farm, where he now lives, will be for rent.

Clarence Palmer hit the road Saturday last for Clatskanie, expecting to go on down the river to find work in some logging camp for the spring and summer.

E. R. Throp and D. W. Kenay each made a trip out to Clatskanie last week for merchandise for their stores. David Early also went out to Houlton for a load for H. G. Downing.

S. B. Richards, who formerly lived on a ranch near here, but now living at Ridgefield, Wash., spent a few days with friends here this week.

John Hoover, of Hillsboro, has been visiting with the families of H. G. Downing and the Parker brothers.

Olof Malinzen began a new building just across the road from his residence last week, which, when completed, he will use for a shop.

It is rumored that G. W. Rice and wife have purchased the J. W. Bench ranch and that they will return to the Nehalem in the spring or summer. We shall be glad to welcome them back.

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF OREGON:
I am seeking our party nomination for Secretary of State at the coming primaries, and ask your approval, good will and assistance.
Heartily Yours,
CLAUD GATCH,
Of Marion County.

Tell a friend.

THE REGISTRATION—Up to noon Wednesday 730 voters had registered. This is considered by the officials to be a good number. If you want to take part in the direct primaries the sooner you register the better.

Marriage license has been issued to Rhoda Zwemer and N. W. Howard, of Rainier, and Flora Etta Young and Reuben Ezra Stratton of Clatskanie.

A RESIDENT PASTOR—Rev. Clyde Stewart, of Rainier, will hereafter have charge of the Methodist Episcopal work at St. Helens, Houlton and Yankton, and for that purpose will make his home at St. Helens. It is a long time since the county seat had a resident pastor, and it is hoped Rev. Stewart will find his work congenial and of benefit to the community. He is a young man of good ability and we bespeak for him a hearty welcome to our community.

And still they come. Mr. Grant Watts, the Seaside merchant, has announced himself as a candidate for the office of Representative, and there are probably more to be heard from.

FATAL ACCIDENT—J. K. Stuart, a pioneer of Columbia County, was accidentally killed at C. C. Wilson's logging camp near Rainier, on Saturday last. Stuart was 85 years old and almost totally deaf, and was unable to hear the signal whistle of the log train as it approached just as he was crossing the track. The car passed over him, severing the head from the body. The evening was so dark that those in charge of the car could only see a short distance ahead. The brakes were applied as soon as he was seen on the crossing, but it was too late. He leaves a daughter, Mrs. Walker, with whom he lived, and one son, James Stuart. Coroner Cliff was notified of the accident, but considered there was no necessity for an inquest.

The Free Methodist protracted meeting at the church in Houlton is attracting large audiences and a great deal of interest is manifested in the proceedings, several having professed religion.

MILITARY WHIST—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Johns entertained a number of their friends at military whist on Friday evening last. The winning table was that of the United States, represented by Washington Muckle and Mrs. W. B. Dillard. The decorations of the rooms were creditable to the taste and ingenuity of the hostess and the luncheon served at midnight was thoroughly appreciated. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Deming, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Flagg, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Quick, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. George, Mr. and Mrs. Maria White, Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Cliff, Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Ross, Messrs. Fred Cliff, Charles and Washington Muckle.

Whereas, The valuation of farm lands and improvements are assessed at a greater valuation than any other assessable property; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Pomona Grange of Columbia County recommend that all property be assessed at the same percentage of valuation as farm lands and improvements. Adopted by a unanimous vote.

Whereas, We believe the fruit interest of Columbia County demands that some one should have authority to examine fruit trees in this county; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Pomona Grange request that the county court appoint a fruit inspector for Columbia County. Adopted by a unanimous vote.

Resolved by Columbia District Pomona Grange, That we change the date of meeting to the Saturday on or before the full moon in February, May, August and November. Adopted.

Whereas, The members of this Pomona Grange have been royally entertained and sumptuously feasted by the members of Vail Grange No. 24; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Pomona Grange extend to the members of Vail Grange their heartfelt thanks for the royal entertainment. J. H. COLLINS, A. WATZ, Committee.
