COLUMBIA COUNTY AND SOCIALISM.

Do those who call themselves Socialists in Columbia County endorse the intemperance of Eugene V. Debs, as put forth in the paper called the Appeal to Reason, but which is really an appeal to treason. In the latest issue of that paper we find a proclamation by Debs in regard to the arrest and prosecution of certain members of the Western Federation of Miners, charged with complicity in the assassination of Governor Steunberger, of Idaho, and the following are some of Mr. Debs' utterances: "Moyer and Haywood are our comrades, staunch and true, and if we do not stand by them in the shedding of the last drop of blood in our veins we are disgraced forever and deserve the fate of creeping cowards."

"If they attempt to murder Moyer, Haywood and their brothers, a million revolutionists, at least, will meet them with guns. "Let them dare to execute their devilish plot and ever, spite in the Union will rebound with the tramp of revolution."

"A special revolutionary convention of the proletariat at Chicago, or some other central point, would be in order, and, if extreme measures are required, a great strike could be ordered and industry paralyzed as a preliminary to a general uprising."

Eugene V. Debs is the leader of the extreme Socialists in this country, and the Appeal to Reason, which indorses his rabid utterances, is read in every county in the Union. Mr. Debs threatens revolution if the men arrested for murder are tried, found guilty and executed in accordance with the laws of the country in which he lives and is allowed to utter his treason. If these men are found guilty a million armed revolutionists are to avenge them, and, just as a preliminary move, a general strike is to be called, industry paralyzed, and untold suffering brought upon the now prosperous people of the United States.

We would like to know how the Socialists in Columbia County stand upon this matter, and will give a reasonable amount of space to an expression of their views.

JUDGE LOWELL'S CANDIDACY.

Hon. Stephen A. Lowell, of Penitentiary, has finally decided, after much hesitation, to become a candidate for the office of United States Senator, and has filed with the Secretary of State his declaratory statement, setting forth the principles he expects to espouse in case he is elected. Incidentally he makes the modest statement that he expects to carry every county in the State except Multnomah.

Mr. Lowell's declaration of principles contains one to the effect that he favors election of United Senators by direct vote of the people. So did quite a number of the present Senators, if they mean what they say. Like Judge Lowell, they are in favor of this method, but opposed to the only measure yet devised putting it into effect. High sounding words have deceived the people heretofore, and Mr. Lowell hopes they will be effective now.

He is linked with the Oregonian in opposition to Statement No. 1, and therefore no voter who favors that statement should cast his primary ballot for Stephen A. Lowell.

The State Printing Office.

The Junction City Times, edited by Hon. S. L. Moorhead, ex member of the Oregon Legislature and for several sessions chief clerk of the Senate, has an apt and timely editorial on the State printing office and the management thereof. Mr. Moorhead, occupying the position that he does, is well acquainted with the workings of the office and says: "The fees of all state printing are fixed by law as well as the amount of printing necessary for the state's use. The volume of printing for which the state is liable is statutory and it is the state printer's sworn duty to comply with the law. When printed matter is ready for delivery it is measured by the printing expert. As this office is appointive, the present incumbent is a Democrat. He is an honest man and a capable officer. After it is reported that the Plymouth Lumber Co. has leased its plant, and the mill is being put in order to resume business about April 1st.

The Bank of Rainier has put in a new flight of steps in front of their bank building.

Work on the new stone bank has been suspended on account of the frosty weather.

Lumber is being placed on the ground for the new hotel to be erected by John Dibble.

A longshoreman's union was organized Wednesday night by an organizer from Portland. They used for their meeting the lower room of the Masonic Hall.

Solicitors for the rival electric light companies are getting busy.

RAINIER

Last Saturday evening Mrs. Holsapple was surprised by a visit from a number of friends and relatives who came for the purpose of celebrating her birthday. The evening was spent in cards and conversation. Mrs. Holsapple has been suffering from a severe sprain of the ankle, but is now able to walk with the aid of crutches.

The dedicatory exercises of the Rainier M. E. Church were held last Sunday in accordance with the programme previously published in the Mist. The dedicatory sermon was preached by Dr. Daniel L. Rader, of the Pacific Christian Advocate. It was a very powerful sermon and was listened to with close attention by a large congregation. No contributions were called for toward paying for the church. The cost of church and furnishings is about $2,000, all of which, except a very small sum, having been paid and the balance guaranteed. There is practically no debt. Dr. Hollingshead conducted the dedicatory ceremonies according to the Methodist discipline. In the afternoon a temperance rally was held, the principal address being delivered by B. Lee Paget. The evening sermon was preached by Dr. A. A. Luce, of the Dalles. All the services of the day were well attended. The church edifice is one of the largest, best equipped and best arranged between Portland and Astoria. In the evening the church was lit by electricity furnished by the Rainier Water, Light and Power Co., it being the first public edifice in Columbia County to be lit by electricity. The church contains a large and - torium, two class rooms adjoining (which can be combined with the auditorium), a pastor's study, a library room, a fine choir loft, a large Kimball church organ, a bell-fry with a 6.0 pound bell, patent pews, stained glass windows, and carpeted aisles. It is expected to excavate beneath the church and put in a large reading room for receptions and societies. Revival services commenced Sunday night and are now in progress. At the Tuesday night service six conversions were reported.

L. R. Rutherford visited Portland Monday, to make arrangements for an additional boiler for the Rutherford and Heacock mill, which will about double their present power.

Thos. Lipsey and wife, of Seattle, were guests of Dr. Mossman last Monday.

Council meeting last Monday night. The old council wound up its business and adjourned without day. The newly elected officers were sworn in and the bonds of the treasurer and marshal approved. Little business was transacted. An ordinance was introduced providing for a franchise for a telephone system. Next meeting first Monday in April. Chairman Dean Blanchard vetoed W. E. Noyson's franchise.

The old Gilbert shingle mill opposite Rainier, at the mouth of the Cowlitz, was destroyed by fire at about 11:30 Tuesday forenoon. The dry kiln and a portion of the dock where shingles were stored was saved. The owner's name is J. R. Moore and he is certainly out of luck. About a year ago he lost his left hand in an accident, about six months ago he cut off three fingers of his right hand, and now he loses his mill.

It is reported that the Plymouth Lumber Co. has leased its plant, and the mill is being put in order to resume business about April 1st.

The Bank of Rainier has put in a new flight of steps in front of their bank building.

Work on the new stone bank has been suspended on account of the frosty weather.

Lumber is being placed on the ground for the new hotel to be erected by John Dibble.

A longshoreman's union was organized Wednesday night by an organizer from Portland. They used for their meeting the lower room of the Masonic Hall.

Solicitors for the rival electric light companies are getting busy.

Almer Meserve, who has been logging at Deep River, Wash., visited his family at Mrs. Holsapple's in this city last Saturday.

It is rumored that a new newspaper will be started at Rainier in the near future, possibly by the 1st of April.

VERNONIA ITEMS.

A caucus to nominate city officers will be held at Zilligitt's hall on the evening of March 20th, next Tuesday, at 7:30 p. m. City election April 2.

Tell Soale went to Bridal Veil last week to visit his brother Thornton and family. He will also visit relatives in Portland while out.

The surveyors for the new R. R. are engaged now at Braun-post. It is expected that a squad of them will soon take up their quarters at Vernonia.

Clare Eddy, of Portland, the young man who spent most of last summer with L. B. Stewart, has returned for another outing.

Lester Mowe left last Saturday for Columbia River points. He expects to get work at Astoria for the summer.

Miss Lizzie McPherson, of Keasew, visited with Vernonia friends and relatives last week.

Gust Schmidlin, of Albion, made a business trip to our city on Friday last.

The new electro-saline light for the front of the church has been ordered by merchant Keagy, and will soon be in place.

The city council, by Ordinance No. 23, opened the street in the East part of town which is to become a part of the county road, at the expense of the property owners.

James Ferguson, of Indiana, is visiting his cousin, T. B. Denslow, and family.

The silver medal contest and entertainment by the pupils of Mrs. Hatfield's school will take place at the church next Friday evening, March 23.

Albert Baker went to Portland this week to meet his father who now lives at Dundee. Mr. Baker, Sr., has invented an engine which is so small that it can be carried in one's pocket and yet it is a one horse power in working ability. Albert is out to see it tested.

The Mist publishes nothing from Vernonia or elsewhere unless signed or from a regular correspondent.

TOGETHER.

W. D. N. in the Chicago Tribune. We who grow old together, Who wander hand in hand Through fair and glooming weather, By mountain side and strand, We who share pain and pleasure, Who share both shade and sun, We have life's fullest measure When all is done.

The olden songs and stories— It is to them we cling; The olden golden glories, Successive sunsets fling; Our hands, lips grow the stronger While we walk through the years; Our joy is but the longer For all our years.

For us is ever glowing The ruby of the rose— The choicest summer showing Across the drift of snows; As ashes and as ember, Tell of the cheering blaze, So we old folks remember The wealth of days.

We who share all our dreamings Of gladness we knew then Know that in fancy's gleamings Each good hour lives again; We who face one tomorrow Know that nearer us stays A sweet whence we may borrow Our yesterdays.

We who grow old together— We have so much to share Of calm and lustrous weather, Of clouded days and fair; The sunset shade grows fleeter, The twilight has begun, But life has been the sweeter When all is done.

Sweet Sorrough. A maiden of ginger bread dough And her sweet little ginger bread thought And a warm friend or two, Very well bread and two, Went a baking one day in a rough.

Said the little brown ginger-bread thought In a whisper confiding and lough "I'm so short I shall break But you do take the cake You're the handsomest cookie I nough."

But his sweetheart began then to grouch Till she left her short swain far bejough. Then he uttered a sigh And the time honored cry For a larger allowance of dough.

A Scientific Wonder. The cures that stand to its credit make Bucklen's Arnica Salve a scientific wonder. It cured E. R. Doctors are Puzzled. The remarkable recovery of Kenneth McIver, of Vancouver, Me., is the subject of much interest to the medical fraternity and a wide circle of friends. He says of his case: "Owing to severe inflammation of the throat and congestion of the lungs, three doctors gave me up to die, when, as a last resort, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and I am happy to say, it saved my life." Cures the worst Coughs and Colds, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Weak Lungs, Hoarseness and Laryngitis. Guaranteed at Perry & Graham's, Houston, 50c and $1. Trial bottles free.

COLUMBIA COUNTY'S PROPOSED COURTHOUSE

JONATHAN BOURNE, JR.

Republican Candidate for U. S. Senator CHAMPION OF STATEMENT ONE.

Jonathan Bourne, Jr., candidate before the Republican primaries for the nomination of United Senator in Congress, for the long term commencing March 4, 1907, was born in New Bedford, Mass., February 23, 1855; was a member of the class of 1877 at Harvard University; came to Portland May 16, 1878; was a Republican member of the Oregon Legislature in the session of 1885 and the extra session of 1886; was one of Oregon's delegates to the Republican National Convention of 1888 and Oregon's member of the Republican National Committee from 1888 to 1892, and a delegate to the Republican National Convention of 1892; and was elected as a Mitchell Republican to the Oregon Legislature in 1896.

Mr. Bourne has been more prominently identified with the development of the mineral resources of Oregon than any other man in the State, having expended in the last 29 years over $1,000,000 of his own money in the acquisition and development of Oregon mines.

While Mr. Bourne has had his residence and main office at Portland since 1878 he has had another office at New Bedford, Mass., and has carried on the business of his father's estate since 1889, which makes him familiar with many of the large interests and leading men of the East. These qualifications, in conjunction with his energy, originality, executive ability and experience in business and political affairs, pre-eminently qualify him for making an able and influential Senator for the State of Oregon.

Mr. Bourne has always favored extending the direct power of the people over their Government as far as possible. He was one of the leading spirits in the Initiative and Referendum movement from 1896 until it was approved by the voter at the June election in 1902. In 1904 he was a member of the executive committee of the Direct Primary Nominations League, and holds the same position with the People's Power League at this time. In all these movements he has been one of the few to guarantee the necessary expenses of preparing and proposing their measures to the people.

He says that the choice of United States Senator should be by direct vote of the people, and that the Legislature should be compelled to elect the man the people select. To accomplish this result he is championing Statement No. 1 of the primary elections law as the only method by which public opinion may be crystallized and made effective upon the Legislature.

In his petition for nomination he says: "If I am nominated and elected, I will during my term of office;

- Favor: Republican Politics. Amending United States Constitution for People's Election of United States Senators. Publicity Political Campaign Expenses. National Control of Corporations in Interstate Commerce. Rigid Exclusion of Asiatic Coolie Labor; Good Wages Make Good Citizens. Legal Limitation Labor Hours for Safety on Railroads.
