A GLORIOUS FOURTH AT SCAPPOOSE—From personal experience we can testify that the Fourth of July celebration at Scappoose was an unqualified success. There may have been bigger and grander celebrations elsewhere, but the were none where all enjoyed themselves more thoroughly or where the spirit of the day was more thoroughly entered into. There is something the matter with a man if he can't have fun at Scappoose. Messrs. Collins and Stevens had charge of the affair and they managed it admirably, while the ladies who had charge of the commissary department saw that no one went away hungry. We have no space to comment on each number of the programme but wish to especially commend the clear and distinct reading of the Declaration of Independence and also the patriotic and thoughtful oration delivered by Attorney McAllister of Portland. While we do not entirely agree with the orator his address contained many good ideas and was much better than the usual fly-the eagle brand. In the afternoon there were all kinds of races in West's Lane and a dance platform on the picnic grounds, while in the evening there was a ball at Watts & Price's hall and a social given by the Christian Endeavor Society at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. G Watts.

Mrs. Magnus Saxon had a very narrow escape from serious injury, if not worse, while attending the picnic at Scappoose on the Fourth. Her dress caught fire as she was walking through the grounds and in extinguishing it she quite severely burned her right hand. A burned hand and a ruined dress are unpleasant souvenirs of a holiday, but Mrs. Saxon is doubtless happy in the thought that it might have been far worse.

Mrs. Chas. Venable of Portland, daughter of B. C. Enyart, formerly of Deer Island, this county, was a caller at the Mist office on Thursday last.

CROUSE-TOVREA—Married, at the M. E. Parsonage in Kelso, Washington, at high noon on July 4th, Miss Dora Crouse of Houlton to Rev. Owen F. Tovrea, Rev. R. L. Wolfe officiating. Mrs. Tovrea is the daughter of two of Houlton's most estimable citizens and is a beautiful and worthy young lady. Her husband is the Methodist minister supplying the pulpits at St. Helens, Houlton, and Yankton. The Mist extends its congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Tovrea.

We are a day late this week. The editor and his family celebrated at Scappoose.

NEW OFFICIALS—The new County officials have taken charge, the only changes being that Mr. Harris succeeds Mr. Henderson as clerk, and Mr. West takes Mr. Colvin's place as commissioner. Mr. H. E. LeBare, who was Mr. Harris' competitor for the Republican nomination, is now deputy clerk, and as soon as he can secure a house will bring his family to St. Helens.

According to the U. S. Weather Report of this section there were just five clear days in the month of June. It was a wet month, but a wet June means a big harvest.

COMMON COUNCIL.—The city fathers, at their meeting on last Monday evening allowed Messrs. Bellarts and Blakesley salaries of $87 and $79 respectively on the liquor licenses, on account of the adoption of prohibition in this precinct. They also allowed other bills to the amount of several hundred dollars. Gus Vegele's bill for the construction of the crossing at the juncture of Cowlitz street and the Strand was $12, while the lumber bill for a wooden crossing would have been $14. The resignation of J. B. Godfrey as recorder was accepted, Mr. Godfrey's business in Portland making it impossible for him to continue to serve. The matter of a direct tax was discussed and it was thought a five-mill levy would be necessary to furnish sufficient revenue to run the town.

Church service Sunday July 8, at 8 p. m. Subject "The Great Helper." Come.

Epworth League meets in Houlton M. E. church at 7 p. m. each Sunday. All are welcome.

Mr. H. R. Henderson and daughter Ruth were visitors to Mayger's landing last Sunday last.

CHURCH NOTICE—The church at Goble will be reopened for services by the Board of Missions of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Services will be held regularly at 11 a. m., Sunday school at 10:15 a. m. and if enough interest is shown an evening service will also be furnished. Mrs. Wilson, a lay reader who has been a missionary in Alaska, will come from Portland Saturday and stay over Sunday, and is anxious to start a young people's society and choir, and will be glad to meet any interested, Saturday evening at the church.

CASES IN COURT.—Rice v. Rice and Flippen v. Flippen, cases from Clatskanie, occupied the attention of Judge McBride this week. The Rice case is for the possession of the children, and the case of Flippen v. Flippen is a suit brought to set aside certain conditional deeds made by Mr. Flippen to his wife, the conditions of which it is now alleged have not been complied with.

ACCIDENT AT SCAPPOOSE—While the running races incidental to the celebration at Scappoose were in progress in West's Lane, John Johnson (better known as "Swede") met with an accident that will keep him at home out of harm's way for a few days at least. When the runners were coming down the lane, Johnson, who was intoxicated, sprang in front of one of them, the horse's shoulder striking him in the back and knocking him down, where he lay unconscious for some time. One of his ribs was broken and his shoulder dislocated.

KICKED TO DEATH—Monsieur McKiel, the sixteen year old son of Hannah McKiel, was fatally injured last Tuesday by being kicked by a horse. Young McKiel was driving a delivery wagon for his father, who keeps a general merchandise store at Clatskanie, and while trying to stop the horse the animal kicked the dashboard, injuring the boy. He died one hour later, without recovering consciousness.

A NARROW ESCAPE—Harold Ross, son of our local banker, while bathing in Milton Creek last Wednesday, stepped suddenly into a deep hole and disappeared beneath the surface. When he came up he appeared to be helpless, probably from strangulation, and would undoubtedly have drowned had not Mr. Fred Ketel went to his rescue, and then, as is the habit with drowning men, he grappled with his rescuer, and both would have gone under had not the boy's father came to their assistance. Mr. Ross is fully convinced that he owes his son's life to Mr. Ketel's promptness and is very grateful to him.

From all accounts the celebration of the Fourth at Rainier was a glorious success. There was a barbecue of two beeves, two hundred loaves of bread being served with the meat. There was also a game of baseball between the business men of Rainier and Clatskanie, resulting in a victory for the former by a score of 15 to 4.

The Columbia Register is now issued as a four page semi-weekly. It is a neat and interesting paper. The subscription price has been raised to $1.50 per year.

VICTORY FOR OUR BOYS—The St. Helens baseball team visited Vancouver last Sunday and played the Diamond W's of Dellsworth, the score being 18 to 9 in favor of St. Helens. The boys had a fine time, were handsomely treated by the Washingtonians. Next Sunday they play the Portland Trunk Company's team on the local grounds, and as the visitors are a strong combination the game will be well worth witnessing. White, of Linnton, has signed with the St. Helens boys. He played first base and caught last Sunday and demonstrated that he is all right. We now have a good team, and when the manager calls upon our business men for a little financial assistance we hope they will respond liberally.

R. H. Mitchell's new paper, the Cowlitz County News, made its first appearance last week. It was full of local news and good editorial. Mr. Mitchell is a hustler and and a man of considerable ability. Whenever he gets over the idea that he has a commission to regulate the universe he will make a success as a country newspaper man.

Born—To the wife of Charles Wickstrom, of Portland, on Sunday morning last, July 1st, a son.

PAINFUL INJURY.—Roy Laws, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Laws, while at play last Saturday, jumped with his feet bare upon a sharp bone, running it into his foot quite a distance, possibly a fragment of the bone remaining in the foot, though Dr. Ross was unable to find it with the probe. If nothing more serious results it will confine the youngster to his bed for a few days.

Mr. Martin White still has his faithful horse, but it was a close call. It is fly-time and the animal in trying to kick a fly off of its head, caught the halter rope between the shoe and the hoof, the rope wedging fast. In its struggle the halter broke and set the animal's head free, or it would undoubtedly have broken its neck. When Mr. White arrived its head was under and jammed against the manger. The rope was so tightly wedged between the hoof and the shoe that it was necessary to cut it out with a chisel.

Mr. C. W. Blakesley and wife have moved into their new house in the north part of town. It is a very commodious and neat cottage, and when the grounds are improved they will have one of the prettiest homes in the city.

UNCLAIMED LETTERS.—Letters not claimed at the St. Helens P. O. June 30 '06. W. Bush, S. Carlson, Geo. W. Cieloho, Sauvies, 3; D. E. Errick, J. Garison, C. Jahreis, Miss Annie Jetty, Shannon Lurk, W. A. McIntire, Frank Olsen, Nels Olsen, H. C. Phillips, Sauvies; John Seberg, George Thompson, G. L. Thompson, 2; R. Thompson. Letters unclaimed July 31st. will be sent to the Dead Letter Office,

ANOTHER MOTHER GONE.

Martha Ray, of Pensacola, North Carolina, died on the 10th day of June, 1906, at the advanced age of 97 years and 5 months. Her father, John Allen, was born in Scotland. He emigrated to America at the age of 14 and settled in Carolina. He was in the Mecklenburg Convention, held at Charlotte, N. C., on the 20th day of May, 1775, that drew up and adopted the acts known as "the Mecklenburg Declaration." He afterwards enlisted and served in the Revolutionary war, and was under General Greene at the battle of Guilford Courthouse, Mar. 15, 1781. Four sons (of whom the writer is one) and three daughters survive her to drop the tear of bereavement for the Christian mother whose devout life warrants the realization that her wearied conquest is crowned with victory. If earth is more lonesome to us now there is joy among the glorified in heaven since she ascended home. All the love we are capable of and every remembrance of her has but one voice, "Children, Come Home."

JAMES ALLEN RAY,

THE MAN WITH THE BANK ACCOUNT.

Several young business men were asked to state some of the advantages they derived from being a regular bank depositor. We quote the following from the answers they wrote.

"A bank account relieves me of all worry and annoyance concerning the safety of money. I know that it is unwise and risky to carry money in my pocket or place it where it is liable to be lost or stolen.

"I am sure that it is never absolutely safe until deposited in a good bank, organized for the purpose of safety, using fire and burglar proof safes and carrying insurance against loss and putting its capital up as a guarantee that my money will be returned when called for."

"I know that it promotes good citizenship and general prosperity. My money in the bank not only helps me directly, but helps the merchant, the manufacturer, the farmer, the laborer. The bank puts a portion of my deposit into circulation by way of loans to those who employ labor and the more labor employed the more prosperity for us all. I recognize that the bank keeps the store open and the mills running, holds the farm down and promotes civilization. As a member of society I am glad to contribute to the upbuilding of the bank. I am not only seeking my own personal benefit but my account contributes to the truest welfare of society."

"Observation and experience teach me that there is no royal road to wealth. Commodore Vanderbilt said: 'Any fool can make money but it takes a mighty smart man to keep it.' A bank account teaches me economy and frugality. Next to the evil of living beyond one's means is that of spending all of one's income. I have found that it is the small savings that counts. I had rather be an 'old fogy' and add a little to my bank account every week or month than to depend on something brilliant that I may accomplish in the future."

"The first step toward success is to get in touch with the men of affairs in any community. The banker is the one who sustains the most intimate relations with all the people. My account, small though it may be, is an encouragement to him and it becomes his desire to make the bank useful to me. The banker studies my needs and gives me advice and assistance. A bank account thus places me in a position where I have the co operation of experienced financiers and the backing of capital.'

Have these men been truthful in their replies? Has not the bank been of some benefit to St. Helens and community? Will it not benefit it more? Can we not be of some benefit to you? Open an account with us, keep it growing, if you would benefit yourself and community. Come and see us whether you do business or not. Ask for "money." The Columbia County Bank is at your service.
