Mr. and Mrs. A. H. George spent Thanksgiving with their son Percy in Portland.

The three masted ship Elwell arrived here Wednesday evening to load ties. This makes three big ones that are loading here at present.

Miss Maude Decker of Portland spent Thanksgiving with her parents in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Slaughter spent Thursday with relatives here.

Mr. Bailey, the Houlton merchant, is reported to be quite seriously ill at the Dalles. Mr. Bailey has long been troubled with asthma, and every little while has to leave this climate for the drier one of eastern Oregon. Mrs. Bailey and Lester are with Mr. Bailey.

A class in shorthand will begin its work Monday evening, Dec. 3. in the school house. Mrs. M. Nettleton, a graduate of the Gregg School of Shorthand, Chicago, will be the instructor and all those interested are invited to attend.

Mrs. H. Watters and Mrs. Laferty were Portland visitors this week.

Miss Elbertson of Portland spent Thursday with friends at St. Helens.

It appears that within six months seven persons have been shot in Washington County. For a peaceful, agricultural community this would seem to be a large percentage, especially as it is within the jurisdiction of our friend Harrison Allen.

Seven room house for sale or rent. Inquire of E. E. Quick, St. Helens.

Judge McBride has sustained the action of a fruit inspector in cutting down a number of pest infested trees. Here is a pointer for our friend Jos. Holaday, fruit inspector for Columbia County. We suppose he is now ready to do good work for the fruit interests of Columbia. No county in the state raises better apples, and in some varieties—notably the Northern Spy—we are clearly in the lead. The day of the wormy, warty nubbins has about come to a close. Trees that are beyond redemption should be cut down. No man has a right to maintain an orchard in such a condition as to spread disease throughout the neighborhood, and if any one still adheres to that mossbacked theory he should speedily be taught the error of his ways.

TIME IS MONEY—And you save time by taking the Multnomah when you have business in Portland. Leaves St. Helens at 7 a. m. Reaches Portland at 10 a. m. Starts home at 2:30 p. m. You have plenty of time to do your shopping

Rev. Hollingshead, presiding elder of the M. E. Church, will preach here a week from next Sunday.

Rev. O. F. Tovrea, who occupied the pulpit in the M. E. Church here, was a caller at this office this week.

Geo. Lemont this week sold to the Warren Construction Company 7½ acres of land just below here for a consideration said to be in the neighborhood of $1500. This deal will probably mean considerable to St. Helens. The Warren Construction Co. is a corporation with a large capital and will put in quite a plant for the purpose of getting out crushed rock and blocks.

COMMERCIAL ACCOUNTS—We are glad to open checking accounts with individuals, firms, societies, corporations, and banks, and give careful and prompt attention to all business, whether large or small. Columbia County Bank.

After January first, 1907, the price of the MIST will be raised to conform with the price of other country papers of this county and state. Its price when first started was $2.50 per year, then it was lowered to $2, then $1.50, and now it is but $1. We will try to make it worth $1.50 of anybody's money, and if we are unable to do that it is not worth while putting it on the press. The proceedings of our courts and the news of the county should be read by every person in the county and $1.50 per year seems to be a very reasonable price to pay for it.

TO OWNERS OF TIMBER CLAIMS AND TIMBER.—We will buy for cash any good timber tributary to the Nehalem river. Will deal with owners only. No others need answer. Write giving full particulars to box 8, U. P. Station, Portland, Oregon. 2 20

Miss Ruth Henderson of St. Johns is visiting friends and relatives in this city this week.

Geo. E. Frakes left on the 5th inst for a trip south, going to the Coos Bay country looking for some cheap land. He found the price of land in that neighborhood ranging from $50 to $200 per acre. He went from Coos Bay to Kalameth Falls, to see what he can do there as he wants to purchase quite a large tract of land if he can find some to his liking.

A man named Dan Sullivan stole a suit case and a mail sack out of the station at Goble on Monday last. After stealing the suitcase he put on a suit of clothes contained in it and went to the Butts residence to get something to eat. The people there were rather suspicious of him and sent for Deputy Sheriff Fowler, who was then looking for the man who stole the suit case. Sullivan was taken before the owner of the suit case, who immediately recognized his own clothes, and Fowler brought Sullivan to St. Helens, where he was held until the arrival of the U. S. Marshal. While he could be held and tried for petty larceny, the authorities thought that it would be better to turn him over to the government, who will entertain him for a good long time for stealing the mail sack.

The St. Helens Lodge Knights of Pythias gave a very pleasant social last Tuesday evening. Several from Houlton and a delagation from Ridgefield were present. The evening was spent in listening to a very interesting program and dancing and playing cards. Last but not least came the refreshments, and after due justice was done the fine spread the committee had prepared, everybody went home in a good humor.

Miss Lou Frakes sent her trimmer to New York this fall. She has returned to Portland with many beautiful designs, and is making the finest up-to-date hats, besides having brought a number from the east.

The committees for the Xmas entertainment are at work getting things started in time so that everything may come up in good order.

Mr. Ralph Rogers who was so seriously hurt at Columbia City about the first of the month is still at the hospital and improving slowly, being able to sit up some this week.

Miss Grace Brown and pupils of the Tucker school will give a public entertainment at the hall in Veraonia on Saturday evening Dec. 8th. The literary program will consist of songs, recitations, dialogues, tableaux etc, after which there will be a basket social, the baskets to be sold for the benefit of the school, perhaps for a library fund. Every body invited.

Chief Engineer Davis was here the latter part of last week making arrangements for a crew of engineers who will be here the latter part of this week to begin the preliminary survey of the road beyond Vernonia, either up Rock Creek or down the river. They will camp in the little cottage of E. R. Throop back of the store and will be here about three weeks. Several of our boys, among them T. R. Thorp, Ed Sessman ahd Roy Webber, are to go along as ax men.
