THE NEW ORDER.

The passing of the pioneers of Oregon can be realized by anyone acquainted with the original ownership of the land in Columbia County, lying between St. Helens and the Multnomah County line. Not only have the old settlers passed away, but the land itself has to a great extent passed into the hands of strangers, and the sons of the original owners are homeless in the land their fathers owned. We doubt if a single instance can be shown where the sons have been benefited by disposing of their patrimony, or where they would not have been infinitely better off if they had stuck to the soil and put in their time improving their properties. But, for the most part, they had little faith in the productivity of the soil. They knew nothing and cared less about careful, scientific farming, and, therefore, took no pains to experiment for the purpose of acquiring information as to what could be produced. What little was raised found an easy market at a high price, and the forests grew on the river's bank so that it was an easy matter to get money out of cord wood. A cow was a cow in those days, and the long-haired nondescript was the rule instead of the exception. Butter was made in the "good old fashioned way," and some of the rolls weighed over two pounds, while others weighed considerable less. You could not grow corn, peaches, melons or alfalfa, because (so they thought) the climate was not suited to these products. The old generation died or is dying, and the sons (with few exceptions) sold the land to new comers, and they brought with them new methods. Some of the sons of the pioneers proved themselves adaptable and they profited by the new ideas and held their lands and are prosperous; but many of them revolted against what they considered the drudgery of the farm life and frequently sold their birthright for a mess of pottage. The new comers and the new ideas have made the Warren and Scappoose neighborhoods famous, and they are welcome to their success. The full blood Jersey, Holstein and Ayrshire have taken the place of the all-purpose no purpose scrub; alfalfa and corn, peaches and melons, apples, walnuts and small fruits are growing on land that at one time was believed to be incapable of producing them, and real farming has taken the place of the spasmodic, unintelligent work that prevailed in that section for many years. The soil is no respecter of persons. It has no preference for those who boast of being Americans; but it yields its riches to those who deserve success, and the Scappoose and Warren neighborhood are rapidly settling up with that class of people—honest, intelligent, and hard working. Those of the pioneer stock who deserve success will reap it; but those who prefer the pleasures of the saloon to those of the Grange, who take their own in its liquid form, who leave their cows with distended udders while they are "just one more game," who, in fact, as Dan Voorhies once said, "raise hell instead of hogs," will gradually vanish from the scene, and the rich heritage their fathers won amid dangers and toil, will pass into the hands of those who know better how to care for it.

CLATSKANIE

Clatskanie is to have a "cleaning up day." The city council have named Saturday, the 18th, as a day for every body to turn out and clean the yards and streets of the city. The brick building for the bank has been erected and the carpenters and painters are now finishing the inside work. Miss Meta Finley, of Oregon City, was down and spent a few days last week, visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Collins. Mr. Robert Gates and the Graham Brothers are erecting a large livery stable west of Graham's Hall, on First street; the town will soon have three livery stables. Mr. and Mrs. Omar Bryant and Mrs. Fisk have returned from their claims on the Siletz to visit a while with friends and relatives. Clatskanie will celebrate the Fourth this year. Committees have been appointed and arrangements have begun to be made to have a big celebration. It will be under the auspices of the Maccaebans. Mr. A. L. Thayer, of the Oregonian staff, Sunday in this city. James Conyers and family, from Kansas, are here paying a visit to E. W. and W. H. Conyers, brothers of the former.

RAINIER

Mr. W. C. Lee was a passenger to Portland Monday morning. Fred Trow was business passenger to Portland Monday. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Flippin returned Monday evening from a week's visit with friends in Portland. Mr. W. D. Jellison, of Portland, was in Rainier the middle of the week looking after his lumber interest. Mrs. C. R. Root, of Astoria, formerly of this city was visiting Rainier friends Saturday last. Mrs. Root's husband is the surveyor who had charge of the engineer crew at this station during the building of the A. & C. road. A number of young people of Rainier have organized a dramatic society and will, early in June, entertain the public with a drama in three acts entitled "The Bird Family." This drama has proven quite popular in amusement circles wherever presented and owing to the fact that the ablest of Rainier's amateur artists have volunteered to take part will undoubtedly meet with the approval of the general public when presented here. The funds derived from this entertainment will be given to the Ladies Aid Society of the Congregational church to assist in raising the amount necessary for the purchase of an organ. The Tiberius is loading lumber at the Rainier Mill & Lumber Co.'s dock and will sail in a few days for Oakland. The big tramp steamer Strathclyde which was loading lumber at the C. C. Wilson's dock the first of the week left Rainier Tuesday noon for Linnton to complete her cargo which will amount to 3,750,000 feet of lumber consigned to China ports. Her load completed she will sail the first of next week. While at dock in this city the Strathclyde had many visitors all of whom report being most hospitably entertained by the officers of the vessel. Getting in line! Rainier will celebrate the coming Fourth of July in the usual patriotic style. There is no question about that. Last year this city entertained the many visitors in a manner which rebounded to the honor of her citizens, and, this year it will make the visitors on the Fourth even more joyful and complimentary to their entertainment. One thing to aid in the celebration this year is the fact that there is a local band that will help in the day's entertainment and they are making their best endeavors to prepare themselves for the coming event which will be their real debut in the public service of the city of Rainier.

Mr. Ben Reed returned Tuesday from California. He reports affairs in San Francisco to be in a very bad condition, owing to the labor troubles and other causes. There are large numbers of idle men in the city, and there seems to be no end of the trouble. He was very glad to get back to peaceful Oregon, where the only trouble is to get good men at good wages. Rainier is still on the map when it comes to lumber shipment. The following statement of consignments from the Rainier Mill & Lumber Co., for the first half of this month, makes a very good showing. Delivered to the steamer Washington, 509,000 feet, steamer Tiverton, 500,000; schooner Columbia, 800,000; steamer Cascade, 112,000 and Foreign 70,000, making a total of 1,991,000 feet of lumber shipped by this company during the first fifteen days of May. There are several other companies operating here who have done probably equally as well. The lumber business at Rainier is exceptionally good this year and all the mills here are finding it almost impossible to keep up with the demand.

There was a little trouble brewing in Rainier Tuesday night. Two "ship lads," old comrades "before the mast," fell out and they proceeded to try and settle their trouble, "a la Sullivan." Their effort at fistfutz on the street was first thwarted by Marshal Jesse, who separated the pugilists and bade them be good. But as their blood was warm with booze they soon got mixed up again and the officer had to take them in charge, but in so doing he called in the aid of a couple of citizens. Even after the arrest had been made a party of comrades attempted to rescue the fighters, but the Marshal made a stand and let the friends know what would happen if they attempted to interfere with the enforcement of the law. The sailor lads were incarcerated in the city bastille for the night and Wednesday morning contributed $10 each to the city for the trouble they had caused. Miss Nora Conyers, of Clatskanie spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in this city. Miss Elsie Johnson spent Sunday in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Kapell left Saturday for a ten days vacation at the St. Martins Hot Springs. Fern Rebekah Lodge No 138 will entertain friends at their Hall, Friday evening, May 31, with a Carpet Rag Social. All the ladies will kindly bring a ball of carpet rags. Refreshments ice cream and cake. The Nome City will leave in a few days for San Francisco with a full load of lumber consigned to parties in that city. Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hoggatt, who for the past four months have made this their home, disposed of their household goods, and moved away Saturday last. Mr. Hoggatt occupied the first chair in Mr. Kishner's barber shop. There is at present quite a demand for real estate, but it seems impossible to obtain desirable building lots. Many of those looking for locations are laboring men who wish to build homes for themselves and families, having accepted Rainier as a desirable place to make their permanent abode.

Mr. Charles Williams was among the passengers going to Portland Saturday morning. Mr. Lloyd Fuller spent Sunday with friends in Oregon City. Miss Katie Deitz was a Portland visitor Saturday. Mr. Reeder, bookkeeper at the Rainier Mill & Lumber Co., was a passenger to Portland Saturday last. Mrs. W. H. Rambo spent Sunday with friends at Scappoose. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wilson, returned to their home in Aberdeen, Wash., Saturday after a week's visit with his brother, Capt. Fred Wilson. Mr. Wilson is one of the partners of the Wilson Bros. Lumber Co. at Aberdeen.

A Narrow Escape.

G. W. Coyd, a merchant, of Plunk, Mo. had a narrow escape four years ago when he ran a jimson bur into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve that cured the dangerous wound." 25c at all druggists.

PITTSBURG

Will Pringle is seeking to aid helping in the tearing down of the old mill buildings at Pittsburg. They have been a landmark so long that they will be greatly missed. Mrs. G. W. Armstrong moved into the Case house last week to keep house for J. W. and incidentally to take care of the traveling crowd that stop over to view our city. Mrs. Case has retired from the hotel business and is going to take a much needed rest. She expects to go out in a few days to pay a visit to her son and his wife. Lloyd Dietrick and wife were in for a few days, but have gone back to Goble, where Lloyd holds a good position as head timber loader. They may return permanently in the Autumn. Frank Peterson, of Oak Run, had his misfortune to lose two fine two-year old colts last week, and J. Ray and Dave Ray each had one horse die within the last few days. The loss to all is doubly hard just now, as horses are at a premium in the Valley.

MY BEST FRIEND

Alexander Benton who lives on Rural Route 1, Fort Edward, N. Y., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is my best earthly friend. It cured me of asthma six years ago. It has also performed a wonderful cure of inipient consumption for my son's wife. The first bottle ended the terrible cough, and this accomplished, the other symptoms left one by one, until she was perfectly well. Dr. King's New Discovery's power over coughs and colds is simply marvelous." No other remedy has ever equaled it. Fully guaranteed by all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

They both walked over the mountain from Buxton. Ed is hauling the furniture in this week, preparatory to moving into his new house on the south 4 1/2 acre of Clear creek. The railroad locosts got as far as Judson Weed's place last Saturday night. Two or three of our citizens have been hauling potatoes to Buxton. They get $1.85 per sack. Columbus Weed, of California, is visiting his brother, Judson Weed this week. Work on the new wagon road is being pushed this week, and the telephone wire will probably all be strung by Thursday night. We will be hollering before somebody thinks of it.

Mrs. Miles Sheerin and Mrs. J. H. Milks were Kelo visitors Tuesday, the guests of Mrs. George Umbaugh. Mr. R. H. Dibblee visited the metropolis the latter part of last week. Mrs. Craig Gilbreath was a visitor to Portland Saturday. The Strathshire, a tramp steamer, sister to the Strathclyde, arrived at the C. C. Wilson's dock Wednesday. She will take on about 3,500,000 feet of lumber, part of her load at Linnton, and immediately sail for China. The Rainier band is practicing two evenings a week and making good in the line of music. The improvement they have achieved in the past few weeks is more than could have been expected. Misses M. E. and L. L. Nutt, sisters of the Nutt Bros. of this city, arrived in Rainier Monday morning from Minnesota, and with their mother who came about three weeks ago will make this their future home. The Nutt Bros. have secured rooms on the second floor in the new Dibblee building, and will be at home to their friends after June 1st. Mr. Charles Williams was among the passengers going to Portland Saturday morning. Mr. Lloyd Fuller spent Sunday with friends in Oregon City. Miss Katie Deitz was a Portland visitor Saturday. Wilson, returned to their home in Aberdeen, Wash., Saturday after a week's visit with his brother, Capt. Fred Wilson. Mr. Wilson is one of the partners of the Wilson Bros. Lumber Co. at Aberdeen.

Co., have nearly finished their winter's work at Paris and will be ready to begin work on the Pierson lot by the first of June. The entertainment given by the Grange Saturday night was a decided success in every way. A good supper and program was enjoyed by a large crowd, and sixty dollars cleared above all expenses. There will be another social given in June, the plans for which will be given later.
