THE VILEST SINNER.

Somebody (presumably Detective McPartland) must have been enlivening Harry Orchard's captivity with that good old hymn, "While the light holds out to burn, the vilest sinner may return." Orchard undoubtedly fills the bill to perfection. It would be hard to imagine a viler sinner than he. He evidently considered it a special invitation. He had nothing to lose, and, according to the orthodox theory, everything to gain by "becoming a Christian." The matter of a dozen or so of murders, arson, bigamy, and wife desertion constitute no bar to his salvation. The "vilest" sinner has only to repent on the brink of the scaffold and betray his partners in crime and he immediately becomes "whiter than snow" and entitled to take his place in heaven with all the saints of the earth who have gone before. As he did not join the Catholic church he will not be called upon to endure even the expiating pangs of purgatory, but will enter at once into the heritage of the blessed. Incidentally he will live on the fat of the land until he faces the hangman or is pardoned by the Governor. It may be that it is necessary to use him to convict the guilty ones, but his testimony, unless corroborated in every detail will, and should, have very little weight with the jury. Doubtless these crimes were committed, and presumably by men connected with the Western Federation of Miners. The public wishes to see the guilty parties convicted, but it can have no sympathy with Harry Orchard and very little respect for Governor Peabody and other Idaho officials who are shaking hands with and petting and coddling him.

"HARK FROM THE TOMBS."

The Pendleton Tribune is of the opinion that Statement No. 1 will be ignored in next year's campaign by candidates for legislative nominations. There were those who predicted that the Legislature would pay no attention to the people's choice for United States senators, and, if we are not mistaken, that was the reason given by the editor of the Tribune for his refusal to be a candidate for the senatorial instead of the gubernatorial nomination. He was mistaken in that instance, and we believe he is mistaken now. The people have seen that a legislature elected under Statement No. 1 will keep its pledge and vote for that candidate for United States Senator who shall receive the greatest number of the popular vote. Why not? It is, to all intents and purposes, an election by the direct vote of the people and that is what the electorate of this country is supposed to have been crying for for many years. Justly or unjustly, the Senator of the United States is out of favor with the people. It is supposed to stand for the interests of the great corporations and to care very little for the common people. It is believed to have been chosen by corrupt legislatures, in defiance of the wish of the voters. Statement No. 1, if adhered to by the legislature, remedies all this and restores the power to the people. The excuse for evading it is that its rigid construction might result in the choice of a Democratic United States Senator. Again, Why not? To speak plainly, if the people of Oregon prefer Governor Chamberlain as United States Senator to any other man whom the Republicans may nominate, why should they not have their votes counted for him, and why should not the Legislature be bound to respect their wishes? The Legislature, under the direct primary law, stands in the same relation to the voter in State matters as does the Electoral College in National matters. It is morally bound, whether or not its members take Statement No. 1 to accept the popular vote as its guide in the election of a United States Senator. Senator Bourne recognized this fact, and he owes his election to his earnest advocacy of the principle involved. The politicians will find that the people are not disposed to relinquish the power that has been placed in their hands, and we are very confident that in this county no candidate for the Legislature can be elected who does not accept in good faith Statement No. 1. The old gang way of doing things in Oregon is dead and none so poor to do it reverence.

Practically every officer in the American army has openly advocated the reestablishment of canteens at the various army posts and now the board of managers of the national homes for disabled volunteer soldiers and sailors has taken official action asking that the canteens be restored at the homes. This means that the matter will come before congress at the next session of that body and as the measure to do away with the canteen was carried by only four voter, there is an excellent chance that the order may be rescinded by the coming congress. In speaking of the action of the board of managers of soldiers homes in regard to the canteen, Franklin Murphy, president of the board said: "We take this stand in the interest of temperance. Anyone who has investigated the conditions in the homes since the canteen was done away with cannot help but see the evil that has been wrought. The cases of drunkeness have doubled. Dives have sprung up near some of the homes and the veteran is easily enticed to them. You cannot reform the old soldier but you can make him worse. He has been accustomed to drinking. He will not quit. The greater part of them are satisfied with beer. When they were allowed to have it they drank moderately and suffered no great harm. Now whiskey is easier to get, and the poorest quality is sold to them. Consequently we find the old soldier fast becoming a drunkard."

Remarkable Rescue.

That truth is stronger than fiction, has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Fedoras, Tenn, the residence of C. V. Pepper, He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemmhoages of lungs and throat. Doctors failed to help me and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. Kings New Discovery. Then instant relief came. The coughing ceased; the bleeding diminished rapidly, and in three weeks I was able to go to work." Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds 50c and $1.00 at all druggists. Trial bottle free.
