Talk to Ross. Columbia County Bank.

Messrs. Fred and Rudolph Ketel left here Wednesday morning, to spend a few weeks on their homestead at White Salmon. They expect to catch all kinds of fish and have a good time during this vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nicholas, of Appleton, Wisconsin, H. B. Eason, of Hood River, Miss Lottie Allen and Miss Estelle Rollins, of Amety, Oregon, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stone this week.

Money Orders at fifteen cents a hundred dollars at the Columbia County Bank.

A party of four rode into town last Thursday evening that looked about as much like hobos as respectable citizens can. They were R. E. Quick, R. Cox, Jacob George and Murel Dennet, returning from a two weeks visit to the Nehalem. They report having had an excellent time.

W. A. Harris is again at his office, after a two weeks outing at Vernonia. Mrs. Harris and Miss Edna will spend a few more weeks in the valley before returning home.

I have money to loan on approved real estate security.

Rev. John Ovall, representing the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon, occupied the pulpit at the M. E. church in this city on Sunday last, in the interest of the prohibition cause. He is an eloquent speaker and presents his side of the question in a very able manner. The League is organizing for work throughout the State in the coming campaign.

The Ladies Aid Society of Houlton will give a Lawn Social on the banks of Milton Creek, near the residence of Mrs Little, Saturday evening Aug. 24. A program will be rendered, and refreshments serve. Come out and enjoy a social evening with your friends.

Rev. Asa Sleeth will preach at Houlton next Sabbath a. m. and at St. Helens in the evening.

Mrs. Lillie Hayborn, of Portland, is spend this week with her sister Mrs. J. B. Godfrey of this city.

Raising the Debt.

Rev. Fry, pastor of the M. E. church, of Rainier, was in St. Helens last Monday to file a mortgage in favor of the Church Extension Society in the sum of $500, running for a period of five years, with yearly payments of $100. Seven months ago, when Mr. Frye took charge, the church was in debt over nineteen hundred dollars. In that time over fourteen hundred dollars has been wiped out and there is no outside indebtedness. This gives the Methodists courage to undertake further improvements, and we understand that they contemplate converting the basement of the church into a reading room and gymnasium, so that the young people of the town may have a healthful place in which to spend their spare time.

Wood Flume Falls.

Friday was an unlucky day for the wood flume which wends its sinuous and unlovely course from St. Helens to the wood camp. It took a tumble on that day and complied with the wishes of the community by falling from its high estate onto the beach. Several hundred feet of it dropped out and we are informed that the proprietors have no intention of rebuilding it. It has brought many hundreds of cords of wood to St. Helens and has caused considerable money to be circulated here, but the day of its usefulness is over and the sooner the remainder of it is removed from the front of the new court house the better.

What are you doing to help win first prize?

Accident to A. A. Merrill.

A. A. Merrill, a highly esteemed pioneer citizen of Columbia County, met with a most remarkable accident Sunday morning that may result fatally. He had recently purchased a farm near Houlton and was stocking it with Jersey cows. One of the animals was inclined to kick and Mr. Merrill, in attempting to milk it, pressed his head into its flank as is customary with dairymen in such cases. He was of course, in a stooping posture with his head bent forward and backed up against a partition. Instead of kicking, the cow surged against him, pressing him between her and the partition, causing a contusion of the spinal cord. The effect is that his body is paralyzed below the arms. All that he can do is to raise his right arm to his head and his left arm part way. There is no sensation whatever in his chest or in his legs and his lungs do not appear to work, the breathing being from his diaphragm. Dr. Ross, who was summoned, called Dr. Williamson, of Portland, in consultation. Mr. Merrill has been growing worse since

Miss Susie Clonninger and brother Arch took in the Seashore last Sunday.

Section foreman M. J. Butler and family have returned from a pleasant weeks outing at the coast.

Master Roy Price is working on the new signal tower at the railroad crossing.

County road supervisor Emmett Stevens is busily engaged in collecting road taxes and getting the roads in condition for the winter.

S. H. Robson, div. storekeeper for the N. P. Ry., was in Scappoose last week inspecting stores, supplies, tools and tool houses. He was accompanied by the div. road master J. F. Foster.

Mr. J. Havilik is harvesting his large crop of poppies. They are very prolific as well as profitable, an unlimited demand for the seed at fancy prices.

We notice a new clerk in the store of Ross and Milloy. Business is picking up.

A traveling circus stopped in town recently and gave us quite a dog and monkey show, judging from the large attendance.

This time the slot machines had to go. Not with their faces to the wall but down and out of the saloons.

There is one game still running in Scappoose that Sheriff White has overlooked, that is Grandpa Price's games of croquet.

Mrs. Sam Wiest expects to soon move to Camp No. 2 in order to be with her husband who is superintendent of the Chapman Timber Company's tracks and trains.

Mr. Elsie Miller, the genial clerk for Watts & Price, is intending of getting a new automobile of the White Steamer make.

Ed Wiest has just received a new four wheeled track velocopede from the East, but he can't beat Ike Pizer with his bicycle and rail attachment, both these machines are for use on the logging road.

Mr. H. VanDresden and Miss Selma Reimer of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Gust Wiest were visiting Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wickersham.

George Wiest, Ed Gore and others have left for the headwaters of the Scappoose on a hunting and fishing trip. Word has been brought back that game is plenty but not many fish.

(Too late for last week)

Harvesting is going on with a whirl since the warm weather came. All grain crops are turning out abundantly.

Apples are showing up a scant crop—ditto pears and plums, potatoes are yielding heavily and a good quality.

W. J. Fullerton was interviewing our our farmers this week in the matter of gathering crop exhibits for the State Fair.

Mrs. A. E. Johnson and children and Miss Veron Farrell left for a stay at the beach this week.

Mr. Joe Day and wife and Miss Rine from St. Helens are sojourning at Moyers place on Scappoose creek.

A merry party of our young people took a ride on the Chapman Co. railroad Thursday going about ten miles into the mountains. They report having a splendid and exciting trip.

PITTSBURG

Everyone went to campmeeting at Vernonia last Sunday but don't see any great change in general appearances as a result. Tongues of Fire brethren passed through here on their way to Mist to hold meetings this last week. Haven't heard of any converts there yet.

Mrs. M. J. Powell returned home on Friday after visiting the small grandson at St. Helens.

Mrs. Elliott has also come home after her long sickness in Portland. We are glad to know she is so much improved and wish her speedy return to good health.

Campers are still coming in to our quiet nook and finding abundant health and strength beside Nehalem's rippling stream.

Harvesting is well along and most of the grain will be safe in the stack by the end of the week. A good crop generally will be harvested.

Blackberries are just beginning to ripen and there is plenty for all, both natives and visitors.

The luscious apples are also ready now and more than one tree is breaking under the enormous crop which has

RAINIER

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wonderly, Sunday evening, occurred the wedding of their youngest daughter Miss Millie A., to W. H. Williams of Houston, Texas, Rev. W. C. Fry officiating. The ceremony took place at 7 in the evening in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Fry, Miss Phelps, Carl Stewart and the immediate relatives of the family. The decorations were sweet peas and dahlias. The bride was dressed in white and carried white roses, while the groom was dressed in conventional black. After lunch, the bride and groom took the evening train for home. Miss Wonderly is one of the most estimable young ladies of Rainier, having been prominent in social, school and church work.

The Common Council, at its adjourned session last Mondry evening, passed a resolution authorizing the treasurer to accept town warrants in payment of sums due the city and for saloon licenses. There is no money in the treasury and the bank, owing to the failure to provide means for raising funds, will not accept town warrants at par. The saloon men, however, will cash them, provided the city will receive them in payment for licenses. Some such step was necessary pending the adoption of a new charter giving to the council power to levy a greater rate of taxation than is provided by the present document.

The school directors of this district have decided to appeal the case decided against them by a jury in Judge Doan's court, wherein Prof. Case recovered judgment for a salary balance alleged to be due him as principal of our public school. The case now goes to the circuit court and will probably be tried at the October term. Its a good thing—for the lawyers.

The Beaver Lumber Company's mill, at Prescott, is turning out lumber at the rate of 95,000 feet daily. B. D. Stevens, Beloit, Wisconsin, is at the mill drawing plans for the setting of a horizontal resaw, of his own invention, and the system of live rolls which will aid in supplying it with lumber. The machine will take either a large-sized piece of timber or a small one, or both at the same time. This is made possible by having two sets of rolls into which the lumber is fed. Thes rolls may be raised or lowered to accommodate the size of the stick. It is doubtless the heaviest band resaw on the coast. The mill is yet a long way from completion, though a large crew of men is kept busy; but when it is done it will be a credit to its owners.

John Ulman of Yankton (Milton creek ridge) "boosted" the county exhibit along last week with splendid sample of winter wheat and alfalfa. George Lamont, of Germany Hill, helped out with spring wheat, beans and cucumbers.

The Astoria & Columbia River Railroad Company has named a rate of one and one third fare for the round trip to Portland and return, to enable everyone to attend Ringling Bros.' circus, which will exhibit at Portland next Monday and Tuesday, August 26th and 27th; return limit day following date of sale. Children of half fare age will be charged one half of these rates, with a minimum of fifty cents for the round trip.

Mrs. Jack Reeder departed Tuesday morning to visit her parents at Sheridan, this State, before going to Oakland, California. Mr. Reeder remains until September 1st, to close the books at the Rainier Mill and Lumber Co., when he will join his wife and accept a like position with the same company at Oakland. Owing to the harvest season being on, it is impossible for the mill here to get men, so it is not expected that operations will be resumed before Oct. 1st. The company usually employs about 60 people.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Harris who have resided in Rainier the past four months departed Wednesday for Salem where they expect to make their future home.

J. K. Stewart who has been running one of the donkey engines in the C. C. Wilson lumber camp, is nursing an injured arm. A small pustule on his wrist breaking open, the hand and arm began to swell, and when examined by a physician, it was found that blood poison had set in.

M. E. Troutman who has realty holdings here, took a run down from Prescott Tuesday evening.

E. S. Thomas has decided to again enter into the practice of the law. For six years prior to his arrival on the Pacific Coast Mr. Thomas was attorney for the big shoe firm of C. Gotzian & Co., of St. Paul, his work being corporation and commercial law. He has fought many a battle with the legal lights of Minnesota, Montana, and the Dakotas. Mr. Thomas was admitted to the bar in 1887, and since that time has practiced law in Minnesota, where he lived prior to coming to the Coast. During the past few years he has been connected with the Rainier Mine Company as its president, and his knowledge of law has been of inestimable value to the company.

Prof. O. H. Byland, who will take charge of the city schools the coming school year, was in town Wednesday, making preparations to bring his family to his future home.

R. E. Elvers, of Astoria, has been given an option for a lease on the lower hall of the K. P. building, with the understanding that if he accepts the lease at the price stipulated the Pythian Building Association will make very extensive improvements, including adding twenty feet to the length of the structure, placing it upon a concrete foundation, increasing the seating capacity, building a gallery, and so forth. It is thought the deal will be consummated and Rainier will have one of the best opera houses of any town of its size in

MANY GOING TO BIG CIRCUS

The people of this vicinity will have but one opportunity of seeing Ringling Brothers World's Greatest Shows this year, the exhibition at Portland on Aug. 26th and 27th, being the only one to be presented near here. It is an opportunity that all lovers of good amusement should avail themselves of, as the Ringling Brothers have organized a circus so excellent, so large and so full of novelty that it is above comparison with any other show.

Foreign agents stationed in Europe and Asia were instructed last winter to engage every act of prominence regardless of cost, and the result is a performance absolutely monopolizing all the world's best talent. What these agents left for other shows to engage was not considered good enough for the Ringling Brothers to bother with. There are over 300 performers with the circus and 100 big acts, not one for which any other show could afford to pay for. The Riccobono horses which wears trousers, coats and boots, and stand and walk on their hind feet all the time they are in the ring, are the greatest trained animal act the world has ever seen.

Other attractions are Alexander Patty the only man on earth who can walk on his head as others walk on their feet; DeKock's wonderful dog that walks around the ring on its hind feet, balancing a man on its head, the wonderful five Bednis, from Italy, who jump simultaneously to the back of a single horse; the great Kaufmans who ride unicycles on a high wire with the handle bars removed; the Holloways of London; the Marnello-Maranites, acrobatic bell ringers; Daisy Hodgini, the celebrated Italian rider and only woman who can turn a somersault while on horseback, and the Miriz Golem troupe, loaned to the Ringlin Brothers by the Shah of Persia.

If the space were to spare 100 more acts, better than ever before seen in this country, could be mentioned. Suffice it to say that Ringling Brothers have an organization so wonderful as to stand on a plane by itself high above any other kind of amusement. And there will be but one opportunity for the people of this vicinity to see it.

Big Traffic on A. & C.

Railroad Commissioner Aitchison has been taking a trip on the A. & C., and finds that the train service has been considerably improved of late. Others have noted this fact, and that better order is being maintained on the Sunday trains. He found, however, that the Saturday night train for Portland was considerably over loaded, there being a seating capacity of only 298 for 590 passengers. Standing on the platform were 108, and standing in the isles 187. In the second section, however, he found many empty seats, and, taking the two sections, there were enough seats for all but 50 of the passengers. As the train fills up at the stations between Astoria and Portland, the only remedy would seem to be a refusal to admit more than those for whom there are seats and then they would kick.

OREGON TRUST FAILS

Portland Financial Institution in the Hands of Receiver.

The Oregon Trust & Savings Bank passed into the hands of the receiver on Monday last, owing, it is said, to the reckless management of its cashier, Cooper Morris. It is thought the resources of the bank will more than offset its liabilities. T. C. Devlin, recently city auditor of the city of Portland, has been appointed receiver.

It is probable that a number of Columbia County people have deposits in the defunct concern. It was a stockholder in the State Bank of Rainier, but fortunately for the Rainier institution, it lost nothing by the Portland failure, and is in as good financial condition as at any time in its history. There was some excitement in Rainier upon receipt of news of the failure, but prompt action upon the part of Cashier Lottman and the business men of that community, averted what would have been a needless disaster.
