"A Shoe Store for Shoes"

Is the dictum of the experienced. It is a matter of shoe history that the department stores which try to sell shoes of the grades we sell do not make a success of it. The reason is that a shoe "department" is fundamentally lacking in the element of SERVICE that must go with the sale of fine shoes to make them really worth the price asked.

VALUE OF GOOD ROADS.

Improving a County's Highways Sent Price of Land Up.

Bradley county, Tenn., covering 322 square miles of territory, had an assessment valuation equal to $9 per acre and an average tax rate of $1 per $100 when agitation in favor of good roads began there. After a long and earnest struggle the advocates of improvement were able to carry by a small majority a measure which provided for the issuing of bonds for $150,000, to be used for improving the public thoroughfares. Opponents of the scheme fought it in the courts and thus held back the work of advancement, but the courts decided that the bonds would be valid and ordered that they should be issued.

Warned by the hostility which had so delayed their work, the advocates of good roads began cautiously to carry out their undertaking in such a way as should make converts if not warm friends of their opponents. Competent engineers were engaged to plan and direct the work, and the most modern machinery was bought, every part of the work was done in the best way practicable and every care taken to get the best results for the money.

Before half of this $150,000 was spent all parts of the county clamored for additional money for road improvement of all their roads, and there was little if any opposition to providing for the issue of $150,000 worth of bonds for this purpose.

A result of this was that land which could not find buyers at $9 to $10 an acre so long as the roads were in the dry dusty and rough, steep and badly aligned or wet, muddy and stony, was easily salable at $15 to $20 per acre even before the work of making the roads good was completed. Another result is that the county seat has gained importance as a manufacturing town and is consequently growing in population, in prosperity and in ability to pay a larger share each new year of the cost of improvement.—E. W. Perry in Good Roads Magazine.

TOURING ABROAD.

Much Money Spent by Travelers Where the Roads Are Good.

Thousands of dollars are spent by American tourists abroad every year that would remain in this country were our highways in better condition. Few people probably realize the great amount of money that travelers leave annually in foreign countries, where the beautiful scenery is made accessible by good roads, thus making touring a pleasure rather than a hardship.

Over 2,000,000 people visit Switzerland annually, who, it is estimated, spend a sum aggregating $25,000,000. It is said Spain, Bavaria and Italy receive over $50,000,000 from their visitors each year. Good roads are to be found everywhere in those countries and are kept in the best of condition, making touring delightful. Every point is easily reached, and much money is spent by the tourists in towns and villages visited.

BAD ROAD FOR TOURISTS.

Good Roads Magazine says that while some of the finest scenery in the world is to be found in America, the fact that we have not yet built roads to make it accessible to tourists results in a great loss each year to this country. So much value is attached to securing the patronage of tourists that foreign governments spend vast sums in improving their roads as an attraction.

The Wasted Witticism.
