

PITTSBURG

All the same summer. C. as. Arm. from of upper Nehalem, was in the burg Sunday. A. P. Erickson made a business trip to Fishhawk last Monday. Wm. Elliott, Jr., packed his grip and left for Portland last week, where he will visit for a few weeks. Mart Ray, U. S. Mellinger, J. Pringle, Lon Emmens and Jack Ray were Clatskanie visitors last week. Wm. Woods is running his cork mill these days. Mr. W. has the rep. of making first class floats. Geo. W. Armstrong sold his 90 acre ranch a mile and a half below Pittsburg a few days ago to John Pringle, of Vernonia.

Martin Wedrick and family, formerly of this place, are residing in Portland this week. E. F. Nickerson is visiting Portland. The Dalles, and Lyle, Wash., this week. He will return Saturday.

Wm. Pringle, Jr., killed a wild cat last Sunday which has been bothering the sheep and chickens in this neighborhood the last couple of months. We'll be off for Natal next Saturday evening, March 14th. A big time assured.

Ray Bros. started their mill going last Monday on Oak Ranch creek, and will saw lumber. They are also prepared to run their grist mill. Miss Kate Ronde, of Portland, is teaching our school. The Nehalem Horse Company held a business meeting here last Saturday. This company is composed of the most up-to-date ranchers in our valley, and own one of the finest horses in the Northwest. He was purchased in Idaho at a price of $4000.

Cruisers are beginning to make their appearance again, which indicates that Nehalem timber will soon be on the move.

There will be a citizen's meeting held at Vernonia, Saturday, March 21, 1908, for the purpose of discussing the many amendments to be voted on next election. Everybody is invited to attend and take part.

Best Healer in the World

Rev. F. Starbird, of East Raymond, Maine, says: "I have used Buckle's Arnica Salve for several years, on my old army wound, and other obstinate sores, and find it the best healer in the world. I use it too with great success in my veterinary business." Price 25c. at Honiton, Deer Island, Scappoose and Warren dealers.

RAINIER

The new city council met Monday evening, organized and cast lots for the long and short term. Three slips were put into a hat with the figure 1, and three slips with the figure 2; the three new councilmen, Bell, Fry and Everman, drawing the long term slips. The council simply organized and adjourned to the first Monday in April.

The water commissioners met for the first time Saturday evening with the two new commissioners in their councils. It was deemed advisable to hire a new civil engineer to superintend the water works, as Mr. Chase is unable to attend to the work. Mr. Backus, of Portland, was communicated with and is expected to arrive this week, and will undoubtedly take charge.

Miss Ezel LeDue, the popular St. Helens teacher, spent Sunday with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Thomas are expected home from New York this week.

There will be a good old fashioned St. Patrick's dance at the K. P. hall next Tuesday evening, and everything will be the good old style pumpkin pie, cornbread and lasses, Virginia reels, Monie Musk, Arkansas Traveler, etc. The old timer will be there in force. It will be one of the good old hoe downs, jgg and all. Only enough will be charged to pay for the hall, the cook, and the fiddler, as the only purpose of the dance is simply to have a good time.

The work of laying the eight inch pipe from the reservoir to the intake for the new water works is completed and work will at once be in on the million and a half gallon reservoir, which will be situated on one of the highest hills of the city. The system will be completed by June 1st.

The O. K. mill has contracted to saw a big lot of lumber and will begin operations as soon as the re-saw is installed. Mr. John Riha, of Vainz, Ia., says "I have been selling DeVitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold. I have used them myself with fine results." Sold by A. J. Deming and Scappoose Drug Co.

Injustice to Indian War Veterans

ST. HELENS, Or., March 4th. Editor Oregon Mist. Dear Sir—In yesterday morning's Oregonian I noticed an item entitled "Pensions to Oregonians." Then follows a list of names, residents of Oregon, who have had their pensions increased recently. I do not begrudge any veteran of any war in which the United States has been engaged, all the increase in his pension he can secure. The government is pretty tardy about these increases of pensions, to say the least, but the point I desire to make at this time is, that not one of the veterans named is an Indian War veteran. The Indian War veteran gets $8 per month, no more, no less. Why should not the Indian war veteran be entitled to an increase as other veterans are? Why discriminate between him and the veterans of other wars? He risked his life, he suffered hardships and privation, he bore the heat and burden of the day and the dangers which threaten the soldier on the field of battle. He was regularly mustered into the service of Uncle Sam and he stands before the country and before the world as one of the veterans of a war in which his country was engaged.

Therefore I ask, why in the name of even handed justice and common sense is he not entitled to the same rights under the pension laws of the United States that are accorded the veterans of other wars?

ANDREW J. LAWS.

NEW YORK FOR HUGHES It has always seemed doubtful, upon any general survey of the field, whether Taft could obtain the nomination for the Presidency; for since he is the leading candidate, the natural tendency among supporters of all the rest will be to unite on some one against him. Whether any of the great states, save Ohio, will back him zealously and steadfastly, is still problematical. What will Pennsylvania do when she gets through with Knox, and Illinois when she gets through with Cannon and Indiana when she gets through with Fairbanks? New York, greatest of all, is likely to stand for Hughes. A long step in this direction has been taken by the Republican State Committee of New York, which has unanimously pronounced for Hughes and issued an address calling upon the various districts of the state to send Hughes delegates to the Chicago convention. It is probable that New York in convention will support Hughes with practical unanimity. Question is whether other states will fall in for him more probably than with Taft.

Not a few persons believe Hughes would be a stronger candidate before the electorate than Taft. Hughes has excellent standing on all matters of present interest to the country. His record is unimpeachable. In his treatment of the great questions that have arisen in the State of New York he has been as fearless as Roosevelt himself.

Taft is handicapped—how far no one can tell—by the opposition of organized labor, and by the resentment of the negroes of the country over the Brownsville affair. To insist that the opposition to him on these grounds has no foundation would avail little. But these forces of opposition would not appear against Hughes at all.

Good judges of politics deem the chances excellent for the nomination of Hughes. The whole question will be whether the supporters of Knox, Fairbanks, Cannon and La Follette, and various unattached delegations, may not be as likely to swing to Hughes as to go to Taft. In the present state of the case this appears to be the problem of the Republican nomination.—Oregonian.
