

RAINIER

At the council meeting held last Monday night N. W. Howard the newly elected treasurer presented the following bondsmen: W. D. Pine, $30.00; J. W. McMillan, $5000; Fred Trow, $5000; Dr. McMillan, $5000; Miles Sheerin, $5000, total $10,000, being double the amount that is expected to be in his hands at any time during his term of office. Councilmen Stennick and Dietz objected to private bonds, and urged that bonds be furnished by a surety company and that the city pay for the same, but were out voted and the above bondsmen were accepted.

Mr. Orrin Backus, the newly appointed civil engineer has taken charge of the water works system, with Chas. Brown as inspector for the city. Arrangements were completed with Mr. Backus to finish the work left undone by Mr. Case for $600, Mr. Brown to receive $3.00 per day as inspector. $5000 was paid to Griebish & Joplin, of Portland as first installment for work completed to date.

PITTSBURG

Al Parker is on the sick list. Teddy Erickson is on the Mist-Pittsburg mail route this week. O. A. Powell is teaching the Yaquina school in Lincoln county. Ex-commissioner W. D. Case and family are residing in Forest Grove this winter. Miss Shirley Woods is visiting friends at Natal this week.

Wm Pringle made a business visit to Mist last Monday. James Elliot has returned to Portland and is attending the Behnke Walker Business College. We miss Jim's smiling face, and wish him the best of success. About thirty of the young folks from Vernonia passed through this berg Saturday evening for Natal, where they had a big time.

Miss Edith Peterson is visiting her sister, Miss Ethel, in Portland this week. Some big strings of trout are being caught in the river and creeks since the recent rains. S. P. Ballard and family have moved part of their furniture to Boring, Clackamas county where they will reside this summer.

The Natal base ball team has reorganized and elected the following officers: Manager, Clause Messing; captain, Martin Ray. There'll be something doing this summer in the baseball world judging from Natal's line up. Robt. Lindsay and Lameck Peterson are expecting to visit the California metropolis soon, presumably to greet "Fighting Bob's" feet.

They certainly had a time at Natal last Saturday evening despite the rainy weather, over a hundred dollars being realized from the sale of the baskets.
