"A Shoe Store for Shoes"

is the dictum of the experienced. It is a matter of shoe history that the department stores which try to sell shoes of the grades we sell do not make a success of it. The reason is that a shoe "department" is fundamentally lacking in the element of SERVICE that must go with the sale of fine shoes to make them really worth the price asked.

THE PARTY LINE

(Kalama Bulletin)

Neighborhood not far from here
Put in a telephone last year;
Farmers built a rural line,
Instruments all "talked up" fine.
All you had to do was ring;
Every bell went ting-a-ling,
One for Swanson, two for Boggs,
Long and short for old man Scroggs.
Every neighbor had his call;
Twist the crank and that was all.
Mighty nice when work was through,
To gossip for an hour or two
With your neighbors, one by one;
Mighty nice, but lots more fun
To overhear some other two,
Telling what was not for you.
Everytime the signal rang
To the phone each farmer sprang.
Slyly grinned and softly took
The receiver from the hook;
Other people's secrets dear,
Poured into his large red ear;
Slapped his leg and said: "I Swann!
Telephone is lots of fun."
Somehow in a week or two
Troubles dark began to brew.
Farmer Jones got fighting hot,
Heard Scroggs calling him a sot.
Farmer Scroggs seemed angry, too,
Heard Smith telling what he knew;
Paid him off with two black eyes.
Johnson heard young Extra Boggs
Underbid him on his hogs,
Boggs o'erheard a sneaking churl,
Making love to his best girl,
Women, too, were in the muss,
Raised a most tremendous fuss.
Everyone from Scroggs to Jones,
In glass houses throwing stones,
Now the line has silent grown,
Wires are rusted, poles o'erthrown
Twenty friends are deadly foes,
Each one full of griefs and woes.
Each too mad to speak a word,
'Cause of things they've overheard.

Over Thirty-Five Years

In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most dangerous cases. For sale by A. J. Deming, druggist.

Syrup of White Pine and Tar, the old reliable cough remedy. For sale by A. J. Deming, druggist.
